

US Presidents and the Presidency

Abraham Lincoln Presidency

One of the most outstanding American presidents is Abraham Lincoln the 16th US president, who has been credited for his significant leadership, preserving the United States union when it was threatened by bitter internal turmoil from the breakaway southern Confederate states. The main cause of this conflict was the latter opposition to the abolition of slave trade in the US intended to grant African Americans freedom; hence, he is accredited for ending slavery in America. Lincoln successfully consolidated his power base within the Republican Party by integrating the moderate Copperheads faction and the abolitionist Radical Republicans as well as gravitating public opinion to his favour. During his famous Gettysburg Address in 1863, Lincoln galvanised the national bond after the destructive American Civil War thereby asserting his rhetoric prowess and an effective communicator (Peterson, 2007); (Chenabala, 1954). Lincoln's diplomatic address was also highlighted when he forestalled a probable conflict with the then world power Britain during the Trent Affair.

Due to his astute leadership in times of crisis, Lincoln has consequently emerged in various polls as one the greatest presidents in American history (CNN.com, 2009) (C-SPAN.org, 2009); (Murray and Blessing, 1994); (Skidmore, 2004); (Faber and Faber, 2000).

When Lincoln took office, the southern Confederate states had already made up their mind on secession from the Union and subsequently declared themselves the Confederate States of America as a new country (Donald, 1996). During the ensuing American Civil War, Lincoln appealed to the secessionists to accept "compensated emancipation" in efforts to persuade them free their slaves in return for commensurate financial stipends but very few acquiesced to this overtures. He therefore declared the Emancipation Proclamation in 1862, which made slavery
