Sanctions-systems in the Member-states of the Council of Europe A. M. van Kalmthout, P. J. P. Tak, 1988

European Penology? Tom Daems, Dirk van Zyl Smit, Sonja Snacken, 2013-05-17 Is there something distinctive about penology in Europe Do Europeans think about punishment and penal policy in a different way to people in other parts of the globe If so why is this the case and how does it work in practice This book addresses some major and pressing issues that have been emerging in recent years in the interdisciplinary field of European penology that is a space where legal scholarship criminology sociology and political science meet or should meet in order to make sense of punishment in Europe The chapters in European Penology have been written by leading scholars in the field and focus in particular on the interaction of European academic penology and national practice with European policies as developed by the Council of Europe and increasingly by the European Union

Money and the Governance of Punishment Patricia Faraldo Cabana, 2017-06-26 Money is the most frequently means used in the legal system to punish and regulate Monetary penalties outnumber all other sanctions delivered by criminal justice in many jurisdictions imprisonment included More people pay fines than go to prison and in some jurisdictions many of those in prison are there because of failure to pay their fines Therefore it is surprising how little has been written in the Anglophone academic world about the nature of money sanctions and their specific characteristics as legal sanctions In many ways legal innovations related to money sanctions have been poorly understood This book argues that they are a direct consequence of the changing meaning of money Considering the meaninglessness of modern money the book aims to examine the history of changing conceptions in how fines have been conceived and used Using a set of interpretative techniques sensitive to how money and freedom are perceived the genealogy of the penal fine is presented as a story of constant reformulation in response to shifting political pressures and changes in intellectual developments that influenced ideological commitments of legislators and practitioners This book is multi disciplinary and will appeal to those engaged with criminology sociology and philosophy of punishment socio legal studies and criminal law Resource Material Series, 2010-03 Victims of Crime in 22 European Criminal Justice Systems Marion Eleonora Ingeborg Brienen, Ernestine Henriëtte Hoegen, 2000 The implementation of recommendation 85 11 of the Council of Europe on the position of the victim in the framework of criminal law and procedure T p Imprisonment Today and Tomorrow D. van Zijl-Smit, Frieder Dünkel, 2024-02-12 This book describes the purposes and other aspects of imprisonment in various societies addressing broad questions of penal policy Twenty three national overviews generally discuss quantitative developments types of prisons organisational structures the legal framework and specific problems such as complaints procedures judicial control of prison administration medical treatment of prisoners prison labour visits and outside contacts security measures control of the early release of sentenced prisoners etc The country reports included are Austria Belgium Czechoslovakia Denmark England and Wales Federal Republic of Germany France German Democratic Republic Hong Kong Hungary Italy Japan The Netherlands The People's Republic of China Poland Scotland South Africa Spain Sweden Switzerland United States and the United Nations Alternatives to Imprisonment, Study of community corrections in Sweden provides policy guidance based on highly original research and profound thought that should interest and benefit all who are concerned with alternatives to imprisonment The Changing Face of Crime and Criminal Policy in Europe Roger Hood, Nestor E.
