Sanskrit to other languages of the Indo European family It also keeps to save the literature from undue depreciation and from exaggerated praise The author has made selections from various Sanskrit writings keeping two aims in mind firstly to provide abundant material for thorough drill in the language of classical period and secondly to furnish a brief introduction to the works of the Vedic period Mantra Brahmana and Sutra best suited for beginners Among the Vedic hymns or Mantra material are first some of the easiest then some taken an account of their poetic or dramatic merit or their ethical interest and finally some taken because of their historical importance For the most part a repetition of the hymns given by Delbruck and Bohtlingk in their chrestomathies have been avoided The Brahmana pieces are chosen in such away as to show the relation of this kind of literature to the hymns or Mantras The selections from the Grihya sutras are the two most interesting chapters of Indian private antiquities the wedding and the burial service Care has been taken that all the stanzas here cited by their first words should be given in full among the selections of the hymns The Reader is made a companion volume to
