Rational Commitment And Social Justice Essays For Gregory Kavka:

Rational Commitment and Social Justice Jules L. Coleman, Christopher W. Morris, Gregory S. Kavka, 1998-11-13

Gregory S Kavka 1947-94 was a prominent and influential figure in contemporary moral and political philosophy The essays in this volume are concerned with fundamental issues of rational commitment and social justice to which Kavka devoted his work as a philosopher The essays take Kavka's work as a point of departure and seek to advance the respective debates The topics include the relationship between intention and moral action as part of which Kavka's famous toxin puzzle is a focus of discussion the nature of deterrence the rationality of morals contractarian ethics and the contemporary relevance of Hobbes political thought Incorporating important philosophical statements of problems and fresh contributions to the ongoing debate about rational intention this volume will interest not just philosophers but also political scientists and economists The Stag Hunt and the Evolution of Social Structure Brian Skyrms, 2004 Brian Skyrms author of the successful Evolution of the Social Contract which won the prestigious Lakatos Award has written a sequel The book is a study of ideas of cooperation and collective action The point of departure is a prototypical story found in Rousseau's A Discourse on Inequality Rousseau contrasts the pay off of hunting hare where the risk of non cooperation is small but the reward is equally small against the pay off of hunting the stag where maximum cooperation is required but where the reward is so much greater Thus rational agents are pulled in one direction by considerations of risk and in another by considerations of mutual benefit Written with Skyrms's characteristic clarity and verve this intriguing book will be eagerly sought out by students and professionals in philosophy political science economics sociology and evolutionary biology

Libertarian Accounts of Free Will Randolph Clarke, Randolph K. Clarke, 2005-12-08 This comprehensive study offers a balanced assessment of libertarian accounts of free will Bringing to bear recent work on action causation and causal explanation Clarke defends a type of event causal view from popular objections concerning rationality and diminished control He subtly explores the extent to which event causal accounts can secure the things for the sake of which we value free will judging their success here to be limited Clarke then sets out a highly original agent causal account one that integrates agent causation and nondeterministic event causation He defends this view from a number of objections but argues that we should find the substance causation required by any agent causal account to be impossible Clarke concludes that if a broad thesis of incompatibilism is correct one on which both free will and moral responsibility are incompatible with determinism then no libertarian account is entirely adequate

Contractualism and the Foundations of Morality Nicholas Southwood, 2013-11-07 Contractualism has a venerable history and considerable appeal Yet as an account of the foundations or ultimate grounds of morality it has been thought by many philosophers to be subject to fatal objections In this book Nicholas Southwood argues otherwise Beginning by detailing and diagnosing the shortcomings of the existing Hobbesian and Kantian models of contractualism he then proposes a novel deliberative model based on an interpersonal deliberative conception of practical reason He argues that the deliberative model of contractualism represents an attractive alternative to its more familiar rivals and that it has the resources to offer a more compelling account of morality's foundations one that does justice to the twin demands of moral accuracy and explanatory adequacy

The Cambridge History of Moral Philosophy Sacha Golob, Jens Timmermann, 2017-12-31 With fifty four chapters charting the development of moral philosophy in the Western world this volume examines the key thinkers and texts and their influence on the history of moral thought from the pre Socratics to the present day Topics including Epicureanism humanism Jewish and Arabic thought perfectionism pragmatism idealism and intuitionism are all explored as are figures including Aristotle Boethius Spinoza Hobbes Hume Kant Hegel Mill Nietzsche Heidegger Sartre and Rawls as well as numerous key ideas and schools of thought Chapters are written by leading experts in the field drawing on the latest research to offer rigorous analysis of the canonical figures and movements of this branch of philosophy The volume provides a comprehensive yet philosophically advanced resource for students and teachers alike as they approach and refine their understanding of the central issues in moral thought

Intergenerational Justice Lukas H. Meyer, 2017-05-15 The essays selected for this volume show how relations between past current and future generations have become a major subject of philosophical research since the 1970s The relations between people alive today with people who may exist in the future and people now deceased differ from relations between contemporaries and in ways that raise new conceptual logical and substantive questions Among the questions addressed in this volume are what is the status of people now deceased and people who may exist in the future Can the latter be harmed by the actions of people alive today What duties of justice do we have towards people with whom we can neither interact nor co operate and can people who are indirect victims of past injustices legitimately claim compensation Answers to these questions are relevant in a number of policy areas most notably in issues regarding reparations for historical injustice and responding to climate change and its consequences

The Oxford Handbook of Animal Ethics Tom L. Beauchamp, R.G. Frey, 2011-11-17 This text is designed to capture the nature of the questions as they stand today and to propose solutions to many of the major problems in the ethics of how we use animals

Addiction and Self-Control Neil Levy, 2013-12 This book brings cutting edge neuroscience and psychology into dialogue with philosophical reflection to illuminate the loss of control experienced by addicts and thereby cast light on ordinary agency and the way in which it sometimes goes wrong

Amartya Sen Christopher W. Morris, 2010 A volume of essays on aspects of Amartya Sen's hugely influential and multi disciplinary work

Strategic Justice Peter Vanderschraaf, 2019 The author defends the ancient claim that justice is at bottom a body of social conventions Recent analytical and empirical concepts and results from the social sciences together with insights and arguments of past masters of moral and political philosophy are integrated into a new game theoretic conventionalist analysis of justice
