Same Bed, Different Dreams David M. Lampton, 2001-01-11 Publisher Fact Sheet An insider's view of the United States relationship with China over the last decade Congressional Policymaking in Sino-U.S. Relations during the Post-Cold War Era Joseph A Gagliano, 2014-09-15 Conventional wisdom holds that the President enjoys the preponderance of foreign policy power however Congress has influenced China policymaking more than is generally recognized The legislature has demonstrated consistent interests in the realm of China policy and it has invariably pursued those interests through law making During the post Cold War period in particular the Sino U S relationship has evolved in a radically changing international environment marked by a power transition inherent in China's rise The development of official relations between Washington and Beijing during the Cold War occurred in the shadow of an assertive Soviet power when the United States and China were able to find common geopolitical ground in opposing Soviet expansion while overlooking longstanding political disagreements The dissolution of the Soviet empire however put the United States and China on a new geostrategic footing Political disagreements were no longer exempted in light of a counter Soviet strategy and the reduction in concern for the Soviet threat allowed policymakers in Washington to more aggressively pursue trade interests that conflicted with those of China Given this international context this book aims to discern how Congress reconciled competing Sino U S interests in a post Cold War era when external threats no longer dictated an apparent hierarchy that favored China over the Soviet Union This work will be of interest to students and scholars of US foreign policy China Studies and international relations in general

US-China Relations Robert G. Sutter, 2021-12-16 Much has changed in US China relations since the first edition of this book over a decade ago alerted readers to balance outwardly positive discourse in multiple bilateral dialogues with an understanding of important differences This fourth edition provides a comprehensive assessment of historical and contemporary determinants of Sino American relations up to the present giving special focus to the recent dramatic hardening amid acute competition between the world's leading powers The catalyst and main driver of this negative change remains a unique bipartisan Congressional Administration consensus that sees multiple challenges from China now posing an overall existential threat Urgency to counter these challenges dominates US policy making toward China The consensus came about despite acute partisanship and erratic presidential leadership during the Trump administration and it continues strong with the more consistent foreign policy of President Biden China remains uncompromising forecasting continued trouble ahead Leading expert Robert G Sutter has written the only book on the subject that combines assessment of the historical evolution in depth analysis of the many issues determining recent developments and likely prospects for US China relations going forward His balanced study will be an essential resource for all concerned with the globe's most crucial bilateral partnership miracle and its turbulent position in the global economy of the twenty first century      China in World Politics Judith F. Kornberg, John R. Faust, 2005 This fully revised and updated text introduces students to China's foreign policy past and present and the factors that may influence the country's future policy agenda Exploring the new dynamics of China's regional and international roles the authors outline the political security economic and social issues the country faces in the emerging twenty first century An ideal thoughtfully crafted textbook each chapter of China in World Politics familiarizes students with the Chinese framework for analyzing the issues in question Alternate policy choices are suggested along with supporting data for each course of action Discussion and essay questions as well as suggested readings and a bibliography of internet resources are also included      China's Crisis Behavior Kai He, 2016-04-07 Since the end of the Cold War China has experienced several notable interstate crises the 1999 embassy bombing incident the 2001 EP 3 mid air collision with a United States aircraft and the Diaoyu Senkaku dispute with Japan China's response to each incident however has varied considerably Drawing from a wealth of primary sources and interviews this book offers a systematic analysis of China's crisis behavior in order to identify the factors which determine when Chinese leaders decide to escalate or scale down their response to crises Inspired by prospect theory a Nobel Prize winning behavioral psychology theory Kai He proposes a political survival prospect model as a means to understand the disparities in China's behavior He argues that China's response depends on a combination of three factors that shape leaders' views on the prospects for their political survival status including the severity of the crisis leaders' domestic authority and international pressure      The Politics of Piracy Andrew Mertha, 2018-09-05 China is by far the world's leading producer of pirated goods from films and books to clothing from consumer electronics to aircraft parts As China becomes a full participant in the international economy its inability to enforce intellectual property rights is coming under escalating international scrutiny What is the impact Andrew C Mertha asks of external pressure on China's enforcement of intellectual property The conventional wisdom sees a simple correlation between greater pressure and better domestic compliance with international norms and declared national policy Mertha's research tells a different story external pressure may lead to formal agreements in Beijing resulting in new laws and official regulations but it is China's complex network of bureaucracies that decides actual policy and enforcement The structure of the administrative apparatus that is supposed to protect intellectual property rights makes it possible to track variation in the effects of external pressure for different kinds of intellectual property Mertha shows that while the sustained pressure of state to state negotiations has shaped China's patent and copyright laws it has had little direct impact on the enforcement of those laws By contrast sustained pressure from inside China on the part of foreign trademark owners and private investigation companies in their employ provides a far greater rate of trademark enforcement and spurs action from anti counterfeiting agencies      America's China Gamble Paul J. Smith, 2025-07-15 This timely book provides a broad but incisive overview of US policy toward the People's Republic of China from 1949 until the present Paul J Smith argues that any conflict or war between the two nations would have devastating global consequences proposing a mutually beneficial path forward

Power, Perception and Foreign Policymaking Scott Brown, 2017-11-13 This book examines the changing dynamics of power in the international arena since the end of the Cold War Brown engages in analysis of how the United States and the European Union have responded to the so called rise of China through an examination of how policymakers perceptions of China have changed over time and influenced their policy choices This study undertakes rigorous analysis of how these perceptions have evolved between 1989 and 2009/2016 offering a comparative perspective on the similarities and differences between the policy discourse and behaviour within these two Western powers Brown argues that China's rise is a contested notion with varied perceptions of how the implications of China's ascendancy have shaped policy preferences in ways that are inconsistent with concerns over the threat of an impending power transition Combining concepts and methods derived from IR and FPA the book examines the linkages between great power politics and policymakers competing interpretations of key international actors and their influence upon foreign policies The main objective of the study is to illuminate the different ways in which the US and the EU have responded to the rise of China through a close analysis of their decision making processes and outcomes across a series of key encounters and events including the transatlantic debate over the EU's proposal to lift its China arms embargo 2003-2005 Undertaking qualitative analysis of the development of American and European policymakers perceptions of China this book will be of interest to graduates and scholars of post Cold War international politics Foreign Policy Analysis policymaking US China relations and EU China relations A Contest for Supremacy Aaron L. China's Trade Policy on International Air Transport Chrystal Zhang, Kareem Yarde, 2020-08-09 This book is a political economic analysis of China's transformation to become a global aviation power It aims to identify the driving forces that have shaped China's ever evolving international air transport policy direction and goals in the past four decades and further determines how and to what extent these driving forces have shaped China's considerations and strategies when executing its policy goals through bilateral air services negotiations The findings reveal that China's international air transport policymaking has remained in the domain of the country's aviation regulator which has enjoyed an exclusivity to exercise its power on the air transport sector The book argues that China's international air transport policy direction is in alignment with the country's overall strategic mission and its goal is set to support the country's endeavour to realise the China dream It concludes that factors at all levels interact with each other with a far reaching impact on the country's policy direction and goal setting however these factors are constrained by time and circumstances The book is a must read for a wide array of audiences including but not limited to scholars and industry professionals who have an interest in China's political economy policymaking international trade government behaviour
