Francisco Memoirs, 1852-1899 Malcolm E. Barker, 1996 Twenty eight men and women recall their experiences as the raw newly born city of sandhills and gambling saloons matures into a metropolis of elegant homes and bustling factories These voices from the past tell us of Life during the Civil War Living under vigilante justice Globe trotting tourists on visits to Barbary Coast dives and the opium dens of Chinatown San Francisco Michael Johns, 2018-05-15 A local rock star once said San Francisco is forty nine square miles surrounded by reality No American city has such a broad sweep of staggering views of the ocean of a huge bay of surrounding hills or such a high opinion of its own worth San Francisco has always been rich too the city's great wealth has long underwritten the broadmindedness so vital to its charm But there is much more to the City by the Bay than money and rarefied air and in San Francisco Michael Johns intimately portrays the history and surprisingly complex sensibilities that give this small city its outsized personality Johns explores how despite its sophistication San Francisco retains a frontier quality that has always attracted seekers of fortune power pleasure refuge rebellion Yet the city is more than irreverent independent and a bit outside the law it's also historically progressive technologically innovative and open to all kinds of people and ideas As Johns shows us San Francisco is an easy place to be different a home to the Beats and the hippies a vibrant LGBT community and left wing politics the rise of Burning Man and the creation of technologies that make today's San Francisco the City of Apps From Haight Ashbury to the Tenderloin Chinatown to the Mission Johns's urban journey blends historical narrative personal reflections on the city today and a treasure trove of images for a true San Francisco treat

Women's Press Organizations, 1881-1999 Elizabeth V. Burt, 2000-06-30 Little has been published about press organizations and even less about women's press organizations This book is the first to document the history of women's press organizations In addition to rich historical accounts of some of these organizations it also provides a picture of many of the women journalists involved in these press organizations many of whom were leaders both in journalism and in the social movements of their time This book is a description and analysis of forty women s press organizations that have been key to the development of women writers of the press since the first established organization in 1881 Each entry describes the challenges faced by women that brought about the establishment of the organization at that particular time and place some of the women who played key roles in the group s leadership the group s major activities and programs and its contributions to women of the press The main purpose of these organizations was to provide women with a place where they could discuss professional issues and career strategies at a time when they were largely excluded from or marginalized by male dominated media institutions However many also reflected the interests of some of the social and political reform movements associated with the women s movements of the 19th and 20th centuries including the woman suffrage peace and ERA movements Although some of the organizations described here no longer exist new ones have taken on the challenge in a profession where women still do not have equity

David Jensen, 2001-12-12 John Pitman Jr didnt want to become a doctor His father had been one and had failed a die hard who had clung to cupping and purging as a means of ridding the bodys impurities But as a stevedore on the docks of San Francisco no one could mend broken bones like John Pitmans lanky son Jack Finally the young lad decides If he is to become a doctor he will be the best INSIDE THE BARBARY COAST is where Jack Pitman chooses to open his medical practice It is an area of San Francisco filled with saloons parlor houses and opium dens bordering on Chinatown Fresh out of medical school Jack saves the life of a young Chinese prince who is an actor in Dr Pierre Louthans medical show Louthan did not go to medical school but easily passes off as a learned physician with his European manner silver tongued ability to converse on any subject relating to anatomy and his courses of treatment that involve a growing array of patent medicines Jack falls in love with Louthans assistant Marie not realizing she is married to the quack doctor Although Jacks nurse the wise Madam Wong cautions the young doctor he is smitten nonetheless and fathers a child Louthan believes is his Jack fights to discredit the huckster hoping Marie will see Louthan as a charlatan and leave him She however has plans of her own and manages to snare Jack in her own secret web As Jack becomes consumed in his new practice he tries valiantly to save the life of Hawaii s King David Kalakaua who is dying at the Palace Hotel His friend Gentleman Jim Corbett the famous boxer plays a role as does Adolph Sutro San Franciscos flamboyant mayor who built the famous Sutro Baths near the Cliff House facing the sea Jack embraces electro therapeutics because he believes it is the frontier of the New Medicine When a prominent socialite is accidentally electrocuted in his office he dismisses electrotherapy altogether and labels X rays as another quack fad But he is wrong and discovers his miscalculation just as tong wars break out in Chinatown and as President McKinley sends 10 000 young troops past the Golden Gate on their way across the Pacific to the Philippines The young doctor from the Barbary Coast hones his surgical skills while serving as a medic in the Spanish American War When he returns Marie still loves him but cannot find justification to divorce her husband The bubonic plague hits San Francisco giving the unions ammunition in their fight to exclude more Chinese from immigrating to the United States Meanwhile the always scheming Dr Louthan concocts a new patent medicine that increases sexual vigor It is based on the findings of a European endocrinologist Louthan experiments on himself resulting in a fight with Marie that leaves their relationship damaged But Pierre will not grant his wife a divorce spurring Jack to join other physicians in San Francisco and around the country to discredit Louthan and other quack doctors like him The plan works and Louthan finds the underpinning to his nostrum business slipping away Jack and Marie have just attended Enrico Carusos performance of Don Jos and taken a room at the Palace Hotel when a devastating earthquake rocks San Francisco It is April 18 1906 Shaken out of bed Jack puts Marie in a taxi to go home and heads to the Pacific Anatomical Museum where he finds Louthan has been trapped by a fallen beam As a fire erupts and flames begin licking their way closer Nate Nordstrand an old friend of Jacks who now works for Louthan swings a fire ax to amputate the quack doctors leg to free him from the beam and encroaching inferno But Nate is not finished and swings again this time squarely across Louthans neck An eye for an eye he shouts Jack knowing the full meaning of his cry Jack returns home and finds th
