Natural Basketry:

Natural Basketry Carol Hart, Dan Hart, 1976 A complete guide to making wicker splint coiled and twined baskets from commercial and natural materials Includes information on making dyes Natural Baskets Maryanne Gillooly, 1992 Techniques include weaving twining coiling braiding and stitching of natural materials Basketry B. J. Crawford, 2003 Beautifully photographed and created for the beginner this fabulous introductory basketry course with 18 enticing projects will have you finishing a decorative basket the very first weekend The author offers the fruits of her 30 years experience time tested tips for adding bases shaping baskets substituting materials adding embellishments and many more tricks A wealth of knowledge on reeds covers everything from preparation to dyeing and finishing and there s instruction on all the different basket weaving structures The projects teach a variety of techniques each one building upon the last Start with a small Basic Basket that uses 11 key procedures and then move on to a charming Market Basket which includes an attractive handle Then try a Storage Basket Hanging Letter Basket Nantucket inspired Spiral Twill Basket or a Bathroom Catch All Plus a beautiful gallery from an international selection of basket artists The Complete Book of Basketry Dorothy Wright, 2013-02-04 Profusely illustrated authoritative classic gives history and geography of baskets detailed advice on basket design materials techniques care and step by step instructions 294 illustrations including 12 in color on the covers Hopi Basket Weaving Helga Teiwes, 1996-10 With the inborn wisdom that has guided them for so long through so many obstacles Hopi men and women perpetuate their proven rituals strongly encouraging those who attempt to neglect or disrespect their obligations to uphold them One of these obligations is to respect the flora and fauna of our planet The Hopi closeness to the Earth is represented in all the arts of all three mesas whether in clay or natural fibers What clay is to a potter s hands natural fibers are to a basket weaver from the Introduction Rising dramatically from the desert floor Arizona s windswept mesas have been home to the Hopis for hundreds of years A people known for protecting their privacy these Native Americans also have a long and less known tradition of weaving baskets and plaques Generations of Hopi weavers have passed down knowledge of techniques and materials from the plant world around them from mother to daughter granddaughter or niece This book is filled with photographs and detailed descriptions of their beautiful baskets the one art above all others that creates the strongest social bonds in Hopi life In these pages weavers open their lives to the outside world as a means of sharing an art form especially demanding of time and talent The reader learns how plant materials are gathered in canyons and creek bottoms close to home and far away The long painstaking process of preparation and dying is followed step by step Then using techniques of coiled plaited or wicker basketry the weaving begins Underlying the stories of baskets and their weavers is a rare glimpse of what is called the Hopi Way a life philosophy that has strengthened and sustained the Hopi people through centuries of change Many other glimpses of the Hopi world are also shared by author and photographer Helga Teiwes who was warmly invited into the homes of her collaborators Their permission and the permission of the Cultural Preservation Office of the Hopi Tribe gave her access to people and information seldom available to outsiders. Teiwas was also granted access to some of the ceremonial observances where baskets are preeminent. Woven in brilliant reds, greens, and yellows as well as black and white, Hopi weavings then not only are an arresting art form but also are highly symbolic of what is most important in Hopi life. In the women's basket dance, for example, woven plaques commemorate and honor the Earth and the perpetuation of life. Other plaques play a role in the complicated web of Hopi social obligation and reciprocity. Living in a landscape of almost surreal form and color, Hopi weavers are carrying on one of the oldest arts traditions in the world. Their stories in Hopi Basket Weaving will appeal to collectors, artists, and craftspeople and anyone with an interest in Native American studies, especially Native American arts. For the traveler or general reader, the book is an invitation to enter a little known world and to learn more about an art form steeped in meaning and stunning in its beauty. Indian Basketry

George Wharton James, 1901 Baleen Basketry of the North Alaskan Eskimo Molly Lee, 2015-09-14 Baskets made of baleen, the fibrous substance found in the mouths of plankton-eating whales, a malleable and durable material that once had commercial uses equivalent to those of plastics today, were first created by Alaska Natives in the early years of the twentieth century. Because they were made for the tourist trade, they were initially disdained by scholars and collectors, but today they have joined other art forms as a highly prized symbol of native identity. Baskets of exquisite workmanship, often topped with fanciful ivory carvings, have been created for almost a century, contributing significantly to the livelihood of their makers in the Arctic villages of Barrow, Point Hope, Wainwright, and Point Lay, Alaska. Baleen Basketry of the North Alaskan Eskimo, originally published in 1983, was the first book on this unusual basket form. In this completely redesigned edition, it remains the most informative work on baleen baskets, covering their history, characteristics, and construction, as well as profiling their makers. Illustrations of the basketmakers at work and line drawings showing the methods of construction are a charming addition to this book, which belongs in the library of all those with an interest in the art of basketry and in Alaskan Native arts in general. Practical Basketry Anna A. Gill, 1916 Anasazi Basketry Earl Halstead Morris, Robert Frederic Burgh, 1941 Handcrafts Barbara Brabec, 1982
