Prevention Of Child Maltreatment Developmental And Ecological Perspectives:

Prevention of Child Maltreatment Diane J. Willis, E. Wayne Holden, Mindy Rosenberg, 1992 According to statistics there are close to 2 million cases of child abuse reported annually in the U S Deals with child abuse and prevention issues Provides the reader with the beginning answers on the reduction of this problem through a comprehensive overview of both developmental and ecological perspectives scientific insights and clinical experiences Encyclopedia of Primary Prevention and Health Promotion Thomas P. Gullotta, Martin Bloom, 2003-01-31 Foundational topics such as history ethics and principles of primary prevention as well as specific issues such as consultation political issues and financing The second section addresses such topics as abuse depression eating disorders HIV AIDS injuries and religion and spirituality often dividing such topics into separate entries addressing childhood adolescence and adulthood Handbook of African American Health Jessica M. Ramos, 2011-03-18 With a focus on how to improve the effectiveness and cultural competence of clinical services and research this authoritative volume synthesizes current knowledge on both the physical and psychological health of African Americans today In chapters that follow a consistent format for easy reference leading scholars from a broad range of disciplines review risk and protective factors for specific health conditions and identify what works what doesn't work and what might work i e practices requiring further research in clinical practice with African Americans Historical sociocultural and economic factors that affect the quality and utilization of health care services in African American communities are examined in depth Evidence based ways to draw on individual family and community strengths in prevention and treatment are highlighted throughout Winner American Journal of Nursing Book of the Year Award The Health Care Setting As A Context for the Prevention and Treatment of Child Abuse Keith L. Kaufman, 2014-10-13 This special issue was designed to explore the role of health care professionals in the assessment treatment and prevention of child maltreatment The initial five articles were solicited to enhance our understanding of various forms of child maltreatment as well as approaches designed to effectively respond to this difficult problem The final manuscripts in this issue represent a theoretical and empirical perspective on child maltreatment Medical settings represent a fertile arena for prevention as well as intervention initiatives Future research should further support clinical strategies via program evaluation and outcome studies and be aimed at enhancing our knowledge of the field and developing more comprehensive models to guide our efforts It is hoped that this issue will stimulate research in this area and provide additional support for clinical interventions in the field Motivation and Child Maltreatment David J. Hansen, 2000-01-01 In this volume the concept of motivation is used to shed light on a range of complex issues surrounding the maltreatment of children Cathy Spatz Widom investigates the role of motivation in the intergenerational transmission of violence where victimized children themselves become perpetrators of violence as adults Joel S Milner looks at the way abusive parents process social information related to children The biological psychological and social contextual regulatory processes in maltreated children are considered by Dante Cicchetti and Sheree L Toth Deborah Daro discusses the current status of efforts to eliminate maltreatment of children and offers an alternative model for approaching the concept and practice of prevention John R Lutzker addresses the challenges of and procedures for applied research on the treatment of abusive parents In his concluding essay Ross A Thompson highlights the important themes focusing on child maltreatment that underlie this volume

Handbook of Child Abuse Research and Treatment John R. Lutzker, 2013-03-09 The causes of child abuse and neglect have been major topics of study since the 1960s but treatment strategies research and legal issues have only received concentrated attention since the 80s The leading figures in these efforts have contributed to this handbook a state of the art compilation of their findings that also includes writings on associated cultural issues youth violence sexual abuse and child development Both a text and a reference the volume is uniquely founded on empirical research

The Battered Child Mary Edna Helfer, Ruth S. Kempe, Richard D. Krugman, 1997 Previous editions of this book have been greeted with great acclaim This edition reflects the past decade's advances in research and techniques and includes contributions from experts on every aspect of child abuse

Family Violence Against Children Detlev Frehsee, Wiebke Horn, Kai-D. Bussmann, 2011-03-01 No detailed description available for Family Violence Against Children

The ^ASchool Services Sourcebook Cynthia Franklin, Mary Beth Harris, Paula Allen-Meares, 2006-02-02 This comprehensive sourcebook covers every aspect of school service delivery arming practitioners with the nuts and bolts of evidence based practice Each of the 114 chapters serves as a detailed intervention map beginning with a summary of the problem area and moving directly into step by step instructions on how to implement an evidence based program with distinct goals in mind and methods to measure the outcome School based professionals in need of ready access to information on mental health disorders developmental disabilities health promotion child abuse dropout prevention conflict resolution crisis intervention group work family interventions culturally competent practice policy ethics legal issues community involvement accountability and funding can now find high quality and easy to implement strategies at their fingertips
