Salvation Story Salvationist Handbook Of Doctrine:

Salvation Story Armée du Salut,1998 Study Guide to Salvation Story ,1999 Lutheran Salvationists? Gudrun Maria Lydholm,2017-03-13 The idea of a state religion is seldom connected to religious freedom and liberal modern and democratic states However such a situation existed in Norway until 2012 when the Lutheran Church was the state church of Norway A large majority of the population belonged to the church even though the percentage in 2013 had fallen to well over seventy five The relationship between the church and minority religious movements demanded adaptation and compromises from the minority churches The Salvation Army s enculturation and accommodation during its 128 year history in Norway illustrates such a situation The book examines how The Salvation Army accommodated itself both doctrinally as well as practically to the situation of a dominant state church The study reveals such a close affiliation of Salvationists to the Norwegian Church as a state institution that it raises the question of whether a concept of civil religion was implicitly present in Salvationists view of the state church and their own adherence to the church This situation also raises the question of what constitutes a real church The book indicates the tension between Lutheran and Salvationist ecclesiology as well as the influence from the Lutheran Church Saved, Sanctified and Serving Denis Metrusterly,2016-06-01 This comprehensive significant work on Salvation Army theology and practice is designed to help reinforce Salvationists appreciation of their movement s rationale and mission helping to maintain and increase the Army s unique position within the Church and as part of global faith based responses to humanitarian need The writers in this volume hold and proclaim a clear vision for the Army s future fully seizing contemporary opportunities while retaining the fire and zeal of the primitive Movement Historical Dictionary of The Salvation Army John G. Merritt,Allen Satterlee,2017-10-06 The Salvation Army is an integral part of the Christian Church although distinctive in government and practice The Army s doctrine follows the mainstream of Christian belief and its articles of faith emphasize God s saving purposes Its objects are the advancement of the Christian religion of education the relief of poverty and other charitable objects beneficial to society or the community of mankind as a whole The Salvation Army was founded in London in 1865 by William Booth its first General and has continued growing ever since In 2015 it celebrated its 150th anniversary and today it has a presence in 127 countries This second edition of Historical Dictionary of The Salvation Army contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 300 cross referenced entries on i leaders personalities events facts movements and beliefs of The Salvation Army This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about The Salvation Army Like a Mighty Army David W Taylor,2015-02-26 In 1937 prior to the 1948 inauguration of the World Council of Churches Karl Barth challenged the churches to engage in real strict sober genuine theology in order that the unity of the church might be visibly realized At that time The Salvation Army didn t aspire to become formally known as a church even though it was a founding member of the WCC Today it is globally known as a social welfare organization concerned especially to serve the needs of those who find themselves at the margins of society. Less well known is that seventy years after Barth's challenge it has made its peace with the view that it is a church denomination. Accepting Barth's challenge to the churches and in dialogue with his own ecumenical ecclesiology, the concept of the church as an Army is interrogated in service to The Salvation Army's developing understanding of its identity and to the visible unity of God's church.

Heaven Bound? Harold J. Reid, 2024-03-07 Heaven Bound is two books in one. First it is a story of a middle-aged man who commits a minor offence and is sentenced to serving a certain amount of community service hours reading to seniors in a retirement home who have trouble seeing. At the home he strikes up a friendship with a female senior. As the story progresses they bond and she becomes the mother he never had and he becomes the son she always wanted. As their relationship grows, a void in each of their lives is filled. By the end of the story, will we find one alive and one deceased or perhaps both deceased and those left behind discussing the reasons why they believe they are heaven bound. You'll find out when you get to the end of the book. Secondly, Heaven Bound contains twenty-one short stories that the gentleman in the story reads to his female senior when he comes to visit. These stories will appeal to young adults and seniors alike. The types of stories are drama, suspense, mystery, and lots of humor. The two main characters discuss the stories after each reading and find out that they are not just entertaining but there are lessons to be learned that will help them and us become better living people. These short stories will appeal to those who don't like long stories and have trouble keeping track of the plot and all the characters in it.

