Sanatorium Under The Sign Of The Hourgla:

Sanatorium Under the Sign of the Hourglass Bruno Schulz, 1997 This is the second and final work of Bruno Schulz the acclaimed Polish writer killed by the Nazis during World War II In the words of Isaac Bashevis Singer What he did in his short life was enough to make him one of the most remarkable writers who ever lived Weaving myth fantasy and reality Sanatorium Under the Sign of the Hourglass is to quote Schulz an attempt at eliciting the history of a certain family by a search for the mythical sense the essential core of that history Incarnations of Material Textuality Katarzyna Bazarnik, Izabela Curyło-Klag, 2014-10-02 Liberate coined from the Latin liber is simultaneously a movement in contemporary Polish literature and a term referring to literary works that integrate text and material features of the book into an organic whole in accordance with the author's design The present volume collects essays inspired by this theoretical concept first proposed by Polish poet Zenon Fajfer in 1999 but soon picked up and elaborated on by international scholars As noted by the contributing authors preceding Jessica Pressman's idea of bookishness and coinciding with N Katherine Hayles' fundamental writings liberate appeared at the end of the 20th century as if to resume and systematize the intuitions and provocative statements of writers concerned with the future of the book It fits into a wider turn towards the recognition of the embodied nature of information in anthropology literary textual media and AI studies Yet its distinctness consists in the fact that it was suggested by a creative writer and that it proposes to see the authorially shaped materiality of writing in terms of a literary genre The essays collected here present the modernist roots and inspirations of liberate address the semantics of typography and the question of materiality of literary writing and explore how the abstract body of the printed book is transformed into an experience of embodiment The volume is completed with a reprint of Fajfer's seminal essays with a view to making them more available to English speaking readers The Post-traumatic Theatre of Grotowski and Kantor Magda Romanska, 2014-10-01 Despite its international influence Polish theatre remains a mystery to many Westerners This volume attempts to fill in current gaps in English language scholarship by offering a historical and critical analysis of two of the most influential works of Polish theatre Jerzy Grotowski's Akropolis and Tadeusz Kantor's Dead Class By examining each director's representation of Auschwitz this study provides a new understanding of how translating national trauma through the prism of performance can alter and deflect the meaning and reception of theatrical works both inside and outside of their cultural and historical contexts In Praise of Penumbra Agostino De Rosa, Alessio Bortot, Francesco Bergamo, 2023-07-11 Guest edited by Agostino De Rosa Alessio Bortot and Francesco Bergamo Penumbra from the Latin paene almost and umbra shadow can be defined as an intermediate zone of transition between light and shadow Penumbra is therefore that space both physical and imaginary where everything is possible it is the place of the uncanny where presence and or absence can produce wonder or horror This AD positions the presence of this archetype in the contemporary world of architecture investigating the ways it permeates different expressive forms from critical theory to architectural drawing from design and planning to photography The contributors illustrate and discuss how penumbra has shaped their creativity and modified their approach to the design process As a physical phenomenon penumbra has supra historical and global connotations nonetheless different cultures elaborate its symbolism in different ways Its wide semantic spectrum powerfully inspires creative forms that hover between fullness and emptiness presence and absence past and future The critical perspectives in this issue offer a wide analysis of penumbra s expressive potential and the key to an in depth understanding of this elusive layer of reality Contributors Matthias B rmann Silvia Benedito Filippo Bricolo Edwin Carels Javier Corval n Dris Kettani Stephen Kite Giancarlo Mazzanti Akira Mizuta Lippit Susanna Pisciella Renato Rizzi Paul O Robinson and Antonella Soldaini Featured architects and artists Alexander Savvich Brodsky Neri Hu studio Quay Brothers Ursula Schulz Dornburg and Marco Tirelli

Bruno Schulz: An Artist, a Murder, and the Hijacking of History Benjamin Balint, 2023-04-11 Winner of the 73rd National Jewish Book Award for Biography A New York Times Book Review Editors Choice A fresh portrait of the Polish Jewish writer and artist and a gripping account of the secret operation to rescue his last artworks The twentieth century artist Bruno Schulz was born an Austrian lived as a Pole and died a Jew First a citizen of the Habsburg monarchy he would without moving become the subject of the West Ukrainian People s Republic the Second Polish Republic the USSR and finally the Third Reich Yet to use his own metaphor Schulz remained throughout a citizen of the Republic of Dreams He was a master of twentieth century imaginative fiction who mapped the anxious perplexities of his time Isaac Bashevis Singer called him one of the most remarkable writers who ever lived Schulz was also a talented illustrator and graphic artist whose masochistic drawings would catch the eye of a sadistic Nazi officer Schulz s art became the currency in which he bought life Drawing on extensive new reporting and archival research Benjamin Balint chases the inventive murals Schulz painted on the walls of an SS villa the last traces of his vanished world into multiple dimensions of the artist s life and afterlife Sixty years after Schulz was murdered those murals were miraculously rediscovered only to be secretly smuggled by Israeli agents to Jerusalem The ensuing international furor summoned broader perplexities not just about who has the right to curate orphaned artworks and to construe their meanings but about who can claim to stand guard over the legacy of Jews killed in the Nazi slaughter By re creating the artist s milieu at a crossroads not just of Jewish and Polish culture but of art sex and violence Bruno Schulz itself stands as an act of belated restitution offering a kaleidoscopic portrait of a life with all its paradoxes and curtailed possibilities

