Preserving Modern Landscape Architecture II Making Postwar Landscapes Visible:

Making Postwar Landscapes Visible Charles A. Birnbaum, 2004-06-15 Essential reading for those who want to understand post war landscape architecture and its ongoing preservation and management Creating Historic Preservation in the 21st Century de Teel Patterson Tiller, Richard D. Wagner, 2018-07-26 A must read for professionals and advocates of historic preservation who are concerned about preservation's future this volume is a compendium of powerful essays by thought leaders in the field first presented in 2016 as part of the fiftieth anniversary observation of the US National Historic Preservation Act Once primarily the concern of historians antiquarians and historic architects in the last century today historic preservation is a popular public movement a critical component of local land use ordinances a regional economic driver and a significant contributor to the nation's cultural identity By any measure the preservation of the built environment has been a success However as demographic economic and technological changes alter our future how will preservation be affected How will changes in the natural environmental and preservation education change the policies and practices of historic preservation during the 21st century The contributors here who are drawn from some of the leading academics and practitioners in preservation as well as environmentalists economists and historians provide answers to these and other questions about the future of historic preservation Ken Smith Landscape Architects Urban Projects Ken Smith, 2006 Ken Smith is unquestionably one of the most interesting voices in landscape architecture his works reflect the intensity and energy of their surroundings and challenge the distinction between landscape and art form Ken Smith Landscape Architects Urban Projects focuses on three prominent works in New York City his East River Project his work for P S 19 and his MoMA rooftop garden Through Smith's colorful playful drawings and photographs the book reveals how each project explores new expressions of landscape design in the city Ken Smith Landscape Architects Urban Projects is part of the Source Books in Landscape Architecture series sponsored by Ohio State University These books present sketches drawings models renderings working drawings and photographs Each book focuses on a recent important work or works at a level of detail that allows thorough study of the project from its conception to the completion of design and construction

The Challenge of Change: Dealing with the Legacy of the Modern Movement Dirk van den Heuvel, Maarten Mesman, Bert Lemmens, 2008-09-15 Conservation of architecture and the conversation of Modern architecture in particular has assumed new challenges Rather than attempting to return a Modern building to its resumed original state the challenge of these proceedings is to revalue the essence of the manifold manifestations of Modern architecture and redefine its meanings in a rapidly changing world of digital revolution worldwide mobility and environmental awareness This volume aims to provide a variety of platforms for the exchange of ideas and experience A large international group of architects historians scholars preservationists and other parties involved in the processes of preserving renovating and transforming Modern buildings has been invited to investigate the paradox of the Modern monument and to reflect on the manifold dilemmas of change and continuity The general theme is elaborated through five sub themes The sub theme Change and Continuity addresses the tensions between change and continuity from a historical theoretical perspective Restructuring Cities and Landscapes focuses on the larger scale of city and landscape while Shifts in Programme and Flexibility draws attention to the scale of the building or building complex and questions limits of re use and flexibility The fourth sub theme deals with education and the fifth sub theme Progress Technology and Sustainability considers specific issues of techniques and materials Vineyard,2004 CRM,2006 A Companion to Cultural Resource Management Thomas F. King,2011-03-29 A Companion to Cultural Resource Management is an essential guide to those wishing to gain a deeper understanding of CRM and heritage management Expert contributors share their knowledge and illustrate CRM s practice and scope as well as the core issues and realities in preserving cultural heritages worldwide Edited by one of the world s leading experts in the field of cultural resource management with contributions by a wide range of experts including archaeologists architectural historians museum curators historians and representatives of affected groups Offers a broad view of cultural resource management that includes archaeological sites cultural landscapes historic structures shipwrecks scientific and technological sites and objects as well as intangible resources such as language religion and cultural values Highlights the realities that face CRM practitioners on the ground Landscape Design in Color Mira Engler,2022-12-27 Architects landscape architects and urban designers experiment with color and lighting effects in their daily professional practice Over the past decade there has been a reinvigorated discussion on color within architectural and cultural studies Yet scholarly enquiry within landscape architecture has been minimal despite its important role in landscape design This book posits that though color and lighting effects appear natural fleeting and difficult to comprehend the sensory palette of built landscapes and gardens has been carefully constructed to shape our experience and evoke meaning and place character Landscape Design in Color History Theory and Practice 1750 to Today is an inquiry into the themes theories and debates on color and its impact on practice in Western landscape architecture over the past three centuries Divided into three key periods each chapter in the book looks at the use of color in the written and built work of key prominent designers The book investigates thematic juxtapositions such as natural and artificial color and line design and draftsmanship sensation and concept imitation and translation deception and display and decoration and structure and how these have appeared faded disappeared and reappeared throughout the ages Richly designed and illustrated in full color throughout including color palettes this book is a must have resource for students scholars and design professionals in landscape architecture and its allied disciplines Active Landscape Photography Anne C Godfrey,2023-04-28 Diverse Practices the third book in the Active Landscape Photography series presents a set of unique photographic examples for site specific investigations of landscape places Contributed by authors across academia practice and photography each chapter serves as a rigorous discussion about photographic methods for the landscape and their underlying concepts Chapters also serve as unique case studies about specific projects places and landscape issues Project sites include the Miller Garden Olana XX Miller Prize and the Philando Castile Peace Garden Landscape places discussed include the archeological landscapes of North Peru watery littoral zones the remote White Pass in Alaska Sao Paulo and New York City s Chinatown Photographic image making approaches include the use of lidar repeat photography collage mapping remote image capture portraiture image mining of internet sources visual impact assessment cameraless photography transect walking and interviewing These diverse practices demonstrate how photography when utilized through a set of specific critical methods becomes a rich process for investigating the landscape Exploring this concept in relationship to specific contemporary sties and landscape issues reveals the intricacy and subtlety that exists when photography is used actively Practitioners academics students and researchers will be inspired by the underlying concepts of these examples and come away with a better understanding about how to create their own rigorous photographic practices

Architectural Research Addressing Societal Challenges Manuel Jorge Rodrigues Couceiro da Costa,Filipa Roseta,Joana Pestana Lages,Susana Couceiro da Costa,2019-08-08 The escalating interdependency of nations drives global geopolitics to shift ever more quickly Societies seem unable to control any change that affects their cities whether positively or negatively Challenges are global but solutions need to be implemented locally How can architectural research contribute to the future of our changing society How has it contributed in the past The theme of the 10th EAAE ARCC International Conference Architectural Research Addressing Societal Challenges was set to address these questions This book Architectural Research Addressing Societal Challenges includes reviewed papers presented in June 2016 at the 10th EAAE ARCC International Conference which was held at the facilities of the Faculty of Architecture of the University of Lisbon The papers have been further divided into the following five sub themes a Changing Society In Transit Global Migration Renaturalization of the City Emerging Fields of Architectural Practice and Research on Architectural Education The EAAE ARCC International Conference held under the aegis of the EAAE and of the ARCC is a conference organized every other year in collaboration with one of the member schools universities of those associations alternatively in North America or in Europe
