Close, 2018-10-10 This book examines the central significance of sexualized female corpses in modern and contemporary Hispanic and Anglophone crime fiction Beginning with the foundational detective fictions of the nineteenth century it draws from diverse subgenres to describe a transatlantic tradition of necropornography characterized by lascivious interest in female cadavers dissection morgues femicide and snuff movies Hard boiled and police procedural classics from the U S and the U K are juxtaposed with texts by established Spanish and Spanish American genre masters and with obscure works that prefigure the contemporary transmedial boom in corpse centered fictions. The rhetoric and aesthetics of necropornographic crime fiction are related to those of popular crime journalism and forensic science television dramas This study argues that crime fiction has long fixated disproportionately on the corpses of beautiful young white women and continues to treat their deaths and autopsies as occasions for male visual pleasure male subjective self affirmation and male homosocial bonding Library Journal, 2001 Writer's Guide to Book Editors, Publishers and Literary Agents, 2001-2002 Jeff Herman, 2000 The classic reference guide for book authors has been completely revised and updated with the names and specific areas of interest of thousands of editors at over 500 book publishing houses Books in Print Supplement ,2002