Capital Times Eric Alliez, 1996 Offers a history of the philosophy of time and a comparison of the ways of conceiving the temporal concentrating on European philosophy and its impact the connection between time and money in Western civilization Analyzes the social and political processes involved in conceptions of time in ancien

The Secret Life of Puppets Victoria Nelson, 2003-11-01 In a tour of Western culture that is at once exhilarating and alarming Nelson shows us the distorted forms in which the spiritual resurfaced in high art but also strikingly in the mass culture of puppets horror fantasy literature and cyborgs from the works of Kleist Poe Musil and Lovecraft to Philip K Dick and virtual reality simulations      Understanding Cynthia Ozick Lawrence S. Friedman,1991 Discussing Jewish themes in Ozick's writings examines the literary evocation of the Holocaust in the novels Trust 1966 The Messiah of Stockholm 1987 and in the story The Shawl 1989      Kubrick's Mitteleuropa Nathan Abrams,Jeremi Szaniawski,2024-10-01 Stanley Kubrick was arguably one of the most influential American directors of the post World War II era and his Central European Jewish heritage though often overlooked greatly influenced his oeuvre Kubrick's Mitteleuropa explores this influence in ways that range from his work with Hungarian and Polish composers Bela Bartok Gy rgy Ligeti and Krzysztof Penderecki to the visual inspiration of artists such as Egon Schiele Gustav Klimt and other central European Modernists Beyond exploring the Mitteleuropa sensibility in Kubrick's films the contributions in this volume also provide important commentary on the reception of his films in countries across Eastern Europe      Regions of the Great Heresy Jerzy Ficowski,2003 A prolonged labor of love and a model of a kind of penetrating adoration Richard Bernstein New York Times      Forgiveness and Resentment in the Aftermath of Mass Atrocity Idit Alphandary,2023-12-04 The author's starting point is the interweaving of forgiveness and resentment in the works of Jewish writers after the Holocaust most especially Hannah Arendt and Jean Am ry to make sense of the catastrophe and to point to a way forward for both victims and perpetrators The insights of these two writers and of several Jewish novelists and poets including Bruno Schulz Paul Celan and Aharon Appelfeld are used to develop accounts of forgiveness and resentment in other cases of mass atrocity around the world The author offers a critical rereading of primary sources that aim to separate resentment from nonviolent resistance and forgiveness from reconciliation Forgiveness and resentment are not as they might first appear mutually exclusive Together with Arendt Am ry and Walter Benjamin it is argued that it is through the interaction between them that victims of mass atrocity become agents of personal and cultural change Together forgiveness and resentment interrupt the present reframe the past and shape the future They can reduce the chasm that separates memory and trust by fashioning new connections between identity and alterity which can open paths to truly ethical coexistence for victims and perpetrators and their descendants      Kabbalah and Literature Kitty Millet,2024-01-11 Focuses on a range of Jewish and non Jewish writers to examine the intersection of Kabbalah the Jewish mystical tradition and secular Jewish literatures Kabbalah and Literature shows how the Jewish mystical tradition contributes to the renewal of literature in a modern global and increasingly disconnected age Kitty Millet explores Kabbalah's conceptual underpinnings aesthetic principles tenets and signifiers to demonstrate how literature's absorption of kabbalistic material has altered its ontology function and the tasks it sets for itself Reading writers from Europe and the Americas Kitty Millet maps how the kabbalist's desire to recover Eden transforms into a latent messianic drive only intuitable through text Thus it charts a journey of sorts a migration of Jewish mystical material embedded surreptitiously within text in order to shift ever so slightly at times the range of the literary to encompass an aesthetic vision not easily reducible to the literal the known the allegorical or even the philosophical In this way Kabbalah and Literature proposes a novel intuitive approach shifting focus away from the Jewish text's epistemological elements to embrace its secrets

Bruno Schulz and Galician Jewish Modernity Karen Underhill, 2024 In the 1930s through the prose of Bruno Schulz 1892-1942 the Polish language became the linguistic raw material for a profound exploration of the modern Jewish experience Rather than turning away from the language like many of his Galician Jewish colleagues who would choose to write in Yiddish Schulz used the Polish language to explore his own and his generation's relationship to East European Jewish exegetical tradition and to deepen his reflection on golus or exile as a condition not only of the individual and of the Jewish community but of language itself and of matter Drawing on new archival discoveries this study explores Schulz's diasporic Jewish modernism as an example of the creative and also transient poetic forms that emerged on formerly Habsburg territory at the historical juncture between empire and nation state

