Premigration Legacies And Immigrant Social Mobility The Afro Surinamese And Indo Surinamese In The Netherlands:

Premigration Legacies and Immigrant Social Mobility Mies van Niekerk, 2002-01-01 In Premigration Legacies and Immigrant Social Mobility anthropologist Mies van Niekerk examines the social and economic trajectories of two groups that have immigrated from the Caribbean Basin to the Netherlands the Afro Surinamese and the Indo Surinamese Drawing on a wide variety of sources including family histories participant observation and surveys of educational and employment outcomes Dr van Niekerk compares the experiences of two groups who share a sending country Surinam and a receiving country the Netherlands but who are ethnically quite different The work is both a focused case study of the Surinamese migration and a comparative work that contributes to the debate about the relevance of structural and cultural factors for the social mobility of immigrant groups

Europe after Empire Elizabeth Buettner, 2016-03-24 Europe after Empire is a pioneering comparative history of European decolonization from the formal ending of empires to the postcolonial European present Elizabeth Buettner charts the long term development of post war decolonization processes as well as the histories of inward and return migration from former empires which followed She shows that not only were former colonies remade as a result of the path to decolonization so too was Western Europe with imperial traces scattered throughout popular and elite cultures consumer goods religious life political formations and ideological terrains People were also inwardly mobile including not simply Europeans returning home but Asians Africans West Indians and others who made their way to Europe to forge new lives The result is a Europe fundamentally transformed by multicultural diversity and cultural hybridity and by the destabilization of assumptions about race culture and the meanings of place and where imperial legacies and memories live on

Constructing Vernacular Culture in the Trans-Caribbean Holger Henke, Karl-Heinz Magister, 2008-01-01 Constructing Vernacular Culture in the Trans Caribbean traces the contradictory cultural trajectories constructed and re produced in the fluid diasporic spaces we call the Trans Caribbean Particular emphasis is placed on such cultural expressions that reflect or derive from the cultural vernacular and popular culture as it exists in these spaces Its multidisciplinary approach and focus on different language areas in the Trans Caribbean are of particular interest to scholars in cultural studies migration literary theory and cultural criticism

Caribbean Migration to Western Europe and the United States Margarita Cervantes-Rodriguez, Ramon Grosfoguel, Eric H Mielants, 2008-12-20 A novel and interdisciplinary volume on the dynamics of migration with comparative case studies of the Caribbean experience

The Immigrant Threat Leo Lucassen, 2005 The Immigrant Threat is an exploration of the common threads in the long term integration experience of migrants past and present The geographic sources of the threat have changed and successfully incorporated immigrants of the past have become invisible in national histories

Post-Colonial Immigrants and Identity Formations in the Netherlands Ulbe Bosma, 2012 In this book Ulbe Bosma explores the experience of immigrants in the Netherlands over sixty years and three generations Looking at migrants from all countries Bosma teases out how their ethnic identities are informed by Dutch culture and how these immigrant identities evolve over time Fascinating comprehensive and historically grounded this essential volume reveals how the colonial past continues to shape multicultural Dutch society It is an important counterpart to work on France Britain and Portugal Andrea Smith Lafayette College

Dutch Racism Philomena Essed, Isabel Hoving, 2014-03-01 Dutch Racism is the first comprehensive study of its kind The approach is unique not comparative but relational in unraveling the legacy of racism in the Netherlands and the former colonies Authors contribute to identifying the complex ways in which racism operates in and beyond the national borders shaped by European and global influences and intersecting with other systems of domination Contrary to common sense beliefs it appears that old fashioned biological notions of race never disappeared At the same time the Netherlands echoes if not leads a wider European trend where offensive statements about Muslims are an everyday phenomenon Dutch Racism challenges readers to question what happens when the moral rejection of racism loses ground The volume captures the layered nature of Dutch racism through a plurality of registers methods and disciplinary approaches from sociology and history to literary analysis art history and psychoanalysis all different elements competing for relevance truth value and explanatory power This range of voices and visions offers illuminating insights in the two closely related questions that organize this book what factors contribute to the complexity of Dutch racism And why is the concept of racism so intensely contested The volume will speak to audiences across the humanities and social sciences and can be used as textbook in undergraduate as well as graduate courses Philomena Essed is professor of Critical Race Gender and Leadership studies Antioch University USA PhD in Leadership and Change Program Her books and edited volumes include Everyday Racism Understanding Everyday Racism Race Critical Theories A Companion to Gender Studies outstanding 2005 CHOICE award and Clones Fakes and Posthumans Cultures of Replication Isabel Hoving is diversity officer at the Leiden University and affiliated with the Department of Film and Literary Studies of Leiden University Her books include In Praise of New Travellers Veranderingen van het alledaagse and several other volumes on migration Caribbean literatures African literature and art In addition to her academic work she is an awarded youth writer

Postcolonial Citizens and Ethnic Migration Michael O. Sharpe, 2014-01-21 This book provides a cross regional investigation of the role of citizenship and ethnicity in migration political incorporation and political transnationalism in the age of globalization exploring the political realities of Dutch Antilleans in the Netherlands and Latin American Nikkeijin in Japan

The Immigrant Organising Process Floris Vermeulen, 2006 Annotation This study focuses on the emergence and persistence of immigrant organisations in host societies The relevance of immigrant organisations for both the host society and the immigrants themselves has been effectively demonstrated in many different studies However the question why immigrant organisations emerge and why they often persist over a long period is not adequately answered In this study a comparative approach is used to reveal the structural determinants of the immigrant organising process

Different theoretical perspectives are combined immigration model social movement theory and the organisational ecology model It is this combination of models which has not yet been done by other scholars which determines the value of this study and the contribution to a better understanding of the immigrant organising process A comparative method is used analysing Turkish organisations in Amsterdam and Berlin and Surinamese organisations in Amsterdam 1960 2000 to explain the way in which the three explanatory models can be combined in one coherent explanation This title can be previewed in Google Books <http://books.google.com/books/vid/ISBN9789053568750> This title is available in the OAPEN Library <http://www.oapen.org> Africa in Europe: Interdependencies, Relocations, and Globalization Stefan Goodwin, 2008-10-17 Africa in Europe in two volumes meticulously documents Europe's African presence from antiquity to the present It incorporates findings from areas of study as diverse as physical anthropology linguistics social history social theory international relations migrational studies and globalization In contrast to most other works focusing on Eurafrican relationships that largely revolve around Atlantic and trans Atlantic developments since the Age of Global Exploration this work has a much broader perspective which takes account of human evolution the history of religion Judaic studies Byzantine studies the history of Islam and Western intellectual history including social theory While the issue of racism in its variant manifestations receives thorough treatment African in Europe is also about human connections across fluid boundaries that are ancient as well as those that date to the Age of Exploration the Age of Revolution and continue until the present Hence it brings new clarity to our understanding of such processes as acculturation and assimilation while deepening our understanding of interrelationships among racism violence and social identities This work is full of new insights fresh interpretations and highly nuanced analyses relevant to our thinking about territoriality citizenship migration and frontiers in a world that is increasingly globalized The author moves across boundaries of time and space in ways that result in an encyclopedic work that is an integrated and programmatic whole as well as one in which each chapter is a complete module of scholarship that is self contained
