Readings In Medieval History Vol 1 The Early Middle Ages:

Readings in Medieval History, Volume I Patrick Geary, 2016-04-01 Patrick J Geary's highly acclaimed collection of source materials on the medieval period is well known for offering an excellent selection of substantial excerpts or whole documents wherever possible from the most widely studied historical texts. This much anticipated fifth edition features a larger format as well as enlarged type to make the collection more reader friendly. Study questions have been added at the end of each section to help students focus on key points in the text. Volume I includes a new selection from the Rule of St Benedict and a new translation of Einhard's The Life of Charlemagne as well as a color photo section introducing students to fascinating medieval art such as a seventh century stone from Hornhausen, a shirt that belonged to Queen Bathild, and a page from the St Petersburg Bede. Readings in medieval history Patrick J. Geary, 1992 Readings in Medieval History Patrick J. Geary, 2010-01-01

Geary's careful and wise selection of texts in his reader provides the best balance between range and depth necessary for a successful source book. Nicholas Everett, University of Toronto. A Companion to the Abbey of Cluny in the Middle Ages, 2021-11-29 Founded in 910 by Duke William of Aquitaine, the abbey of Cluny rose to prominence in the eleventh century as the most influential and opulent center for monastic devotion in medieval Europe. While the twelfth century brought challenges both internal and external, the Cluniacs showed remarkable adaptability in the changing religious climate of the high Middle Ages. Written by international experts representing a range of academic disciplines, the contributions to this volume examine the rich textual and material sources for Cluny's history, offering not only a thorough introduction to the distinctive character of Cluniac monasticism in the Middle Ages but also the lineaments of a detailed research agenda for the next generation of historians. Contributors are Isabelle Ros, Steven Vanderputten, Marc Saurette, Denyse Riche, Susan Boynton, Anne Baud, Sbastien Barret, Robert Berkhofer III, Isabelle Cochelin, Michael Hnchen, Gert Melville, Eliana Magnani, Constance B. Bouchard, Benjamin Pohl, and Scott G. Bruce. Sources for the History of Western Civilization Michael Burger, 2024-05-01 Sources for the History of Western Civilization is a primary source reader designed specifically to allow undergraduate students to interact with historical documents. Michael Burger provides only the editorial guidance that students truly require without unnecessary interventions. The third edition gives special stress to certain genres including letters and biographical writings to facilitate comparisons across time. Introductions to sources are brief, encouraging students to make their own assessments and giving instructors the freedom to supplement where desired. The third edition features substantive revisions and additional coverage of key topics throughout, as well as new material on the Crusades, Jewish persecution, and European expansion. Disability and Medieval Law Cory James Rushton, 2020-05-15 Disability and Medieval Law: History, Literature, and Society is an intervention in the growing and complex field of medieval disability studies. The size of the field and the complexity of the subject lend themselves to the use of case studies: how a particular author imagines an injury, how a particular legal code deals with and sometimes creates injury to the human body.

While many studies have fruitfully insisted on theoretical approaches Disability and Medieval Law considers how medieval societies directly dealt with crime punishment oath taking and mental illness When did medieval law take disability into account in setting punishment or responsibility When did medieval law choose to cause disabilities How did medieval authors use disability to discuss not only law but social relationships and the nature of the human The volume includes essays on topics as diverse as Francis of Assisi Margery Kempe La Manekine Geoffrey Chaucer early medieval law codes and the definition of mental illness in English legal records by Irina Metzler Wendy J Turner Amanda Hopkins Donna Trembinski Marian Lupo and Cory James Rushton The New Cambridge Medieval History: Volume 1, C.500-c.700 Paul Fouracre, Rosamond McKitterick, David Abulafia, 1995 Sample Text Short History of the Catholic Church J. meant that these weapons could be applied to cause large scale damage to non combatants this is unlike nuclear weapons which are a truly modern invention Despite being the newest Weapon of Mass Destruction they are also the weapon of which most international attention has been applied although the frameworks by which they were contained in the last century appear inadequate to address the needs of current times As a work of reference this set of three books is unrivalled and will be of immense benefit to scholars and practitioners researching and advising on the laws of warfare It also tells a story which throws fascinating new light on the history of international law and on the history of warfare itself A Book of Middle English Thorlac Turville-Petre, J. A. Burrow, 2020-11-20 The fourth edition of this essential Middle English textbook introduces students to the wide range of literature written in England between 1150 and 1400 Beginning with an extensive overview of middle English history grammar syntax and pronunciation the book goes on to examine key middle English texts including a new extract from Julian of Norwich's Revelation of Divine Love with helpful notes to direct students to key points within the text Keeping in mind adopter feedback this new edition includes a new model translation section with a student workbook and model exercise for classroom use This new chapter will include sections on false friend words untranslatable idioms and notes on translating both poetry and prose The text and references will be fully updated throughout and a foreword dedicated to the late J A Burrow will be included Æthelflæd, Lady of the Mercians, and Women in Tenth-Century England Rebecca Hardie, 2023-11-06 Æthelflæd c 870-918 political leader military strategist and administrator of law is one of the most important ruling women in English history Despite her multifaceted roles and family legacy however her reign and relationship with other women in tenth century England have never been the subject of a book length study This interdisciplinary collection of essays redresses a notable hiatus in scholarship of early medieval England Æthelflæd Lady of the Mercians and Women in Tenth Century England argues for a reassessment of women's political military literary and domestic agency It invites deeper reflection on the female kinships networks and communities that give meaning to Æthelflæd's life and through this shows how medieval history can invite new engagements with the past