Collected Stories Bruno Schulz, 2018-03-15 Winner of the 2019 Found in Translation Award Collected Stories is an authoritative new translation of the complete fiction of Bruno Schulz whose work has influenced writers as various as Salman Rushdie Cynthia Ozick Jonathan Safran Foer Philip Roth Danilo Kiš and Roberto Bolaño Schulz's prose is renowned for its originality Set largely in a fictional counterpart of his hometown of Drohobych his stories merge the real and the surreal The most ordinary objects the wind an article of clothing a plate of fish can suddenly appear unfathomably mysterious and capable of illuminating profound truths As Father one of his most intriguing characters declaims Matter has been granted infinite fecundity an inexhaustible vital force and at the same time a seductive power of temptation that entices us to create forms This comprehensive volume brings together all of Schulz's published stories Cinnamon Shops his most famous collection sometimes titled The Street of Crocodiles in English The Sanatorium under the Hourglass and an additional four stories that he did not include in either of his collections Madeline G Levine's masterful new translation shows contemporary readers how Schulz often compared to Proust and Kafka reveals the workings of memory and consciousness

History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe Marcel Cornis-Pope, John Neubauer, 2004 National literary histories based on internally homogeneous native traditions have significantly contributed to the construction of national identities especially in multicultural East Central Europe the region between the German and Russian hegemonic cultural powers stretching from the Baltic states to the Balkans History of the Literary Cultures of East Central Europe which covers the last two hundred years reconceptualizes these literary traditions by de-emphasizing the national myths and by highlighting analogies and points of contact as well as hybrid and marginal phenomena that tra

Memory and Theory in Eastern Europe Uilleam Blacker, Alexander Etkind, 2013-09-11 It is the aim of this volume to investigate how academic practices of Memory Studies are being applied adapted and transformed in the countries of East Central Europe and the former Soviet Union It affords a new startlingly different perspective for scholars of both Eastern European history and Memory Studies

Yiddish Writers in Weimar Berlin Marc Caplan, 2021-01-05 In Yiddish Writers in Weimar Berlin Marc Caplan explores the reciprocal encounter between Eastern European Jews and German culture in the days following World War I By concentrating primarily on a small group of avant garde Yiddish writers Dovid Bergelson Der Nister and Moyshe Kulbak working in Berlin during the Weimar Republic Caplan examines how these writers became central to modernist aesthetics By concentrating on the character of Yiddish literature produced in Weimar Germany Caplan offers a new method of seeing how artistic creation is constructed and a new understanding of the political resonances that result from it Yiddish Writers in Weimar Berlin reveals how Yiddish literature participated in the culture of Weimar era modernism how active Yiddish writers were in the literary scene and how German speaking Jews read descriptions of Yiddish speaking Jews to uncover the emotional complexity of what they managed to create even in the midst of their confusion and ambivalence in Germany Caplan s masterful narrative affords new insights into literary form Jewish culture and the philosophical and psychological motivations for aesthetic modernism

Essays on Fiction and Perspective Göran Rossholm, 2004 The book is the result of a conference about the interrelated concepts of fiction and perspective in Stockholm 2001 The concepts of fiction and perspective have played a number of crucial roles in the Humanities during the last fifty years in particular in the intersection between linguistics the aesthetic disciplines and philosophy The writers in this anthology discuss some of the most debated questions in this context such as different conceptions of point of view in narrative fiction historical counterfactual fiction the relationship between fact and fiction in historiography how to understand and analyze statements about an individual s belief perspective and how everyday discourse is anchored in perspective views of the world

Behind the Great Wall James Whitlark, 1991 This work explores what lies behind the fantastic barrier in a borderland that C G Jung called the unconscious the avant garde writer Kafka termed incomprehensible and Whitlark argues is an entire spectrum of muted awareness

(Un)masking Bruno Schulz Dieter De Bruyn, Kris van Heuckelom, 2009 Whatever critical scalpel one selects for dissecting the literary works of Bruno Schulz 1892 1942 there will always be a certain degree of textual resistance which cannot be broken Or in other words taking off one of Schulz s many masks one will probably never avoid the impression that a new mask has emerged This book contributes to the three most typical critical strategies of reading Schulz s works combinations fragmentations reintegrations being fully aware of course of the relativity of each particular approach In addition the book sets out to explore all of Schulz s creative output i e his stories as well as his graphic epistolary and even literary critical works as one of Schulz s main goals was exactly to cross artificially set up boundaries between among other things different artistic media of expression The book for the first time brings together leading Schulzologists Jarzbski Robertson Sproede and their prospective successors Augsburgers Gorin Kato Sucha ska Dra y ska Underhill Wojda established Polish academics D browski Markowski Skwara Weretiuk and their foreign counterparts De Bruyn Gall Meyer Fraatz Schulte Zieli ski scholars primarily working on other authors Anessi liwa urek and those focusing on other art forms S nchez Pardo Watt The editors introduction offers an overview of seven decades of Schulzology The book is of interest for both readers with a general interest in world literature and or a particular interest in

Polish and Jewish studies
