Preparing Educators For Online Writing Instruction Principles And Processes:

Preparing Educators for Online Writing Instruction Beth L. Hewett, Christa Ehmann, 2004 Offers a theoretical justification for online writing instruction OWI as well as a detailed approach to training educators for such instruction Examples of training methods for both real time and asynchronous systems are accompanied by illustrations and screen shots The authors developers of online instructional programs at Smarthinking Inc also show how five main pedagogical principles can inform online instructor training independent of the platform being used The volume concludes with a glossary and findings from a study on how students use OWI Foundational Practices of Online Writing Instruction Beth L.

Hewett, Kevin Eric DePew, 2015-04-15 Foundational Practices in Online Writing Instruction addresses administrators and instructors questions for developing online writing programs and courses Written by experts in the field this book uniquely attends to issues of inclusive and accessible online writing instruction in technology enhanced settings as well as teaching with mobile technologies and multimodal compositions Handbook of Research on Writing and Composing in the Age of MOOCs Monske, Elizabeth A., Blair, Kristine L., 2016-11-29 The development of online learning environments has enhanced the availability of educational opportunities for students By implementing effective curriculum strategies this ensures proper quality and instruction in online settings The Handbook of Research on Writing and Composing in the Age of MOOCs is a critical reference source that overviews the current state of larger scale online courses and the latest competencies for teaching writing online Featuring comprehensive coverage across a range of perspectives on teaching in virtual classrooms such as MOOC delivery models digital participation and user centered instructional design this book is ideal for educators professionals practitioners academics and researchers interested in the latest material on writing and composition strategies for online classrooms Professional Development in Online Teaching and Learning in Technical Communication Beth L.

Hewett, Tiffany Bourelle, 2020-05-18 Technical communication instructors need professional development opportunities that will aid them in creating their online courses in developing curricula and in teaching in what may be a new environment Although instructors can turn to instructional design teams for assistance in using Learning Management System and its functions they specifically need their own first hand immersive learning within their pedagogical training In other words teachers need to learn in an online context like the environment that their students will use such direct training helps instructors to facilitate student learning in a technologically distributed classroom Beyond learning technological skills to facilitate a course these teachers need to learn to use the technology effectively to keep students on track and to teach them skills and material This collection which includes three contributions from 2007 and 10 from 2017 focuses on the types of professional development instructors need to be successful in the online technical communication classroom Formed as a 10 year retrospective of the field and its advances in online education professional development the book offers instructors theoretical and practical suggestions for creating and teaching successful online courses and managing entire online technical communication programs This book was originally published as a special issue of Technical Communication Quarterly TCQ Teaching Literature to Adolescents Richard Beach, Deborah Appleman, Susan Hynds, Jeffrey Wilhelm, 2013-08-21 This text for pre service and in service English education courses presents current methods of teaching literature to middle and high school students The methods are based on social constructivist socio cultural theories of literacy learning and incorporate research on literary response conducted by the authors Teaching Literature to Adolescents a totally new text that draws on ideas from the best selling textbook Teaching Literature in the Secondary School by Beach and Marshall reflects and builds on recent key developments in theory and practice in the field including the importance of providing students with a range of critical lenses for analyzing texts and interrogating the beliefs attitudes and ideological perspectives encountered in literature organization of the literature curriculum around topics themes or issues infusion of multicultural literature and emphasis on how writers portray race class and gender differences use of drama as a tool for enhancing understanding of texts employment of a range of different ways to write about literature integration of critical analysis of film and media texts with the study of literature blending of quality young adult literature into the curriculum and attention to students who have difficulty succeeding in literature classes due to reading difficulties disparities between school and home cultures attitudes toward school English or lack of engagement with assigned texts or response activities The interactive Web site contains recommended readings resources and activities links to Web sites and PowerPoint presentations and opportunities for readers to contribute teaching units to the Web site databases Instructors and students in middle and high school English methods courses will appreciate the clear engaging useful integration of theory methods and pedagogical features offered in this text Technology and English Studies James A. Inman, Beth L. Hewett, 2020-07-24 In scholarship about technology and English studies there are a number of first person narratives that suggest what may be termed traditional professional paths That is they chronicle the positive influence of a particular technology class professor or publication and suggest that it inspired a distinct and rewarding professional path What is missing is the rest of the story alternate ways that individuals have come to do work in technology and English studies and analysis of what this means for paths others might pursue Technology and English Studies Innovative Professional Paths meets this need The volume begins with definitions of its three central terms technology English Studies and professional paths Chapters are organized in four sections reflecting both a chronological progression and thematic professional development The Past as the Future Searching the Academy Pushing Boundaries and Forging Beyond As a forerunner in addressing professionalization across the domains that comprise technology and English studies it will prove foundational for many readers with non traditional or otherwise alternate backgrounds who are working out what professional paths might be available to them Technology and English Studies Innovative Professional Paths is an important professional development resource for professors instructors and graduate students across the field of English studies including rhetoric and composition computers and writing computer
