Jacques Derrida Peter Bornedal, 2024-01-15 This book presents a critique of Derrida from a Nietzschean perspective

Questioning the often advertised association between Nietzsche and Derrida it focuses instead on important differences and incompatibilities between Nietzsche's naturalistic paradigm and Derrida's textual paradigm Peter Bornedal argues that Nietzsche's position points us toward a pragmatic and constructionist epistemology based on a naturalist world view which was cutting edge in his days while Derrida's epistemology reduces theories of knowledge to a general textualism In short Nietzsche is not the predecessor of deconstruction or generally postmodernism that he is often portrayed to be His thinking does not advocate postmodernism's suspension of truth reason logic and understanding but rather replicates the paradigms of emerging disciplines of his day such as biology psychology cognitive science and linguistics His thinking is not playfulness for its own sake and does not defend formal transcendentalist principles such as difference The Barren Epistemology of Jacques Derrida A Critique of Deconstruction from a Nietzschean Perspective argues instead that Derrida's introduction of the supposedly novel difference logic may be analyzed as a transcendentalist validation of logical errors often addressed in earlier Western thinking in order to be avoided such as the contradiction in Aristotle or the paralogism in Kant With this critical view the work re-examines difference thinking and questions whether inconsistencies are manufactured rather than discovered in deconstructionist interpretation

Pretending Angela Beausejour, 2011-02 You can't pretend forever Alicia has been pretending for a long time She pretends that her marriage isn't in trouble She pretends she's okay with the nights alone and that she doesn't notice the growing distance between her and her husband She pretends he's telling the truth But pretending is a lot more difficult when Antonio Jamieson comes back into her life He's the man she has claimed is nothing more than a friend He's the man she has claimed she has no romantic past with And she really believes that but no else does not even her husband As others try to open her eyes to the truth about her feelings for Antonio Alicia begins to open her eyes to the truth about her relationship with Patrick Maybe things aren't okay after all Maybe things need to change Could it be time to stop Pretending But what will happen if she stops pretending Can she handle the truth Can she handle the pain that's bound to come when everything is revealed When the truth comes out everything is going to change in Alicia's world Her friends have their own truths to deal with so there's really only person she can turn to Antonio Could true happiness be hers or will she continue to pretend there's nothing between them Will there be an end to her constant Pretending
