European Union and New Regionalism Mario Telò, 2017-12-08 This title was first published in 2001 This is a collection of papers that look at the structure of the global economy and its changing paradigms over the years The contributors look at how the classic concept of state autonomous sovereign and freed of all constraint never really reflected the reality of the international scene despite the role it has played in realist and neo realist theory for many decades Instead they consider that the political social and economic characteristics originally attributed to states seem increasingly to be expressed through regional constructs The papers in this volume show that even within regionalism there are a variety of different models that exist and examine five of those models the European Union Mercosul Mercosur the North American Free Trade Area NAFTA the Association of South East Asian Nations ASEAN and the South African Development Community SADC

The European Union and Europe's New Regionalism Boyka M. Regionalism in Europe Jürgen von Hagen, Mika Widgren, 2012-12-06 Over the past 40 years the European Union has been a great force of attraction for new members At the same time it has entered a host of bilateral and multilateral regional agreements with non member countries The result of these developments is a rather unique form of regionalism in Europe consisting of deep integration within the European Union and a network of sometimes

Weiffen, 2020-06-08 Regionalism is under stress The European Union has been challenged by the Eurozone crisis refugee flows terrorist attacks Euroscepticism and Brexit In Latin America regional cooperation has been stagnating Studying Europe and Latin America within a broader comparative perspective this volume provides an analytical framework to assess stress factors facing regionalism The contributors explore how economic and financial crises security challenges identity questions raised by immigration and refugee flows the rise of populism and shifting regional and global power dynamics have had an impact on regionalism whether the EU crisis has had repercussions for regionalisms in other parts of the world and to what extent the impact of stress factors is mediated by characteristics of the region that may provide elements of resilience Written by specialists from Europe and Latin America with a shared interest in the new field of comparative regionalism this book will be an invaluable resource for students scholars and policy specialists in regional integration European politics EU studies Latin American studies and international relations and international law more generally Regionalism and Global Economic Integration William Donald Coleman, Geoffrey R. D. Underhill, 1998 This scholarly and interdisciplinary volume sheds much needed light on the relationship between national policies regional integration patterns and the wider global setting It covers regional patterns in Europe Asia and the Americas Individual chapters focus on topics ranging from industrial or financial policies to social welfare regimes as well as broader assessments and comparisons of regional arrangements in a global context The chapters point to the diversity of regional patterns in the world economy and the continuing importance of national regulatory structures yet they also point to the common pressures of globalisation felt by all especially in the domain of capital markets With broad coverage and clear but sophisticated analysis this new book will be vital reading to all those seeking to clarify their understanding of the contemporary regional global paradox