Saved to Save and Saved to Serve Harold Hill, 2017-07-24 The Salvation Army has now been around for more than one hundred and fifty years, having celebrated its sesquicentennial in 2015 with an International Congress in London. Over the years, both the Army and the world in which it appeared have changed beyond recognition. This is a good time for the movement to stop and look back, not just to celebrate but to see where it is today. The Army has not evolved in isolation from the world. Bringing its own history with it, it nevertheless belongs to the twenty-first century world as much as William Booth's little East End Mission belonged to nineteenth-century London. This book attempts to explore the interaction between mission and world as it has impacted the Army's beliefs and practices as well as the place it now occupies in the wider world. This critical and analytical study may also be of interest to those beyond the Army's ranks who would like to learn more about this remarkable organization.

A Legacy of Preaching, Volume Two---Enlightenment to the Present Day Zondervan, 2018-11-13 A Legacy of Preaching Volume Two: Enlightenment to the Present Day explores the history and development of preaching through a biographical and theological examination of its most important preachers. Instead of teaching the history of preaching from the perspective of movements and eras, each contributor tells the story of a particular preacher in history, allowing these preachers from the past to come alive and instruct us through their lives, theologies, and methods of preaching. Each chapter introduces readers to a key figure in the history of preaching, followed by an analysis of the theological views that shaped their preaching, their methodology of sermon preparation and delivery, and an appraisal of the significant contributions they have made to the history of preaching This diverse collection of familiar and lesser known individuals provides a detailed and fascinating look at what it has meant to communicate the gospel over the past two thousand years By looking at how the gospel has been communicated over time and across different cultures pastors scholars and homiletics students can enrich their own understanding and practice of preaching for application today Volume Two covers the period from the Enlightenment to the present day and profiles thirty one preachers including Charles Simeon by Darrell Young Robert Murray M Cheyne by Jordan Mark Stone Alexander Maclaren by R Scott Pace Catherine Booth by Roger J Green Charles Haddon Spurgeon by Thomas J Nettles Rodney Gipsy Smith by Bill Curtis George Liele by Terriel Byrd Charles Finney by Robert W Caldwell III John Jasper by Alfonza W Fulwood and Robert Smith Jr Henry Ward Beecher by Michael Duduit John Albert Broadus by Hershael W York Phillips Brooks by Charles W Fuller D L Moody by Gregg L Quiggle B H Carroll by Robert Matz and Jerry Sutton Billy Sunday by Kristopher K Barnett Karl Barth by William H Willimon Dietrich Bonhoeffer by Keith W Clements D Martyn Lloyd Jones by Carl Trueman John Stott by Greg R Scharf Harry Emerson Fosdick by Dwayne Milioni R G Lee by Charles A Fowler Aimee Semple McPherson by Aaron Friesen W A Criswell by David L Allen Gardner C Taylor by Alfonza W Fulwood and Robert Smith Jr Billy Graham by John N Akers Martin Luther King Jr by Alfonza W Fulwood Dennis R McDonald and Anil Sook Deo Adrian Rogers by Daniel L Akin and Bill Curtis E V Hill by Dante D Wright I Jerry Falwell by Edward E Hindson J I Packer by Leland Ryken and Benjamin Hernandez Volume One available separately covers the period from the apostles to the Puritans and profiles thirty preachers including Paul Origen of Alexandria Augustine of Hippo Francis of Assisi Martin Luther Jonathan Edwards John Wesley George Whitefield and more

