Sand In My Eyes:

I'm Not Your Eve! Tracy Brusa, 2010-06 Rose Stevens is a fourteen year old girl living in Shrewsbury Massachusetts She attends Shrewsbury High School which is four houses away from where her family is renting a ranch home Her life is one of a typical teenager until the day she goes for a walk Her walk will turn her life upside down and now there is no escaping her purpose her destiny Teenagers have been murdered Teenagers have gone missing The human beast has given Rose no choice but to help him in his killing spree Is she brave enough is she strong enough to stop the town's serial killer beast Will she be able to get her life back Or will she too get killed in the process , Inferno Charles Bowden, 2006-05-01 Charles Bowden has been an outspoken advocate for the desert Southwest since the 1970s Recently his activism helped persuade the U S government to create the Sonoran Desert National Monument in southern Arizona But in working for environmental preservation Bowden refuses to be one who outlines something straightforward a manifesto with clear rules and a set of plans for others to follow In this deeply personal book he brings the Sonoran Desert alive not as a place where well meaning people can go to enjoy nature but as a raw reality that defies bureaucratic and even literary attempts to define it that can only be experienced through the senses Inferno burns with Charles Bowden's passion for the desert he calls home I want to eat the dirt and lick the rock Or leave the shade for the sun and feel the burning I know I don't belong here But this is the only place I belong he says His vivid descriptions complemented by Michael Berman's acutely observed photographs of the Sonoran Desert make readers feel the heat and smell the dryness see the colors in earth and sky and hear the singing of dry bones across the parched ground Written as an antibiotic during the time Bowden was lobbying the government to create the Sonoran Desert National Monument Inferno repudiates both the propaganda and the lyricism of contemporary nature writing Instead it persuades us that we need these places not to remember our better selves or our natural self or our spiritual self We need these places to taste what we fear and devour what we are We need these places to be animals because unless we are animals we are nothing at all That is the price of being a civilized dude Salem And The Sphinx Jonathan Burton Peters Jr, The Nineteenth Century and After, 1914 The Loneliest Place Lora Senf, 2025-07-15 Evie ventures into the Dark Sun Side to rescue her loved ones only to discover truths darker than she could have ever imagined in this riveting and wildly imaginative Kirkus Reviews finale to the Blight Harbor series that's perfect for fans of Doll Bones and Small Spaces As summer comes to an end Evie Von Rathe is determined to begin the search for her parents in earnest Armed with her knowledge of the otherworldly her mom's violet glasses and a pendant full of doors Evie begins to piece together clues When she realizes her mother's bedtime story might be a roadmap to finding them Evie follows it back to the Dark Sun Side But stories are funny things and they change from one teller to the next The black nothing of the Radix is waiting and it knows more than it's ever let on Evie will need every bit of courage she has for what's coming With Bird at her side and maybe even a reluctant Lark as well Evie has what she hopes is her last adventure under a purple sky The Speaker's of hints and allusions the oddness of the plots and of course the suggestion of larger more intangible issues In The Long and the Short of It character impurities and our rigorous attempt to sublimate and repress them are subtle reminders of the cosmic hoop through which we jump to keep our world ordered and sane

The Rise, The Fall, and The Rise Brix Smith Start, 2016-05-03 The Rise The Fall and The Rise is the extraordinary story in her own words of Brix Smith Start Best known for her work in The Fall at the time when they were perhaps the most powerful and influential anti authoritarian postpunk band in the world This Nation's Saving Grace The Weird and Frightening World Of Brix spent ten years in the band before a violent disintegration led to her exit and the end of her marriage with Mark E Smith But Brix's story is much more than rock n roll highs and lows in one of the most radically dysfunctional bands around Growing up in the Hollywood Hills in the 60s in a dilapidated pink mansion her life has taken her from luxury to destitution from the cover of the NME to waitressing in California via the industrial wasteland of Manchester in the 1980s What emerges is a story of constant reinvention jubilant highs and depressive ebbs a singular journey of a teenage American girl on a collision course with English radicalism on her way to mid life success on tv and in fashion Too bizarre extreme and unlikely to exist in the pages of fiction The Rise The Fall and The Rise could only exist in the pages of a memoir
