Longman Writer Rhetoric Reader Brief Fifth Edition:

The Longman Writer Judith Nadell, Linda McMeniman, John Langan, 2002-08 Designed for instructors who prefer to teach composition with a separate handbook or some other combination of texts this brief edition of The Longman Writer Fifth Edition contains everything from the very popular full edition except the Handbook Students get a rhetoric reader and research guide as well as plentiful exercises all in a shorter and more economical volume Created by the authors of the best selling The Macmillan Reader the text draws on more than 60 years of combined teaching experience to integrate the best of the product and process approaches to writing Its particular strengths include an emphasis on the reading writing connection a focus on invention and revision more attention to the fact that patterns blend in actual writing and an abundance of class tested activities and assignments more than 300 in all Instructor's Manual John Langan, Linda McMeniman, Judith Nadell, 2004-04 Writing Effective Course Assignments Elia Shabani Mligo, 2017-05-11 Non degree and undergraduate students are both inexperienced essay writers who need close guidance to become effective writers One of the puzzles which they encounter at the college and university after reporting for studies is the course assignments offered to them by their lecturers which demand them to be critical thinkers and argumentative essay writers In most colleges and universities lecturers provide to students broad questions to answer in the form of essays either in group or individual assignments How should they turn the broad assignment questions provided to them by their lecturers into specific researchable topics for essays How should they handle literature in order to obtain valuable information to answer the provided question How should they construct an informed and convincing argument using the collected information as evidence This book concerns these and other related questions With its clear illustrations the book is designed to be a self study guide and to offer solutions to many struggling students in colleges and universities At the same time the book can be helpful for lecturers to instruct their students how to write effective course assignments in their respective courses

Upsetting Composition Commonplaces Ian Barnard, 2014-10-15 In Upsetting Composition Commonplaces Ian Barnard argues that composition still retains the bulk of instructional practices that were used in the decades before poststructuralist theory discredited them While acknowledging that some of the foundational insights of poststructuralist theory can be difficult to translate to the classroom Barnard upends several especially intransigent tenets that continue to influence the teaching of writing and how students are encouraged to understand writing Using six major principles of writing classrooms and textbooks clarity intent voice ethnography audience and objectivity Barnard looks at the implications of poststructuralist theory for pedagogy While suggesting some evocative poststructuralist pedagogical practices the author focuses on diagnosing the fault lines of composition s refusal of poststructuralism rather than on providing solutions in the form of teaching templates Upsetting Composition Commonplaces addresses the need to more effectively engage in poststructuralist concepts in composition in an accessible and engaging voice that will advance the conversation about relations between the theory and teaching of writing Vernacular Eloquence Peter Elbow, 2012-01-13 Since the publication of his groundbreaking books Writing Without Teachers and Writing with Power Peter Elbow has revolutionized how people think about writing Now in Vernacular Eloquence he makes a vital new contribution to both practice and theory The core idea is simple we can enlist virtues from the language activity most people find easiest speaking for the language activity most people find hardest writing Speech with its spontaneity naturalness of expression and fluidity of thought has many overlooked linguistic and rhetorical merits Through several easy to employ techniques writers can marshal this wisdom of the tongue to produce stronger clearer more natural writing This simple idea it turns out has deep repercussions Our culture of literacy Elbow argues functions as though it were a plot against the spoken voice the human body vernacular language and those without privilege making it harder than necessary to write with comfort or power Giving speech a central role in writing overturns many empty preconceptions It causes readers to think critically about the relationship between speech writing and our notion of literacy Developing the political implications behind Elbow's previous books Vernacular Eloquence makes a compelling case that strengthening writing and democratizing it go hand in hand The Longman Writer / Study Card / American Dictionary Judith Nadell, John A. Langan, Eliza A. Comodromos, 2006-04 One of the most successful writing texts on the market this all in one rhetoric and reader contains everything students need for courses in freshman composition Created by the authors of the best selling Longman Reader the text draws on decades of teaching experience to integrate the best of the product and process approaches to writing Its particular strengths include an emphasis on the reading writing connection a focus on invention and revision more attention to the fact that patterns blend in actual writing and an abundance of class tested activities and assignments more than 350 in all Longman Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric, 1984-1985 Erika Lindemann, 1987 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 2001 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003-04 Literary Gazette and Journal of Belles Lettres, Arts, Sciences, Etc William Jerdan, William Ring Workman, Frederick Arnold, John Morley, Charles Wycliffe Goodwin, 1839 The London Literary Gazette and Journal of Belles Lettres, Arts, Sciences, Etc, 1834 The Athenaeum, 1866 The Spectator, 1861 The Literary Gazette William Jerdan, Lovell Reeve, John Mounteney Jephson, Shirley Brooks, Christmas (afterwards Noel-Fearn, Henry), William Ring Workman, Frederick Arnold, John Morley Morley (Viscount), Charles Wycliffe Goodwin, 1834 The Lancet, 1865 The London Lancet, 1865 The Literary Gazette, 1823 Examiner, 1844 The literary gazette and journal of belles lettres, arts, sciences etc, 1858 Contemporary Composition Studies Edith Babin, Kimberly Harrison, 1999-12-30

Composition studies is a rapidly growing and constantly changing field At present however graduate students new to the field and writing teachers who want to make new connections between theory and practice have little choice of current reference works that define key terms in composition studies and provide information about the scholars and researchers who have shaped and are shaping the discipline This book supplies this information in an easily accessible format and places both scholars and terms in the context of the field's development. Included are alphabetically arranged entries for 108 individuals who have developed the field and 128 terms central to the discipline. The first part of the book provides entries for leaders in composition studies. Each entry identifies the areas in which the scholar has contributed most influentially to the field and provides both a chronological overview of the person's contributions and a bibliography of representative works. The second part includes entries for terms that are problematic both for newcomers and for those already familiar with the discipline. The entries for the terms show how the disciplinary context has shaped the ways in which they have been used. The entries also indicate how established thinkers in composition studies and other disciplines have explained or defined the terms, provide examples of the terms in context, and list scholars often associated with them. An appendix includes entries for scholars from other disciplines who have contributed to the field.
