Previous Convictions A Journey Through The 1950s:

Irrepressible Leslie Brody, 2011-09-20 From the author of Red Star Sister An excellent biography Brody has made the world a better place by telling Mitford's saga so skillfully San Francisco Chronicle Admirers and detractors use the same words to describe Jessica Mitford subversive mischief maker muckraker J K Rowling calls her her most influential writer Those who knew her best simply called her Decca Born into one of Britain's most famous aristocratic families she eloped with Winston Churchill's nephew as a teenager Their marriage severed ties with her privilege a rupture exacerbated by the life she led for seventy eight years After arriving in the United States in 1939 Decca became one of the New Deal's most notorious bureaucrats For her the personal was political especially as a civil rights activist and journalist She coined the term frenemies and as a member of the American Communist Party she made several though not among the Cold War witch hunters When she left the Communist Party in 1958 after fifteen years she promised to be subversive whenever the opportunity arose True to her word late in life she hit her stride as a writer publishing nine books before her death in 1996 Yoked to every important event for nearly all of the twentieth century Decca not only was defined by the history she witnessed but by bearing witness helped to define that history Brisk engaging Wall Street Journal A valuable retelling of a provocative life Kirkus Reviews

Beat Drama Deborah Geis, 2016-07-28 Readers and acolytes of the vital early 1950s mid 1960s writers known as the Beat Generation tend to be familiar with the prose and poetry by the seminal authors of this period Jack Kerouac Gregory Corso Lawrence Ferlinghetti Diane Di Prima and many others Yet all of these authors as well as other less well known Beat figures also wrote plays and these together with their countercultural approaches to what could or should happen in the theatre shaped the dramatic experiments of the playwrights who came after them from Sam Shepard to Maria Irene Fornes to the many vanguard performance artists of the seventies This volume the first of its kind gathers essays about the exciting work in drama and performance by and about the Beat Generation ranging from the well known Beat figures such as Kerouac Ginsberg and Burroughs to the Afro Beats LeRoi Jones Amiri Baraka Bob Kaufman and others It offers original studies of the women Beats Di Prima Bunny Lang as well as groups like the Living Theater who in this era first challenged the literal and physical boundaries of the performance space itself RUINED TIME (EasyRead Edition)

Robert Briggs, 2006 Walker Evans Svetlana Alpers, 2023-11-07 A magisterial study of celebrated photographer Walker Evans Walker Evans 1903-75 was a great American artist photographing people and places in the United States in unforgettable ways He is known for his work for the Farm Security Administration addressing the Great Depression but what he actually saw was the diversity of people and the damage of the long Civil War In Walker Evans renowned art historian Svetlana Alpers explores how Evans made his distinctive photographs Delving into a lavish selection of Evans's work Alpers uncovers rich parallels between his creative approach and those of numerous literary and cultural figures locating Evans within the wide context of a truly international circle Alpers demonstrates that Evans's practice relied on his camera choices and willingness to edit multiple versions of a shot as well as his keen eye and his distant straight on view of visual objects Illustrating the vital role of Evans's dual love of text and images Alpers places his writings in conversation with his photographs She brings his techniques into dialogue with the work of a global cast of important artists from Flaubert and Baudelaire to Elizabeth Bishop and William Faulkner underscoring how Evans's travels abroad in such places as France and Cuba along with his expansive literary and artistic tastes informed his quintessentially American photographic style A magisterial account of a great twentieth century artist Walker Evans urges us to look anew at the act of seeing the world to reconsider how Evans saw his subjects how he saw his photographs and how we can see his images as if for the first time

