Samuel Palmer Martin Butlin, 2006-03-28 A facsimile edition of the only surviving sketchbook by this visionary Romantic painter published to coincide with a retrospective exhibition of Palmer's work Child prodigy Samuel Palmer was just fourteen years old when he first exhibited at London's Royal Academy in 1819 A delicate and withdrawn child he experienced intense and disturbing visions as a boy while developing a love of the Bible and poetry that remained a lifelong inspiration for his art Under the tutelage of William Blake and John Linnell he became the most visionary and mystical landscape painter of the Romantic era in England This beautiful volume is a facsimile of the only sketchbook by Palmer in existence Its pages vividly illustrate the crucial period when Palmer was a nineteen year old artist in rural Kent trying to establish his mature style Religious fervor the influence of Linnell and the inspiration of Blake all combined to reveal to Palmer a vision of a divinely ordered heaven on Earth located in the landscape No other surviving source provides such an immediate record of Palmer's processes of discovery or gives such insight into the self searching artistic and spiritual struggles that were soon to be resolved in his celebrated moonlit landscapes of the 1820s and 1830s All of the sketchbook's 162 surviving pages newly photographed in color finely reproduced and printed on paper resembling that of the original are presented in their original sequence and at their actual size Martin Butlin provides authoritative page by page commentaries notes and an introduction to Palmer's life while William Vaughan places the sketchbook in the context of the art and aesthetic of its time 160 color illustrations

Palmer a critical appreciation of Palmer by Pre-Raphaelite artist and critic F.G. Stephens which provides a deeply personal look at the painter as well as insight into the reception of his art during the Victorian era and an autobiographical letter by Palmer himself
