Narrative Inquiries of School Reform Cheryl J. Craig, 2003-05-01 This book culminates five years of extensive field based inquiry with teachers and principals in four reforming school contexts It arises from living alongside teachers and principals entering into their realities engaging them in conversations seeing school life through their eyes and employing the words and images they use to wrap around their experiences It involved thinking narratively about schools as sites of high drama within which teachers and principals negotiate meaning as knowledgeable and knowing human beings It gave primacy to everyday events taking shape on school landscapes It meant creating spaces and devoting enormous amounts of time to observing and listening hard to what teachers and principals say and do when reform initiatives become personally lived in context from their points of view

Destiny'S Tapestry Betty June Gilliland, 2014-04-11 On a stormy night as a hurricane raced up the Gulf Coast and created havoc in its path Betty Gilliland was born on a corn shuck mattress in a barn at the foot of Sand Mountain As soon as the midwife wrapped her in a blanket and gently laid her in a cow manger Gilliland began a journey through life that would eventually test her spirit courage and most of all her power to forgive Gilliland begins by chronicling her growing up years during a challenging time in Americas history Her father was drafted into the war and then abandoned his family leaving Gilliland and her mother to eke out a life for themselves in their tiny cabin surviving on a diet of wild greens nuts and roots As she weaves through the threads of her lifes tapestry Gilliland recalls the challenges she confronted during her difficult coming of age journey as she suffered through hardships physical abuse emotional abandonment and her own self destructive behavior Yet through it all she never lost the faith Whats more she used that faith to begin building a new life and to discover her roots Destinys Tapestry shares one womans poignant memories of moving from the darkness of abuse into the light of healing Prayers to Fulfill Your Destiny's Dreams Dr. D.K.
