Suthren Hirst, 2005-03-31 Samkara c 700 CE has been regarded by many as the most authoritative Hindu thinker of all time A great Indian Vedantin brahmin Samkara was primarily a commentator on the sacred texts of the Vedas and a teacher in the Advaitin teaching line This book serves as an introduction to Samkara s thought which takes this as a central theme The author develops an innovative approach based on Samkara s ways of interpreting sacred texts and creatively examines the profound interrelationship between sacred text content and method in Samkara s thought The main focus of the book is on Samkara s teaching method This method is for Samkara based on the Upanishads own it is to be employed by Advaitin teachers to draw pupils skilfully towards that realisation which is beyond all words Consequently this book will be of interest not only to students and scholars of Indian philosophy but to all those interested in the relation between language and that which is held to transcend it A Śaṃkara Source-book: Śaṃkara on the absolute Śaṅkarācārya, A. J. Alston, 1980 The Indian Social Reformer, 1925 The Role of Divine Grace in the Soteriology of Śaṃkarācārya Malkovsky, 2018-08-14 This volume examines the role of divine grace in the non dualist soteriology of a kara

The author argues that grace is an essential but generally overlooked feature in a kara s enlightenment spirituality Introductory chapters summarize recent developments in a kara research a kara s epistemology and ontology ancient Ved ntic teachings on grace and modern scholarly disagreement about grace in a kara s Advaita system The heart of the book consists of two lengthy exegetical chapters examining a kara s key passages on grace from his dozen genuine works The final chapter presents for the first time a systematic summary of a kara s understanding of the operation and necessity of divine grace This book provides a useful summary of a kara s system as a whole besides offering a radical revision of the standard understanding of a kara s soteriology It also reveals that a kara was much more indebted in his thinking to his Vedantic predecessors than had hitherto been thought Vadiraja's Refutation of Sankara's Non-dualism L. Thatamanil, While traditional Christian thought and spirituality have always affirmed the divine presence in human life Thatamanil argues we have much to learn from non dualistic Hindu thought especially that of the eighth century thinker Sankara and from the Christian panentheism of Paul Tillich Thatamanil compares their diagnoses and prognoses of the human predicament in light of their doctrine of God or Ultimate Reality What emerges is a new theology of God and human beings with a richer and more radical conception of divine immanence a reconceived divine transcendence and a keener sense of how the dynamic and active Spirit at work in us anchors real hope and deep joy Using key insights from Christian and Hindu thought Thatamanil vindicates comparative theology expands the vocabulary about the ineffable God and arrives at a new construal of the problems and prospects of the human condition Schleiermacher on Christian

Consciousness of God's Work in History Abraham Varghese Kunnuthara, 2008-01-01 This work is a fresh unusually lucid approach to Christian theology and interfaith dialogue from India Its basic aim is to examine the Christian consciousness of God's work in history redemption history within the entire history of the world It uses Christian Faith by Friedrich Schleiermacher 1768 1834 as its main text so as to view this theme in a reversed order from the way it is presented there This approach which centers on God's new creation in Christ leads to an incisive understanding of Christianity's relation to other modes of faith Throughout Dr Kunnuthara compares the thought of another Indian Christian leader steeped in Hindu thought Pandippedi Chenchiah 1886 1959 to enable renewed interfaith dialogue across a wide spectrum Paths to