Catherine Booth John Read,2014-01-30 Catherine Booth s achievements as a revivalist social reformer champion of women s rights and with her husband William Booth co founder of the Salvation Army were widely recognized in her lifetime However Catherine Booth s life and work has since been largely neglected This neglect has extended to her theological ideas even though they were critical to the formation of Salvationism the spirituality of the movement she cofounded This book examines the implicit theology that undergirds Catherine Booth s Salvationist spirituality and reveals the ethical concerns at the heart of her soteriology and the integral relationship between the social and evangelical aspects of Christian mission in her thought Catherine Booth emerges asa significant figure from the Victorian era a British theologian and church leader with a rare if not unique intellectual and theological perspective that of a woman Wesleyan-Holiness Churches in Australia Glen O'Brien,2018-04-17 Most Wesleyan Holiness churches started in the US developing out of the Methodist roots of the nineteenth century Holiness Movement The American origins of the Holiness movement have been charted in some depth but there is currently little detail on how it developed outside of the US This book seeks to redress this imbalance by giving a history of North American Wesleyan Holiness churches in Australia from their establishment in the years following the Second World War as well as of The Salvation Army which has nineteenth century British origins It traces the way some of these churches moved from marginalised sects to established denominations while others remained small and isolated Looking at The Church of God Anderson The Church of God Cleveland The Church of the Nazarene The Salvation Army and The Wesleyan Methodist Church in Australia the book argues two main points Firstly it shows that rather than being American imperialism at work these religious expressions were a creative partnership between like minded evangelical Christians from two modern nations sharing a general cultural similarity and set of religious convictions Secondly it demonstrates that it was those churches that showed the most willingness to be theologically flexible even dialling down some of their Wesleyan distinctiveness that had the most success This is the first book to chart the fascinating development of Holiness churches in Australia As such it will be of keen interest to scholars of Wesleyans and Methodists as well as religious history and the sociology of religion more generally

Women in God's Army Andrew Mark Eason, 2009-10-22 The early Salvation Army professed its commitment to sexual equality in ministry and leadership In fact its founding constitution proclaimed women had the right to preach and hold any office in the organization But did they Women in God's Army is the first study of its kind devoted to the critical analysis of this central claim It traces the extent to which this egalitarian ideal was realized in the private and public lives of first and second generation female Salvationists in Britain and argues that the Salvation Army was found wanting in its overall commitment to women's equality with men Bold pronouncements were not matched by actual practice in the home or in public ministry Andrew Mark Eason traces the nature of these discrepancies as well as the Victorian and evangelical factors that lay behind them He demonstrates how Salvationists often assigned roles and responsibilities on the basis of gender rather than equality and the ways in which these discriminatory practices were supported by a male defined theology and authority He views this story from a number of angles including historical gender and feminist theology ensuring it will be of interest to a wide spectrum of readers Salvationists themselves will appreciate the light it sheds on recent debates Ultimately however anyone who wants to learn more about the human struggle for equality will find this book enlightening

The Nature and Mission of the Church Jean-Marc Flückiger, This is an academic work of the highest quality but Jean Marc Flückiger presents it in a way that makes it very accessible far beyond academic circles It is a testament to his sharp intellect but even more to his love of God commitment to The Salvation Army and heartfelt dedication to the Church's mission in the world Henrik Andersen Territorial Leader of The Salvation Army Switzerland Austria Hungary Jean Marc Flückiger's book is a welcome reflection on the missionary impulse of Christian churches I found it particularly helpful to consider the interplay of the three main ingredients of mission namely worship of God community life and service to the world Christophe Chalamet Professor of Systematic Theology University of Geneva

