The Cambridge bibliography of English literature. 3. 1800 - 1900 Frederick Wilse Bateson,1940      A Literary History of England Vol. 4 A Baugh,2004-06-02 First published in 1959 The scope of this four volume work makes it valuable as a work of reference connecting one period with another an placing each author clearly in the setting of his time This is the fourth volume and includes the Nineteenth Century and after 1789 1939      Annual Bibliography of English

Language and Literature ,      A Literary History of England Albert Croll Baugh,1948 The purpose of this book is to provide a comprehensive history of the literature of England an account that is at once scholarly and readable capable of meeting the needs of mature students and of appealing to cultivated readers generally While the literature of England is commonly thought of as literature in English it is not likely that anyone will quarrel with the fact that some mention is made of writings in Latin and French during the medieval period at a time when these languages served as vernaculars for certain classes The Latin writings of the Renaissance and later periods however have been omitted for lack of space Nor will anyone object to the inclusion of Scottish and Irish writers who do not belong geographically to England Custom sufficiently sanctions including them The original plan brought the history to an end with the year 1939 the outbreak of the Second World War but delay in publication caused by the war has permitted reference to a few events of a date subsequent to 1939 Preface      A Literary History of England: The nineteenth century and after, 1789-1939, by S. C. Chew Albert Croll

Baugh,1948      The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature Frederick Wilse Bateson,1941      Yesterday's Tomorrows W. H. G. Armytage,2021-12-24 First published in 1968 Yesterday s Tomorrows elucidates on the favourite occupation of man forecasting the future By man s predictions he mirrors his own wish fulfilments displacements projections denials evasions and withdrawals These predications can take the form of countries of the imagination mirror worlds like Rabelais Ever Ever lands or the Erewhon of Butler Alternatively they may spring from panic reflecting fear rather than hope often manifesting themselves in our technological age as reports of flying saucers or invasions from another planet In either form they provide philosophers scientists doctors and sociologists with material for evaluating man s future needs offering both criticism of our present society plans for our future and release from tension and disequilibrium Professor Armytage shows in this book how such visions can and do refresh minds for renewed grappling with the present by arming them with ideas for man's future needs He indicates that out of an apparent welter of futuristic fantasies a constructive debate about tomorrow is emerging providing us with operational models of what tomorrow could be This book will hold special interest for students of philosophy and of English literature
