Presumed Guilty The British Legal System Exposed:

Our Corrupt Legal System Evan Whitton, 2010 Looks at the adversary system used in Britain and its former colonies including Australia the US Canada India Ireland New Zealand and South Africa Details the origins and methods of the more widespread investigative inquisitorial system used in other countries including Japan and South Korea Author is Walkley Award winner Presumed Guilty Michael Mansfield, 1993 English Legal System Concentrate Mark Thomas, Claire McGourlay, 2017 This revision guide covers the key topics found on undergraduate courses A number of pedagogical features help with the preparation for exams and suggest ways to improve marks The Human Rights Act and the Criminal Justice and Regulatory Process Jack Beatson, 1999-09-01 The UK's new Human Rights Act with its duty to give domestic effect to the European Convention on Human Rights and the jurisprudence of the Strasbourg court will have a significant effect on many aspects of the criminal and regulatory process The papers in this volume arising from the second Cambridge Centre for Public Law conference consider the Act's impact on investigation and surveillance on evidence procedure and the substantive law applied at trials and hearings and at the post trial stage e.g. sentencing and post report action in respect of DTI Inspection Contributions from many of the country's leading criminal and regulatory lawyers both academic and practising make this volume an important and original source for all criminal lawyers Rethinking Miscarriages of Justice M. Naughton, 2007-09-05 Drawing on Foucauldian theory and social harm paradigms Naughton offers a radical redefinition of miscarriages of justice from a critical perspective This book uncovers the limits of the entire criminal justice process and challenges the dominant perception that miscarriages of justice are rare and exceptional cases of wrongful imprisonment The Lived Experiences of Claiming Wrongful Conviction in Prison Emma Burt, 2023-12-29 The Lived Experiences of Claiming Wrongful Conviction in Prison focuses on the lived experience of maintaining innocence in the prison environment and highlights the struggles and pain that such a claim can cause Using the little utilised means of conducting an interview via a series of letters the book details the experiences of 64 prisoners maintaining innocence in England and Wales and examines in depth what is unique to this population The chapters cover coping mechanisms relationships maintained with relatives relationships formed with prisoners and staff and the perceived effect of their claims on matters of progression and parole It draws on material from criminology sociology law and psychology to provide a holistic account of this population's experiences The Lived Experiences of Claiming Wrongful Conviction in Prison will be of great interest to students and scholars across the disciplines of criminology criminal justice law sociology and psychology Policing John Grieve, Clive Harfield, Allyson MacVean, 2007-05-21 This is the first course guide that has been developed for students of policing It identifies the core themes and additional source material providing an essential overview for students and a reference point for use throughout their studies The Policing Course Companion is designed to complement and work alongside existing literature It provides Easy access to the key themes in policing Helpful summaries of the approach taken by the main course textbooks Guidance on the essential study skills required to pass the course Help with developing critical thinking Taking it Further sections that suggest how readers can extend their thinking beyond the received wisdom Pointers to success in course exams and written assessment exercises The SAGE Course Companion in Policing is much more than a revision guide for undergraduates it is an essential tool that will help readers take their course understanding to new levels and help them achieve success in their undergraduate course John Grieve is a former Director of Intelligence for the Metropolitan Police where he also held a number of other senior roles He is now Chair of the John Grieve Centre for Policing and Community Safety and Emeritus Professor at London Metropolitan University Clive Harfield is a former police Inspector and is now the Deputy Director of the John Grieve Centre for Policing and Community Safety London Metropolitan University Allyson MacVean is Founder and Director of the John Grieve Centre for Policing and Community Safety London Metropolitan University

The New Politics of Crime and Punishment Roger Matthews, Jock Young, 2013-01-11 The underlying theme of the book is that a qualitative change has taken place in the politics of crime control in the UK since the early 1990s It provides an overview of recent government initiatives in the field of crime and punishment reviewing both the policies themselves the perceived problems and issues they seek to address and the broader social and political context in which this is taking place

Handbook of Policing, Ethics, and Professional Standards Allyson MacVean, Peter Spindler, Charlotte Solf, 2012 Low confidence in the police and the increasing crime rates during the 1990s led to a series of government initiatives directed at changing both the structure and management of the police service In 2006 in an attempt to define what a principled police service should resemble the Home Office Minister Hazel Blears announced the development of new Code of Professional Standards for the police service informed by the Taylor Review of 2005 While there has been a growing awareness of the role of Professional Standards within law enforcement activity to date there has been little scholarly debate on the understanding of ethics and how that is applied to practical policing This book provides a single text of different perspectives on how professional standards and ethics has been conceptualised and developed into practical policing processes for the purposes of policing not only by the police but also by the partner agencies Leading academics and practitioners consider the moral minefield of policing through examinations of undercover operatives MI5 and deaths in police custody as well as looking forward to the future considerations and practices in professional conduct It will be of interest to those working within the field of policing as well as students and academics focussed on policing and criminal justice

Criminal Injustice F. Belloni, J. Hodgson, 1999-10-10 Beginning with an exploration of the awful miscarriages which prompted the establishment of the Royal Commission on Criminal Justice the authors examine the role played by institutions and legal factors within the criminal process Tracking the shift from due process rhetoric to the new penology of efficient risk management of suspect populations they assess the impact of recent reforms such as curtailment of the right to silence the removal of the right to jury trial and the appeal process itself
