Walker,2018-06-01 The San Francisco Bay Area is currently the jewel in the crown of capitalism the tech capital of the world and a gusher of wealth from the Silicon Gold Rush It has been generating jobs spawning new innovation and spreading ideas that are changing lives everywhere It boasts of being the Left Coast the Greenest City and the best place for workers in the USA So what could be wrong It may seem that the Bay Area has the best of it in Trump s America but there is a dark side of success overheated bubbles and spectacular crashes exploding inequality and millions of underpaid workers a boiling housing crisis mass displacement and severe environmental damage a delusional tech elite and complicity with the worst in American politics This sweeping account of the Bay Area in the age of the tech boom covers many bases It begins with the phenomenal concentration of IT in Greater Silicon Valley the fabulous economic growth of the bay region and the unbelievable wealth piling up for the 1% and high incomes of Upper Classes in contrast to the fate of the working class and people of color earning poverty wages and struggling to keep their heads above water The middle chapters survey the urban scene including the greatest housing bubble in the United States a metropolis exploding in every direction and a geography turned inside out Lastly it hits the environmental impact of the boom the fantastical ideology of TechWorld and the political implications of the tech led transformation of the bay region     San Francisco Bay Area Bay Area Council (Calif.),1948