Witnesses to the Struggle Anne Loftis, 2014-05-16 A study of the artistic and literary responses to the Depression era labor crises of the Golden State Anne Loftis focuses on the work and activities of John Steinbeck Carey McWilliams Paul Taylor and Dorothea Lange who brought the story of California's labor struggles to the rest of the country The realism and documentary expression of their art grew out of their personal involvement in the problems of society and Loftis explores the lasting influence of their work One of Steinbeck's unintended legacies was his treatment of California farm workers as victims the simple pawns of larger forces In her balanced and intriguing study Loftis reveals that the workers were not victims but rather the strong and resourceful creators of their own histories City Poet Brad Gooch, 2014-04-29 The definitive biography of Frank O'Hara one of the greatest American poets of the twentieth century the magnetic literary figure at the center of New York's cultural life during the 1950s and 1960s City Poet captures the excitement and promise of mid twentieth century New York in the years when it became the epicenter of the art world and illuminates the poet and artist at its heart Brad Gooch traces Frank O'Hara's life from his parochial Catholic childhood to World War II through his years at Harvard and New York He brilliantly portrays O'Hara in his element surrounded by a circle of writers and artists who would transform America's cultural landscape Willem de Kooning Franz Kline Helen Frankenthaler Jackson Pollock Gregory Corso Jack Kerouac Allen Ginsberg LeRoi Jones and John Ashbery Gooch brings into focus the artistry and influence of a life of guts and wit and style and passion Luc Sante that was tragically abbreviated in 1966 when O'Hara just forty and at the height of his creativity was hit and killed by a jeep on the beach at Fire Island a death that marked the end of an exceptional career and a remarkable era City Poet is illustrated with 55 black and white photographs American Sexual Character Miriam G. Reumann, 2005-03-07 When Alfred Kinsey's massive studies Sexual Behavior in the Human Male and Sexual Behavior in the Human Female appeared in 1948 and 1953 their detailed data spurred an unprecedented public discussion of the nation's sexual practices and ideologies As they debated what behaviors were normal or average abnormal or deviant Cold War Americans also celebrated and scrutinized the state of their nation relating apparent changes in sexuality to shifts in its political structure economy and people American Sexual Character employs the studies and the myriad responses they evoked to examine national debates about sexuality gender and Americanness after World War II Focusing on the mutual construction of postwar ideas about national identity and sexual life this wide ranging shrewd and lively analysis explores the many uses to which these sex surveys were put at a time of extreme anxiety about sexual behavior and its effects on the nation Looking at real and perceived changes in masculinity female sexuality marriage and homosexuality Miriam G Reumann develops the notion of American sexual character sexual patterns and attitudes that were understood to be uniquely American and to reflect contemporary transformations in politics social life gender roles and culture She considers how apparent shifts in sexual behavior shaped the nation s workplaces homes and families and how these might be linked to racial and class differences

Daily Life in the United States, 1940-1959 Eugenia Kaledin,2000-09-30 Examine the everyday lives of ordinary Americans from the 1940s and 1950s and discover how very different the two decades were World War II affected Americans and the way they behaved not only in the 1940s but also in the years that followed when the depression that preceded the war was replaced with an economic boom Explore how women s roles and lives changed during these two very distinct decades how politics and political decisions impacted all walks of life and what the advent of growing technology much of it developed during the war meant to the general population What was it like to be a woman suddenly earning her own money while men were off fighting How did children and teenagers contribute to the war effort How did housing change in postwar America What pastimes were popular during these two decades and how did they reflect the times These questions and others are explored in detail encouraging students teachers and interested readers to recognize the tremendous shift in society between the war years and the atomic age that immediately followed This text presents the 1940s as a time of social problems that existed alongside community commitment to the war while the 1950s are presented as a time when exciting social change such as the beginning of the civil rights movement and the building of Levittowns occurred After the war ordinary people began to question long accepted ideas The exploration of these everyday details provides a rich look at two very important decades in our country s history

Many Are the Crimes Ellen Schrecker,1998 Offers an analysis of the McCarthy phenomenon tracing the machinations of anticommunism in creating a culture of fear and suspicion

The Last Gift of Time Carolyn G. Heilbrun,2011-07-20 From the author of Writing a Woman s Life comes an inspirational reflection on aging and the gift of life in your 70s and beyond When she was young distinguished author and critic Carolyn Heilbrun solemnly vowed to end her life when she turned seventy But on the advent of that fateful birthday she realized that her golden years had been full of unforeseen pleasures Now the astute and ever insightful Heilbrun muses on the emotional and intellectual insights that brought her to choose each day for now to live There are reflections on her new house and her sturdy comfortable marriage sweet solitude and the pleasures of sex at an advanced age the fascination with e mail and the joy of discovering unexpected friends Even the encroachments of loss pain and sadness that come with age cannot spoil Heilbrun s moveable feast They are merely the price of bountiful living
