Regional Private Laws And Codification In Europe:

Regional Private Laws and Codification in Europe Hector L. MacQueen, Antoni Vaquer, Santiago Espiau
Espiau, 2003-10-16 Regions within European Union member states such as Scotland in the UK and Catalonia in Spain have their own legal systems how will the process of Europeanization affect them This volume examines the phenomenon of regional private law in the European Union considering jurisdictions and laws below those of the member states and drawing comparisons with other such jurisdictions elsewhere in the world such as Louisiana and Quebec The whole is considered in relation to the development of European private law and the use of codification in that process This volume will be of interest to academic lawyers worldwide advanced law students and European policy makers Nationalism and Private Law in Europe Guido Comparato, 2014-12-01 While the internationalisation of society has stimulated the emergence of common legal frameworks to coordinate transnational social relations private law itself is firmly rooted in national law European integration processes have altered this state of affairs to a limited degree with a few albeit groundbreaking interventions that have tended to engender resistance from various actors within European nation states Against that background this book takes as its point of departure the need to understand the process of legal denationalisation within broader political frameworks In particular it seeks to make sense of opposition to Europeanisation at this point in the evolution of European law when despite growing nationalist attitudes great efforts have been made to produce comprehensive legal instruments to synthesise general contract law an area that has traditionally been solely within the ambit of nation states Combining insights from the disciplines of law history and political science the book investigates the conceptual and cultural associations between law and the nation state examines the impact of nationalist ideas in modern legal thought and reveals the nationalist underpinnings of some of the arguments employed against and somewhat paradoxically even in support of legal Europeanisation The author's research for this book has been supported by the Hague Institute for the Internationalisation of Law The Law of Obligations in Central and Southeast Europe Zvonimir Slakoper, Ivan Tot, 2021-08-16 The Law of Obligations in Central and Southeast Europe examines the new codifications reforms and other recent developments in Central and Southeast Europe which have significantly modernized the law of obligations in the last two decades focusing particularly on the legal systems of Poland Czech Republic Slovak Republic Hungary Slovenia Croatia Serbia and Turkey With chapters authored by prominent academics and promising young legal scholars this book discusses the results of the modernizations and describes the legislative reforms of the law of obligations that are underway or are discussed and advocated for in the countries of Central and Southeast Europe Divergences of the new civil codes and other legislative acts from earlier legal solutions are identified and the rationale behind these departures is analysed as well as the introduction of the new legal institutes in the law of obligations in these parts of the world The Introduction provides a concise country by country overview of the recodification modernization and reform of the law of obligations in Central and

Southeast Europe In Part I chapters discuss the process of recodification in the Slovak Republic Czech Republic Poland and Hungary with focus on the main novelties in their contract and tort law The chapters in Part II then discuss several more specific legal institutes of the law of obligations and other recent developments and contemporary challenges to the law of obligations in the Czech Republic Slovenia Croatia Serbia and Turkey This book is of interest to legal scholars in the field of private law as well as to students practitioners members of law reform bodies and civil servants in Central and Southeast Europe and beyond

Regulating Unfair Banking Practices in Europe Stephen Weatherill, Aurelia Colombi Ciacchi, 2010 Private persons often stand surety for a business debt incurred by family members friends or employers These suretyships are commonly banking guarantees contracted by means of standard terms Sometimes the guarantor signs the contract while he she is not aware of the financial risk related to the guarantee He or she may not even know what a suretyship is But in other circumstances the guarantor may be well aware of the risk but may nonetheless assume it because of strong emotional ties which exist between him her and the main debtor How then if at all does the law address the potential for unfairness in such situations Some systems choose to rely on objective criteria such as identification of a manifest disproportion between the guaranteed amount and the surety's income and assets while others are more open to subjective inquiry The key point is variation Different jurisdictions in Europe operate different models with different priorities This book provides a comparative overview of the remedies against unfair obligations of non professional guarantors available in 22 EU Member States based on a questionnaire which has been completed by an expert in each particular jurisdiction and covering both legal rules and the economic context of different credit markets and banking practices
