Victimology Leah E. Daigle, 2012 This book provides an overview of the field of victimology including a collection of carefully selected articles that have previously appeared in leading journals along with original material in a mini chapter format that contextualizes the concepts It provides the history and development of the field of victimology explains who is victimized and why explains how the criminal justice system and other social services interact with victims and each other and provides information about specific types of victimization Back cover Working with Youth Violence Tamara Blakemore, Louise Rak, Chris Krogh, Shaun McCarthy, Graeme Stuart, 2023-12-01 Relevant for experienced and emerging social work and human service practitioners alike this book explores the uniquely challenging yet seemingly ubiquitous issue of youth violence It provides an authentic and accessible discussion of the theories and evidence that inform practice with youth violence alongside the voices of practitioners and the young people they work with These voices are drawn from work with the Name Narrate Navigate NNN program for youth violence NNN provides a trauma informed culturally safe preventive intervention for young people who use and experience violence and specialist training for the workers who support them The program embraces creative methods as a bridge between contemporary evidence on trauma and violence and Aboriginal healing practice The dual focus of the program is informed and interconnected by action research involving Aboriginal Elders and community members practitioners and key service stakeholders including young people with a lived experience of violence This book is ideal for use in professional cross disciplinary programs such as criminology sociology social work and psychology across post secondary vocational and university sectors Juvenile Law Violators, Human Rights, and the Development of New Juvenile Justice Systems Eric L Jensen, Jørgen Jepsen, 2006-10-04 This volume brings together scholars and practitioners specialising in juvenile justice from the US Europe alongside scholars from Africa and Asia who are working on human rights issues in developing countries or countries in transition The book thus presents two types of papers the first being descriptive and analytical academic papers on whole systems of juvenile justice or certain parts thereof e g aftercare restorative justice etc These topics are presented as essential for the development of new juvenile justice systems The second group of papers deal with efforts to promote reform through international activity PRI DCI DIHR and through efforts to utilise modern theory in national reforms in developing countries Malawi Nepal and Serbia or in countries experiencing current or recent political and systemic changes or developments South Africa Germany and Poland The volume is also intended to throw light on recent trends in juvenile crime in various countries the relationship between actual developments and popular and political perceptions and reactions to such developments including the efforts to locate effective alternatives to the incarceration of young offenders At the same time as the search for such alternatives is being intensified through international exchange and experimentation the amelioration of harsh measures against juvenile law violators is often countered by political and public outcries for security and demonstrative public intervention against misbehavior A streak of new moralism is clearly discernable as a counteracting force against more humane reform efforts The volume throws light on developments in the actual parameters of juvenile offending public and political demands for security and public intervention and measures to provide interventions which are at the same time compatible with international human rights instruments
