Prevention and Early Intervention with Children in Need Michael Little, Kevin Mount, 2018-10-26 First published in 1999 this volume examines how in the middle of the nineteenth century Dr John Snow is reputed to have wrenched the handle from a street pump in central London forcing people in the neighbourhood to change their drinking habits and so preventing them from contracting cholera from the dirty water Aspects of the story may be apocryphal but the general drift of Snow's assault on disease has enormous appeal for health education social services and police professionals working with children in need Why spend so much time struggling to find strategies to cope with the more intractable problems among adolescents when the problems might be prevented from occurring in the first place This book tries to untangle some of the complex ideas that underpin effective prevention and early intervention activity on behalf of children experiencing social or psychological difficulty It describes twenty programmes from Europe and America that have made an impact and where there has been an attempt to evaluate their usefulness On this basis it suggests some principles for more effective preventive practice Youth Mental Health Peter J.

Uhlhaas, Stephen J. Wood, 2020-04-14 Experts discuss the potential of early intervention to transform outcomes for people with mental disorders Mental illness represents one of the largest disease burdens worldwide yet treatments have been largely ineffective in improving the quality of life for millions of affected individuals in part because approaches taken have focused on late stage disorders in adulthood This volume shifts the focus by placing the developmental stage of youth at the center of mental health The contributors challenge current nosology explore mechanisms that underlie the emergence of mental disorders and propose a framework to guide early intervention Offering recommendations for the future the book holds that early intervention in youth has the potential to transform outcomes for people with mental disorders and to reconfigure the landscape of mental health The contributors discuss epidemiology classification and diagnostic issues including the benefits of clinical staging the context for emerging mental disorders including both biological and sociocultural processes biological mechanisms underlying risk for psychopathology including aspects of neural circuitry and developing and implementing prevention and early intervention including assessment and intervention modalities and knowledge translation in early treatment of schizophrenia Contributors Nicholas B Allen Mario Alvarez Jimenez G Paul Amminger Shelli Avenevoli Hannah F Behrendt Tolulope Bella Awusah Maximus Berger Byron K Y Bitanirwe Drew Blasco John D Cahill Joanne S Carpenter Andrew M Chanen Eric Y H Chen Shane D Colombo Christoph U Correll Christopher G Davey Kim Q Do Damien A Fair Helen L Fisher Sophia Frangou John Gleeson Robert K Heinssen Ian B Hickie Frank Iorfino Matcheri S Keshavan Kerstin Konrad Phuong Thao D Le Francis Lee Leslie D Leve Sarah A Lieff Cindy H Liu Beatriz Luna Patrick D McGorry Urvakhsh Meherwan Mehta Andreas Meyer Lindenberg Shreya V Nallur Cristopher Niell Merete Nordentoft Dongr George C Patton Tom Paus Ulrich Reininghaus Bernalyn Ruiz Fred Sabb Akira Sawa Michael Schoenbaum Gunter Schumann Elizabeth M Scott Jai Shah Vinod H Srihari Ezra Susser John Torous Peter J Uhlhaas Swapna K Verma T Wilson Woo Stephen J Wood Lawrence H Yang Alison R Yung Evaluating the Impact of Prevention and Early Intervention Activities on the Mental Health of California's Population Katherine E. Watkins, M. Audrey Burnam, Edward N. Okeke, Claude Messan Setodji, 2012 In 2004 California voters passed the Mental Health Services Act which was intended to transform California's community mental health system from a crisis driven system to one that included a focus on prevention and wellness. The vision was that prevention and early intervention PEI services comprised the first step in a continuum of services designed to identify early symptoms and prevent mental illness from becoming severe and disabling. Twenty percent of the act's funding was dedicated to PEI services. The act identified seven negative outcomes that PEI programs were intended to reduce: suicide, mental health related incarcerations, school failure, unemployment, prolonged suffering, homelessness and removal of children from the home. The Mental Health Services Oversight and Accountability Commission (MHSOAC) coordinated with the California Mental Health Services Authority (CalMHSA), an independent administrative and fiscal intergovernmental agency, to seek development of a statewide framework for evaluating and monitoring the short and long term impact of PEI funding on the population. CalMHSA selected the RAND Corporation to develop a framework for the statewide evaluation. This report describes the approach, the data sources and the frameworks developed: an overall approach framework and outcome specific frameworks.

Family Support: Prevention, Early Intervention and Early Help Nick Frost, Shaheen Abbott, Tracey Race, 2015-11-12. Family Support introduces and explores the state of the art in preventative social work with children and young people. Drawing on contemporary thinking and research, the book aims to make a contribution to current debates about how we can best support families in need. Underpinning the book is an analysis of how family support is changing, having moved from prevention through to contemporary debates about family support, early intervention and early help. The authors draw on their own practice experiences to ensure the discussion remains highly relevant to everyday realities. The book consists of three parts. Part I examines the history and context of family support. Part II outlines a number of practice approaches to family support and Part III suggests how family support work can be further developed. The book provides think points and case studies to support the reader in reflecting on the material presented and how this can be best applied, as well as including a guide to useful resources. Family Support will be a welcome companion for anyone involved in child welfare and safeguarding services, including students at undergraduate and post graduate level, practitioners, policy makers and academics.
