San Jose A Personal View:

San Jose Bob Johnson, 2010-08-02 Founded by the Spanish in 1777 to provide food for the military settlements in Monterey and San Francisco San Jose is the oldest civilian settlement in California After independence from Mexico San Jose became the county seat of Santa Clara County and the first state capital For many years San Jose was the center of a rich farming community whose vistas of blooming orchards prompted the nickname Valley of Hearts Delight Following World War II a massive transformation took place in the landscape and culture of San Jose and the surrounding area Fields and orchards gave way to subdivisions malls freeways and office buildings The population grew from less than 100 000 to over a million as agriculture was supplanted by semiconductors and software development San Jose Wes Peyton, 1989 Intercoastal Shipping Act, 1932 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Commerce, 1932 Considers legislation to require intercoastal shippers compliance with minimum transportation rates Intercoastal Shipping Act, 1932 United States. Committee on Commerce, 1932 Corrected print Considers legislation to require intercoastal shippers compliance with minimum transportation rates Constructing Race and Ethnicity in America Dvora Yanow, 2015-02-18 What do we mean in the U S today when we use the terms race and ethnicity What do we mean and what do we understand when we use the five standard race ethnic categories White Black Asian Native American and Hispanic Most federal and state data collection agencies use these terms without explicit attention and thereby create categories of American ethnicity for political purposes Dvora Yanow argues that race and ethnicity are socially constructed concepts not objective scientifically grounded variables and do not accurately represent the real world She joins the growing critique of the unreflective use of race and ethnicity in American policymaking through an exploration of how these terms are used in everyday practices Her book is filled with current examples and analyses from a wealth of social institutions health care education criminal justice and government at all levels The questions she raises for society and public policy are endless Yanow maintains that these issues must be addressed explicitly publicly and nationally if we are to make our policy and administrative institutions operate more effectively Improvement of Mississippi River Between Missouri River and Minneapolis United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Commerce, 1932 Not in This Family Heather Murray, 2012-02-10 Many Americans hold fast to the notion that gay men and women more often than not have been ostracized from disapproving families Not in This Family challenges this myth and shows how kinship ties were an animating force in gay culture politics and consciousness throughout the latter half of the twentieth century Historian Heather Murray gives voice to gays and their parents through an extensive use of introspective writings particularly personal correspondence and diaries as well as through published memoirs fiction poetry song lyrics movies and visual and print media Starting in the late 1940s and 1950s Not in This Family covers the entire postwar period including the gay liberation and lesbian feminist movements of the 1960s and 1970s the establishment of PFLAG Parents Families and Friends of Lesbians and Gays and the

AIDS crisis of the 1980s and 1990s Ending her story with an examination of contemporary coming out rituals Murray shows how the personal that was once private became political and finally public In exploring the intimate reciprocal relationship of gay children and their parents Not in This Family also chronicles larger cultural shifts in privacy discretion and public revelation and the very purpose of family relations Murray shows that private bedrooms and consumer culture social movements and psychological fashions all had a part to play in transforming the modern family Catalog of Copyright
