Nationalists And Nomads Essays On Francophone African Literature And Culture:

Nationalists and Nomads Christopher L. Miller, 1998 How does African literature written in French change the way we think about nationalism colonialism and postcolonialism How does it imagine the encounter between Africans and French And what does the study of African literature bring to the fields of literary and cultural studies Christopher L Miller explores these and other questions in Nationalists and Nomads Miller ranges from the beginnings of francophone African literature which he traces not to the 1930s Negritude movement but to the largely unknown virulently radical writings of Africans in Paris in the 1920s to the evolving relations between African literature and nationalism in the 1980s and 1990s Throughout he aims to offset the contemporary emphasis on the postcolonial at the expense of the colonial arguing that both are equally complex with powerful ambiguities Arguing against blanket advocacy of any one model such as nationalism or hybridity to explain these ambiguities Miller instead seeks a form of thought that can read and recognize the realities of both identity and difference

Nation-Building, Propaganda, and Literature in Francophone Africa Dominic Thomas, 2002-11-19 The relationship between literature the state is examined in this discussion of Francophone African literature Dominic Thomas considers the case of the Congo where the recent transition to democracy was in part inspired by the works of Sony Labou Tansi Henri Lopes Emmanuel Dongala among others

The Contemporary Francophone African Intellectual Natalie Edwards, 2013-07-29 The Contemporary Francophone African Intellectual examines the issues with which the contemporary African intellectual engages the fields s he occupies her his residence and perspective and her his relations with the State and the people In an increasingly economically deprived Africa in which some states are ruled by dictators what chances do people have of becoming intellectuals using their critical faculties to challenge hegemony enacting the transformative power of ideas in a public forum Do intellectuals who remain in Africa run the risk of being swallowed into a vortex of hagiography What is the responsibility of the intellectual in the face of an event such as the Rwandan genocide What influence does religion have upon the contemporary intellectual s work Is migration one of the only paths available for African intellectuals a number of whom have been critiquing their continent from within Europe This volume focuses on the intellectual s engagement across literature philosophy journalism and cultural criticism It contains studies of established writers and philosophers as well as new voices An African writer and public intellectual describes her own experience in and out of Africa in one chapter a Philosophy Professor discusses his intellectual trajectory in another Overall this timely volume which includes analysis of the work of intellectuals from North East West and Central Africa problematizes our current understandings of the intellectual legacy of Africa and opens up new avenues into this understudied area

Rethinking Marriage in Francophone African and Caribbean Literatures Cecile Accilien, 2008-02-08 Rethinking Marriage in Francophone African and Caribbean Literatures analyzes novels and films that demonstrate how marriage affects Francophone African and Caribbean women in their respective societies It argues that marriage serves as a catalyst for intense identity formation because it functions as a narrative intersection for a number of overlapping themes on gender and the body class and economics religion interracial and intercultural identity and nation building Marriage provides a narrative space for commentary on cultural practices presented in the works in question as the foundations of cultural identity The Racial Discourses of Life Philosophy Donna V. Jones,2010 In the early twentieth century the life philosophy of Henri Bergson summoned the lan vital or vital force as the source of creative evolution Bergson also appealed to intuition which focused on experience rather than discursive thought and scientific cognition Particularly influential for the literary and political N gritude movement of the 1930s which opposed French colonialism Bergson s life philosophy formed an appealing alternative to Western modernity decried as mechanical and set the stage for later developments in postcolonial theory and vitalist discourse Revisiting narratives on life that were produced in this age of machinery and war Donna V Jones shows how Bergson Nietzsche and the poets Leopold Senghor and Aim C saire fashioned the concept of life into a central aesthetic and metaphysical category while also implicating it in discourses on race and nation Jones argues that twentieth century vitalism cannot be understood separately from these racial and anti Semitic discussions She also shows that some dominant models of emancipation within black thought become intelligible only when in dialogue with the vitalist tradition Jones s study strikes at the core of contemporary critical theory which integrates these older discourses into larger critical frameworks and she traces the ways in which vitalism continues to draw from and contribute to its making Singular Performances Michael Syrotinski,2002 Francophone African writing is often concerned with questions of subjectivity and narrative agency and it is this focus Michael Syrotinski takes as his point of departure in Singular Performances Using the work of V Y Mudimbe as a major theoretical reference Syrotinski sets up a number of original dialogues between francophone African literature African philosophy literary theory postcolonial studies cinema cultural studies and history to arrive at the notion of a performative reinscription of subjectivity Singular Performances covers a wide range of francophone African writers each of whom is read within a broader theoretical context related to African subjectivity Mudimbe and the philosophical subject Aoua K ita and autobiography Bernard Dadi and ethnographic irony Ousmane Sembene and Tierno Mon nembo and the cinematic imagination V ronique Tadjou and Werewere Liking and the female writing subject and Sony Labou Tansi and the spectral subject In this skillful interdisciplinary weaving together of contemporary theory and literature the focus on the francophone African subject allows for a richer appreciation of the texture and rhetoric of the language of the texts themselves What emerges from this study is the subject understood not as a single homogenized entity but as a plural celebration of singular francophone African subjectivities The Oxford History of the Novel in English Simon Gikandi,2016-10-03 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 examines the institutional and social peculiarities that make fiction produced in Africa and the Atlantic World since 1950 important to the history of the novel in English Teaching Modernist Poetry N. Marsh,P. Middleton,2010-01-27 This book recognizes that modernist poetry can be both difficult and rewarding to teach

Leading scholars and poets from the UK and the US offer practical innovative up to date strategies for teaching the reading and writing of modernist poetry across its long diverse histories taking in experimentation performance hypertext and much more

Like a Misunderstood Salvation and Other Poems Aime Cesaire, 2013-05-31 Translations of 53 poems from the beginning and end of C saire s career including the 31 poems omitted from Aim C saire the collected poetry published in 1983

Postcolonial Thought in the French Speaking World Charles Forsdick, David Murphy, 2022-04-01 In the late 1990 s Postcolonial Studies risked imploding as a credible area of academic enquiry Repeated anthologization and an overemphasis on the English language literatures led to sustained critiques of the field and to an active search for alternative approaches to the globalized and transnational formations of the post colonial world In the early twenty first century however postcolonial began to reveal a new openness to its comparative dimensions French language contributors to postcolonial debate such as Edouard Glissant and Abdelkebir Khatibi have recently risen to greater prominence in the English speaking world and there have also appeared an increasing number of important critical and theoretical texts on postcolonial issues written by scholars working principally on French language material It is to such a context that this book responds Acknowledging these shifts this volume provides an essential tool for students and scholars outside French departments seeking a way into the study of Francophone colonial postcolonial debates At the same time it supplies scholars in French with a comprehensive overview of essential ideas and key intellectuals in this area
