L. Short, 1905 A quarterly review of religion theology and philosophy The Journal of English and Germanic Philology, 1920 Hibbert Journal, 1905 Perfect Will Theology J. Martin Bac, 2010-04-16 This book revisits four early modern debates of Reformed theology concerning the will of God Reformed scholasticism advocated a particular relationship between divine knowledge will and power which was altered by Jesuits Remonstrants Descartes and Spinoza In all these debates modal categories like contingency and necessity play a prominent part Therefore these positions are evaluated with the help of modern modal logic including possible world semantics The final part of this study presents a systematic defense of the Reformed position which has been charged of theological determinism and of making God the author of sin In modern terms therefore the relation of divine and human freedom and the problem of evil are discussed

Nature, Journal of the Department of Letters University of Calcutta. Department of Letters, 1921 Contains contributions on various subjects notably India Buddhism ancient chronology etc Nature's Primal Self Nam T. Nguyen, 2011-12-28 Nature's Primal Self examines Corrington's thought called ecstatic naturalism in juxtaposition to both C S Peirce's pragmatic and semiotic concept of the self and Karl Jaspers' existential elucidation of Existenz Peirce's and Jaspers' anthropocentrism is thus corrected by Corrington's ecstatic naturalism Ecstatic naturalism as a new movement is both a semiotic theoretical method and a metaphysics that probes deeply into the ontological divide between nature naturing and nature natured Author Nam T. Nguyen attempts to achieve three goals first to present and elucidate the underlying philosophical concepts of Charles Peirce Karl Jaspers and Robert Corrington second to critique the anthropocentric self of Peirce's semiotic pragmatism and of Jaspers' existential anthropology periechontology from the standpoint of ecstatic naturalism and third to introduce the concept of nature's primal self radically grounded in the perspective of ecstatic naturalism as a judicious more encompassing and richer framework compared to Peirce's semiotic construction of the self and Jaspers' existential concept of Existenz Piers Plowman and the Books of Nature Rebecca Davis, 2016-09-08 Piers Plowman and the Books of Nature explores the relationship of divine creativity poetry and ethics in William Langland's fourteenth century dream vision These concerns converge in the poem's rich vocabulary of kynde the familiar Middle English word for nature broadly construed But in a remarkable coinage Langland also uses kynde to name nature's creator who appears as a character in Piers Plowman The stakes of this representation could not be greater by depicting God as Kynde that is under the guise of creation itself Langland explores the capacity of nature and of language to bear the plenitude of the divine In doing so he advances a daring claim for the spiritual value of literary art including his own searching form of theological poetry This claim challenges recent critical attention to the poem s discourses of disability and failure and reveals the poem s place in a long and diverse tradition of medieval humanism that originates in the twelfth century and indeed points forward to celebrations of nature and natural capacity in later periods By contextualizing Langland s poetics of kynde within contemporary literary philosophical legal and theological discourses Rebecca Davis offers a new literary history for Piers Plowman that opens up many of the poem s most perplexing interpretative problems The Classical Journal ,1952
