America, Look at Spain Merwin Kimball Hart, 1939 Markets and Growth in Early Modern Europe Victoria N Bateman, 2015-10-06 This is the first study to analyze a wide spread of price data to determine whether market development led to economic growth in the early modern period Foreign Ownership Restrictions and Liberalization Reforms David Conklin, Don Lecraw, 2019-01-15 Published in 1997 this volume examines why foreign investment restrictions put in place during the 1950s and 1960s have been largely removed in recent years Illustrations from ten countries are used to demonstrate the liberalizing movement and the author analyzes the differences among sectors with regard to rationales and changes in rationales suggesting why many societies have chosen to retain certain restrictions even with the general liberalization On this basis recommendations are presented in the book with regard to alternative mechanisms for achieving the original national objectives Proceedings of the Academy of Political Science, 1922 Canada Looks South Peter McKenna, 2012-12-06 Recent events in the western hemisphere have led to a dramatic shift in the strategic and political importance of Latin America But with relations still cool between the United States and Cuba and Venezuela becoming more distant every day there is considerable potential for Canada with its longstanding commitment to constructive engagement to forge mutually beneficial relations with these nations as well as rising industrial and economic players such as Mexico and Brazil In Canada Looks South experts on foreign policy in Canada and Central America provide a timely exploration of Canada's growing role in the Americas and the most pressing issues of the region Starting with the historical scope of the bilateral relationship the volume goes on to cover such subjects as trade engagement democratization and security As current and future Canadian governments embrace expanding linkages with this region this collection fills a significant gap in scholarship on Canadian Latin American relations Look, a Negro! Robert Gooding-Williams, 2013-11-26 In Look a Negro political theorist Robert Gooding Williams imaginatively and impressively unpacks fundamental questions around race and racism Inspired by Frantz Fanon's famous description of the profound effect of being singled out by a white child with the words Look a Negro his book is an insightful rich and unusually wide ranging work of social criticism These essays engage themes that have dominated debates on race and racial identity in recent years the workings of racial ideology including the interplay of gender and sexuality in the articulation of racial ideology the viability of social constructionist theories of race the significance of Afrocentrism and multiculturalism for democracy the place of black identity in the imagination and articulation of America's inheritance of philosophy and the conceptualization of African American politics in post segregation America Look a Negro will be of interest to philosophers political theorists critical race theorists students of cultural studies and film and readers concerned with the continuing importance of race consciousness to democratic culture in the United States The future of the European Union Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Foreign Affairs Committee, 2013-06-11 Incorporating HC 115 i iv from session 2012 13 Soldiers Made Me Look Good Lewis

MacKenzie, 2008 A riveting follow up to the best selling Peacekeeper including MacKenzie's provocative views on leadership and the current state of the Canadian Armed Forces Since retiring from the Armed Forces Lewis MacKenzie has not stayed out of the spotlight but continues to speak his mind In this straight talking memoir he traces his post military career as an international commentator on military affairs a consultant to the Irish government and a federal political candidate And here he answers his critics including journalist Carol Off for her criticism of his handling of the UN mission in Bosnia In a hard hitting chapter he discusses his professional disagreement with the leadership priorities demonstrated by Romeo Dallaire in the early hours of the Rwandan genocide He continues his story to the present to the first real litmus test for NATO Afghanistan Divided into two parts pre 1993 when MacKenzie calls himself a Cold War grunt and post 1993 after his controversial stint in Bosnia Soldiers Made Me Look Good is laced with anecdotes both funny and profound It concludes with ten pointers on leadership in which Lewis MacKenzie shares hard earned insights from a life on the front lines The International Interpreter, 1922

Employment and Skills for the Defence Industry in Scotland Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Scottish Affairs Committee, 2008 Defence and aerospace industries in Scotland generate nearly £2.31 billion in sales and together with the MoD support almost 50 000 jobs and a record number of apprentices As well as a recognised expertise in naval ship building Scotland also has a strong defence electronics industry and a strong aerospace industry based around Prestwick This report examines the delay in the signing of the contract for two new aircraft carriers the Committee is concerned that similar delays during the construction phase could lead to job losses and damage the ship building skills base the UK needs to support if it wishes to retain sovereign capability in key areas The Committee also comments on the Government's decision to treat the Military Afloat Reach and Sustainability MARS vessels as commercial rather than naval vessels making them subject to EU competition law There is confusion over the status of these vessels The report also looks at the supply of skilled semi skilled and graduate workers the Modern Apprenticeship programme and the funding for adult apprentices It is vital for Scottish industry to look at upskilling throughout the workforce including mature workers who were not able to access apprenticeships as school leavers The issue of constitutional change also affects the future sustainability of the Scottish defence industry In the long term it is unclear what naval requirement an independent Scotland would have and whether this would make up for the potential loss of UK MoD orders Government and industry need to work effectively together to ensure that Scotland's engineering and manufacturing base continues to be world class Official Report American Association of School Administrators, 1948-01-01 Look Before Leaping Gregory F.