Social Justice and the Churches John D'Arcy May, 2014-12-31 Social justice is not just a matter of applying well known first principles shared by all Christian traditions As these papers by representatives of seven Australian Churches show Christian approaches to social justice are strikingly distinctive both in their starting points and in the positions arrived at on urgent matters of human rights sexual ethics and economic justice Led off by the well known Jesuit human rights advocate Professor Frank Brennan the book includes contributions by Fr Max Vodola Roman Catholic Revd Gerard Rose Churches of Christ Revd Geoff Pound Baptist Revd Raymond Cleary Anglican Mark Zirnsak Uniting Church Major Jenny Begent Salvation Army and Fr Shenouda Boutros Coptic Orthodox Church with concluding reflections by Margaret Coffey ABC Radio National This book is the work of the Yarra Institute for Religion and Social Policy an independent ecumenical organisation promoting scholarship and research on Christian social traditions as they bear on current concerns Launched in 2009 by Professor Brian Howe the Yarra Institute is committed to engaging with our broader culture collaboratively to promote human wellbeing The authors of these chapters come from seven of the Christian traditions which have theological Colleges comprising the University of Divinity in Melbourne The Salvation Army Year Book Theodore H. Kitching, 2008

Keeping Faith in Faith-Based Organizations Dean Pallant, 2012-03-05 The world's poorest people are struggling to access quality affordable health care Change is urgently required Faith based organizations deliver more than 40 percent of health services in many of the poorest places This book argues FBOs can and must deliver quality health services without sacrificing their faith in the process Dean Pallant asks an awkward question If its faith does not drive an FBO whose faith does Pallant visited Salvation Army health ministries in more than forty countries in four years and this book records his global reflections structured around a practical theological model of enquiry His goal is to identify a faithful future for hundreds of Salvation Army hospitals and clinics and thousands of congregation based health ministries Pallant finds answers in the work of Karl Polanyi John Wesley Stanley Hauerwas William Booth and Luke Bretherton among others Pallant challenges the bio medical definition of health and proposes a comprehensive appreciation of people as healthy persons the people God created us to be Pallant's proposals are bold and far reaching for the Salvation Army and other FBOs They are insightful and challenging for everyone of whatever faith committed to improve the health of the poorest people Altruism in the Context of Economic Rationalistic Ideologies and Systems of Healthcare and Welfare Delivery. A Multi-Disciplinary Approach Donald Gates, 2006-03 This work examines the two apparently contradictory concepts of Altruism and Economic Rationalism in the context of Health and Welfare Delivery It is multi disciplinary and employs a number of disciplines including Sociology Economics Theology Religion Ecclesiology History and Political Science Leadership in The Salvation Army Harold Hill, 2006-10-01

Leadership in The Salvation Army is a review and analysis of Salvation Army history focused on the process of clericalisation The Army provides a case study of the way in which renewal movements in the church institutionalise Their leadership roles initially merely functional and based on the principle of the priesthood of all believers begin to assume greater status the adoption of the term ordination for the commissioning of The Salvation Army's officers in 1978 a hundred years after its founding illustrates this tendency The Salvation Army's ecclesiology has been essentially pragmatic and has developed in comparative isolation from the wider church perhaps with a greater role being played by sociological processes than by theological reflection in its development The Army continues to exhibit a tension between its theology which supports equality of status and its military structure which works against equality and both schools of thought flourish within its ranks

Origins of the Salvation Army Norman Murdoch, 2014-09-19 The Salvation Army is today one of the world's best known and best regarded religious and charitable movements In this deeply researched study Norman Murdoch offers some surprising new insights into the denomination's origins and its growth into an international organization Murdoch follows the lives and work of the Army's founders William and Catherine Booth from their beginnings as Wesleyan evangelists in the 1850s to their inauguration of a Utopian social plan in 1890 In particular Murdoch identifies quick accommodation to failure as a persistent theme in the Army's early history When the Booth's East End mission faltered in the mid 1870s Booth took his preaching to the provincial towns The failure of that ministry led him in 1878 to reorganize his efforts along then popular military lines and the Salvation Army was born With women as its shock troops this Christian imperium would spread beyond Britain's boundaries to become as international in scope as Victoria's empire Challenging various notions popularized in the denomination's official histories this book will be of special interest to historians of nineteenth century social reform scholars of evangelical Protestantism and readers interested in the relationship between class and religion in the Anglo American world
