Native Son 1st Edition:

Native Sons James Baldwin, Sol Stein, 2009-03-12 James Baldwin was beginning to be recognized as the most brilliant black writer of his generation when his first book of essays Notes of a Native Son established his reputation in 1955. No one was more pleased by the book's reception than Baldwin's high school friend Sol Stein. A rising New York editor, novelist, and playwright, Stein had suggested that Baldwin do the book and coaxed his old friend through the long and sometimes agonizing process of putting the volume together and seeing it into print. Now in this fascinating new book, Sol Stein documents the story of his intense creative partnership with Baldwin through newly uncovered letters, photos, inscriptions, and an illuminating memoir of the friendship that resulted in one of the classics of American literature. Included in this book are the two works they created together: the story Dark Runner and the play Equal in Paris, both published here for the first time. Though a world of difference separated them, Baldwin was black and gay, living in self-imposed exile in Europe; Stein was Jewish and married with a growing family. To support the two men, they shared the same fundamental passion: Nothing mattered more to either of them than telling and writing the truth, which was not always welcome. As Stein wrote Baldwin in a long heartfelt letter: "You are the only friend with whom I feel comfortable about all three heart, head, and writing." In this extraordinary book, Stein unfolds how that shared passion played out in the months surrounding the creation and publication of Baldwin's Notes of a Native Son, in which Baldwin's main themes are illuminated. A literary event published to honor the eightieth anniversary of James Baldwin's birth, Native Sons is a celebration of one of the most fruitful and influential friendships in American letters.

Notes from a Native Son Garry Barker, 1995 Divided into four parts: Learning, Working, Laughing, and Looking, Barker's essays range from some provocative thoughts on federal arts subsidies to personal perspectives on the Appalachian crafts industries, from a moving account of a trip home for a funeral to a gently humorous definition of head of the holler. It's as far back as you can go, Barker says. Virginia's Native Son J. L. Jeffries, 2000 In Virginia's Native Son, the election of L. Douglas Wilder in Virginia represents the first time an African American was elected Governor in the history of the United States. The book hits on five main points of his election and administration, including an analysis of the campaign victory, the media's response to the campaign, the racism involved with the election and administration, the administration itself, and the legacy of the administration. Book Row Marvin Mondlin, Roy Meador, 2019-10-15 The American Story of the Bookstores on Fourth
