

The background of the cover is a painting of a woman, likely a classical figure, holding a bowl of fruit. The painting is in a soft, painterly style with muted colors. In the foreground, there is a green plant with feathery leaves, possibly a fern or a similar foliage, which is partially obscuring the bottom left of the image.

Regulating How We Die The Ethical Medical And Legal Issues Surrounding Physician Assisted Suicide

Juha Räikkä, Jukka Varelius

Regulating How We Die The Ethical Medical And Legal Issues Surrounding Physician Assisted Suicide:

Regulating how We Die Linda L. Emanuel, 1998 Addressing the subject of euthanasia medical ethicist Dr Linda Emanuel assembles testimony from leading experts to provide not only a clear account of the arguments for and against physician assisted suicide and euthanasia but also historical empirical and legal perspectives on this complex and often heart rending issue

The Case against Assisted Suicide Kathleen M. Foley, Herbert Hendin, 2003-04-29 In The Case against Assisted Suicide For the Right to End of Life Care Dr Kathleen Foley and Dr Herbert Hendin uncover why pleas for patient autonomy and compassion often used in favor of legalizing euthanasia do not advance or protect the rights of terminally ill patients Incisive essays by authorities in the fields of medicine law and bioethics draw on studies done in the Netherlands Oregon and Australia by the editors and contributors that show the dangers that legalization of assisted suicide would pose to the most vulnerable patients Thoughtful and persuasive this book urges the medical profession to improve palliative care and develop a more humane response to the complex issues facing those who are terminally ill

Understanding Assisted Suicide John Barry Mitchell, 2007 A personal journey into the issues surrounding assisted suicide that covers the widest range of topics and positions on the subject

Dying Right Daniel Hillyard, John Dombrink, 2002-06-01 Dying Right provides an overview of the Death With Dignity movement a history of how and why Oregon legalized physician assisted suicide and an analysis of the future of physician assisted suicide Engaging the question of how to balance a patient's sense about the right way to die a physician's role as a healer and the state's interest in preventing killing Dying Right captures the ethical legal moral and medical complexities involved in this ongoing debate

Adaptation and Autonomy: Adaptive Preferences in Enhancing and Ending Life Juha Räikkä, Jukka Varelius, 2013-05-13 This volume gathers together previously unpublished articles focusing on the relationship between preference adaptation and autonomy in connection with human enhancement and in the end of life context The value of individual autonomy is a cornerstone of liberal societies While there are different conceptions of the notion it is arguable that on any plausible understanding of individual autonomy an autonomous agent needs to take into account the conditions that circumscribe its actions Yet it has also been suggested that allowing one's options to affect one's preferences threatens autonomy While this phenomenon has received some attention in other areas of moral philosophy it has seldom been considered in bioethics This book combines for the first time the topics of preference adaptation individual autonomy and choosing to die or to enhance human capacities in a unique and comprehensive volume filling an important knowledge gap in the contemporary bioethics literature

Intention and Causation in Medical Non-Killing Glenys Williams, 2007-03-06 Analyzing the concepts of intention and causation in euthanasia this timely new book explores a broad selection of disciplines including criminal and medical law medical ethics philosophy and social policy and suggests an alternative solution to the one currently used by the courts based on grading different categories of killing into a formalized justificatory defence This text explores how culpability blameworthiness and liability are ascribed and how ascertaining mens rea and actus reus are problematic in an end of life decision making scenario Williams criticizes the way the courts rely so exclusively on the criminal concepts of intention and causation in such medical scenarios and examines and raises awareness of the inadequate and inappropriate legal framework within in which judges have to operate Topical and compelling this significant contribution argues for a more open and honest approach which would in turn provide the certainty consistency and equality required by the law This is a quintessential read for all students studying medical and healthcare law and the legal aspects of health and medicine Physician-Assisted Death in Perspective Stuart J.

Youngner, Gerrit K. Kimsma, 2012-07-30 This book is the first comprehensive report and analysis of the Dutch euthanasia experience over the last three decades In contrast to most books about euthanasia which are written by authors from countries where the practice is illegal and therefore practiced only secretly this book analyzes empirical data and real life clinical behavior Its essays were written by the leading Dutch scholars and clinicians who shaped euthanasia policy and who have studied evaluated and helped regulate it Some of them have themselves practiced euthanasia The book will contribute to the world literature on physician assisted death by providing a comprehensive examination of how euthanasia has been practiced and how it has evolved in one specific national and cultural context It will greatly advance the understanding of euthanasia among both advocates and opponents of the practice Moral Reasoning David R. Morrow, 2018 Offering students an accessible in depth and highly practical introduction to ethics this text covers argumentation and moral reasoning various types of moral arguments and theoretical issues that commonly arise in introductory ethics courses including skepticism subjectivism relativism religion and normative theories The book combines primary sources in moral theory and applied ethics with explanatory material case studies and pedagogical features to help students think critically about moral issues Ending Life Margaret Pabst Battin, 2005-05-05 Margaret Pabst Battin has established a reputation as one of the top philosophers working in bioethics today This work is a sequel to Battin s 1994 volume The Least Worst Death The last ten years have seen fast moving developments in end of life issues from the legalization of physician assisted suicide in Oregon and the Netherlands to furor over proposed restrictions of scheduled drugs used for causing death and the development of NuTech methods of assistance in dying Battin s new collection covers a remarkably wide range of end of life topics including suicide prevention AIDS suicide bombing serpent handling and other religious practices that pose a risk of death genetic prognostication suicide in old age global justice and the duty to die and suicide physician assisted suicide and euthanasia in both American and international contexts As with the earlier volume these new essays are theoretically adroit but draw richly from historical sources fictional techniques and ample factual material Contemporary Debates in Applied Ethics Andrew I. Cohen, Christopher Heath Wellman, 2014-01-14 Now in an updated edition with fresh perspectives on high profile ethical issues such as torture and same sex marriage this collection pairs cogently argued essays by leading philosophers with opposing views on fault line public concerns Revised and updated new edition with six new pairs of essays on prominent contemporary issues including torture and same sex marriage and a survey of theories of ethics by Stephen Darwall Leading philosophers tackle colleagues with opposing views in contrasting essays on core issues in applied ethics An ideal semester length course text certain to generate vigorous discussion
