Nathan: a Novel DAVID BRIAN. PLUMMER, 1988 The politics of male friendship in contemporary American fiction Michael Kalisch, 2021-07-20 How might our friendships shape our politics This book examines how contemporary American fiction has rediscovered the concept of civic friendship and revived a long tradition of imagining male friendship as interlinked with the promises and paradoxes of democracy in the United States Bringing into dialogue the work of a wide range of authors including Philip Roth Paul Auster Michael Chabon Jonathan Lethem Dinaw Mengestu and Teju Cole this innovative study advances a compelling new account of the political and intellectual fabric of the American novel today A book to heal Anna Ferrari, 2022-04-06 At first I only wrote these notes for myself It was a difficult moment in my life I was reborn after a period of darkness where I had lost contact with reality to the point that I could no longer think or read an activity that was and is the cornerstone of my life I did not decipher the symbols on the page they had lost their meaning I did not remember everything had been swallowed in the womb of suffering and the more I tried the more I failed to the point of being terrified of picking up a book every day the malaise plunged me deeper It was chilling sad tormenting Then I met a specialist who like a good fairy brought me back to the surface with love and intelligence the first thing I did as soon as I felt better was reading To prove to myself that my head was working again at the end of each novel I wrote at first with desperation then with increasing pleasure my comments to see if I could finally understand and remember what I was reading I have two whole thick chunks of these comments written straight away with no other concern than talking to myself and reassuring myself I was and am an avid reader I have worked with books all my life for this reason death and rebirth have passed through words A few years after that period I reread those comments and found in them both hasty almost anxious writings and others more stimulating Over time they revealed an inherent power to me commenting on those books I commented on myself the myself that was found now in this now in that story or novel It is in this perspective that the analyzes contained in A book to heal are special they are not the usual reading advice perhaps thrown down for editorial needs they are much more they are confessions and therefore sincere appreciation or slashing of those books that have marked my path to healing This exceptional character of theirs reveals to the reader a good book to read and also marks the path that can be taken in difficult moments of life because we are what we say and what we read penetrates our depths and remains there until it gives its fruits that nourish the hope and the desire to succeed Anyone therefore can retrace my path and later can also add his own In this way A book to heal was born whose origin is therefore an act of love and the words that compose it were written with love Even the title gradually arose from the feelings I felt in reworking these texts and I immediately adopted it as soon as it appeared Inside the volume you will find a section in English the result of another birth A bit like everyone else different personalities coexist within me Anna the writer the Teacher and so on A few years ago another one was born Aileen who thinks speaks and writes in English In this capacity the writing becomes freer somehow protecting Aileen's feelings and fears with a foreign language Antonia S Byatt Jane Austen Clarice Lispector Nicola Lagioia are some of the authors I speak of each of them has delicately shown me an unusual and surprising aspect of life they have made me learn that life never ends but it is always a harbinger of surprises and revelations In conclusion that phase of my life which gave me A book to heal taught me that nothing more than a book can give us back the love for ourselves and for the world nothing more than a book helps us to build our way and therefore our life Translator Erica Brusco PUBLISHER TEKTIME

Making and Seeing Modern Texts Jonathan Locke Hart, 2018-07-04 Making and Seeing Modern Texts explores the poetics of texts through a close reading and analysis across the genres of poetry drama fiction non fiction travel literature and theory This volume demonstrates that prose as much as poetry share the making and seeing of language literary practice and theory Genre then is presented as a guide that crosses multiple boundaries This volume selects different ways to examine texts discussing Michael Ondaatje's early poetry and examining narrative in Philip Roth's The Human Stain The book examines images in poetry narrative in fiction prefaces in non fiction metatheatrical in drama and attempts to see the modern and postmodern in theory all of which show us the complexities of modernity or later modernity One of the innovations is that the author a literary critic theorist poet and historian takes his training in practice and theory and shows through examples of each how language operates across genres

Philip Roth David Brauner, 2013-07-19 This is a groundbreaking study of the most important contemporary American novelist Philip Roth Reading the author alongside a number of his contemporaries and focusing particularly on his later fiction this book offers a highly accessible informative and persuasive view of Roth as an intellectually adventurous and stylistically brilliant writer who constantly reinvents himself in surprising ways At the heart of this book are a number of detailed and nuanced readings of Roth's works both in terms of their relationships with each other and with fiction by Nathaniel Hawthorne Thomas Pynchon Tim O'Brien Brett Easton Ellis Stanley Elkin Howard Jacobson and Jonathan Safran Foer Brauner identifies as a thread running through all of Roth's work the use of paradox both as a rhetorical device and as an organising intellectual and ideological principle

Who's who in New York City and State Lewis Randolph Hamersly, John William Leonard, William Frederick Mohr, Herman Warren Knox, Frank R. Holmes, Olinfield Scott Downs, 1924 Containing authentic biographies of New Yorkers who are leaders and representatives in various departments of worthy human achievement including sketches of every army and navy officer born in or appointed from New York and now serving of all the congressmen from the state all state senators and judges and all ambassadors ministers and consuls appointed from New York

The Dial, 1916

Disappearing Men Carole Jones, 2009 Disappearing Men examines the complex and rebellious representations of gender in the work of several writers of devolutionary Scottish fiction in the period 1979 to 1999 The study focuses on the context of a crisis in masculinity accompanying the rapidly changing male role in the period concluding that men often disappear from sight in this writing highlighting issues of male insecurity and female disorientation in a new gender landscape Hence the novels examined here by authors James Kelman Jancie Galloway Jackie Kay A L Kennedy and Alan Warner strongly challenge the stereotype of the Scottish hardman and his dominance in 20th century Scottish fiction Disappearing Men dissects this challenge by giving major consideration to the relationship between the innovative literary forms often found in this writing and the concepts of selfhood they give rise to The possibilities inherent in these texts of reimagining gender identity and relations make them important contemporary documents of our struggles with realising selfhood and relations with others A sustained and intimate analysis this monograph will be of crucial interest to those concerned with issues of gender and representation in our rapidly changing era
