The Encyclopedia of Best Films Jay Robert Nash, 2019-10-23 This all inclusive A Z encyclopedia by one of the world's foremost experts on cinema provides comprehensive annotations of the best films produced from 1914 on. The work offers more than 5 000 three to five star entries: three stars good, four stars excellent, five stars masterpiece, and yes, author Jay Robert Nash has viewed every single one of them as well as many more that did not make the cut. In addition to a precis, each film's entry also includes a listing of the cast as well as the key principles involved in production from the director to the hair stylist. Especially unique to this book is a rating system that helps parents determine whether or not a film is appropriate for their children. Unlike the industry rating system which can be influenced by studio lobbying, Nash objectively evaluates each film and confers upon it one of four recommendations for viewing: recommended, acceptable, cautionary, and unacceptable. Backmatter includes a list of top films by genre (i.e. animated, drama, sports, mystery, adventure, etc.) as well as an annotated name index listing all persons mentioned along with their dates of birth and death. Rounding out this essential volume for the film buff are over 500 still photos from the author's private collection.

A Year of Fear Bryan Senn, 2015-03-26 This eclectic overview of horror cinema offers up a collection of horror films for practically any occasion and literally every day of the year. For example, the author recommends commemorating United Nations Day (October 24) with a screening of The Colossus of New York, whose startling climax takes place at the U N Building. Each day-by-day entry includes the movie title, production year, plot summary, and critique along with a brief explanation of how the film fits into the history of that particular day and interesting anecdotes on the film's production.

Martian Pictures O'Brien Stanley, Nicki L. Michalski, Lane "Doc" Roth, 2018-07-23 Mars has long served as a blank canvas for illustrating society's aspirations and anxieties, a science fiction setting for exploring our future history. Covering a wide array of films from Soviet propaganda to Hollywood blockbusters, the authors examine a range of themes and concepts in motion pictures about Mars: attitudes about women, fear of government, environmental issues, and how these depictions changed over time. A complete filmography provides a concise summary of each film discussed.

The Psychotronic Video Guide To Film Michael Weldon, 1996 The bible of B movies is back and better than ever. From Abby Cadabby to Zontar, this book covers more than 9 000 amazing movies from the turn of the century right up to today's Golden Age of Video, all described with Michael Weldon's dry wit. More than 450 rare and wonderful illustrations round out this treasure trove of cinematic lore, an essential reference for every bad film fan.
