Reinventing A Continent:

Reinventing a Continent Andre BRINK,1996 Pre and Post-publication Itineraries of the Contemporary Novel in English François Gallix,2007 Modernism and the New Spain Gayle Rogers,2012-10-03 How and why did a country seen as remote backwards and barely European become a pivotal site for reinventing the continent after the Great War Modernism and the New Spain argues that the Spanish problem the nation s historically troubled relationship with Europe provided an animating impulse for interwar literary modernism and for new conceptions of cosmopolitanism Drawing on works in a variety of genres Gayle Rogers reconstructs an archive of cross cultural exchanges to reveal the mutual constitution of two modernist movements one in Britain the other in Spain and stretching at key moments in between to Ireland and the Americas Several sites of transnational collaboration form the core of Rogers s innovative literary history The relationship between T S Eliot s Criterion and Jos Ortega y Gasset s Revista de Occidente shows how the two journals joined to promote a cosmopolitan agenda A similar case of kindred spirits appears with the 1922 publication of Joyce s Ulysses The novel s forward thinking sentiments on race and nation resonated powerfully within Spain where a generation of writers searched for non statist forms through which they might express a new European Hispanicity These cultural ties between the Anglo Irish and Spanish speaking worlds increased with the outbreak of civil war in 1936 Rogers explores the connections between fighting Spanish fascism and dismantling the English patriarchal system in Virginia Woolf s Three Guineas along with the international anti fascist poetic community formed by Stephen Spender Manuel Altolaguirre and others as they sought to establish Federico Garc a Lorca as an apolitical Spanish European poet Mining a rich array of sources that includes novels periodicals biographies translations and poetry in English and in Spanish Modernism and the New Spain adds a vital new international perspective to modernist studies revealing how writers created alliances that unified local and international reforms to reinvent Europe not in the London Paris Berlin nexus but in Madrid Reinventing Government David Osborne,Ted Gaebler,1993-02-01 A landmark in the debate on the future of public policy The Washington Post A Comparative Analysis of the South African and German Reception of Nadine Gordimer's, Andre Brink's and J.M. Coetzee's Works Eva-Marie Herlitzius,2005 The Disappointed Bridge Richard Pine,2014-06-02 This original study is the first major critical appraisal of Ireland s post colonial experience in relation to that of other emergent nations The parallels between Ireland India Latin America Africa and Europe establish bridges in literary and musical contexts which offer a unique insight into independence and freedom and the ways in which they are articulated by emergent nations They explore the master servant relationship the functions of narrative and the concepts of nationalism map making exile schizophrenia hybridity magical realism and disillusion The author offers many incisive answers to the question What happens to an emerging nation after it has emerged Rhetorics of Resistance Bryan Trabold,2018-10-24 The period of apartheid was a perilous time in South Africa s history This book examines the tactics of resistance developed by those working for the Weekly Mail and New Nation two opposition newspapers published in South Africa in the mid and late 1980s. The government in an attempt to crack down on the massive political resistance sweeping the country had imposed martial law and imposed even greater restrictions on the press. Bryan Trubold examines the writing legal and political strategies developed by those working for these newspapers to challenge the censorship restrictions as much as possible without getting banned. Despite the many steps taken by the government to silence them including detaining the editor of New Nation for two years and temporarily closing both newspapers the Weekly Mail and New Nation not only continued to publish but actually increased their circulations and obtained strong domestic and international support. New Nation ceased publication in 1994 after South Africa made the transition to democracy but the Weekly Mail now the Mail Guardian continues to publish and remains one of South Africa's most respected newspapers.

Readings of the Particular

,2007-01-01 The present collection aims at throwing light on transculturality and the identities and masks that people put on in writing as much as in life in an age of global levelling and the struggle for a particular place in a postcolonial world. Topics covered include North African identity in France, cultural citizenship and the Asian diaspora, novels of beur self identity by Maghrebi immigrants in France, Scottish fiction, Britain and Empire, memory, amnesia and the re-invention of the past in South Africa, the Caribbean and elsewhere, borders, necrophilia and history in Southern African fiction, encodings of female control, spectating in black documentary cinema, theatre performance and the Western presence in Africa, masks, history, transtextuality and other aspects of Irish poetry and drama, the masking and unmasking of identity in the African American novel, violence and Titus Andronicus in black Nova Scotian poetry, notions of the national and of indigeneity in contemporary Canadian drama, Native Canadians, space and the city. Authors and artists treated include William Boyd, Andr Brink, George Elliott Clarke, David Dabydeen, Ralph Ellison, Bessie Head, Seamus Heaney, Tomson Highway, Isaac Julien, Daniel David Moses, Paul Muldoon, Albert Murray, Jean Rhys, Sir Walter Scott, Robert Louis Stevenson, Richard Wright and W B Yeats. Colonizer and Colonized, 2021-11-08 Over the last two decades the experiences of colonization and decolonization once safely relegated to the margins of what occupied students of history and literature have shifted into the latter's center of attention in the West as elsewhere. This attention does not restrict itself to the historical dimension of colonization and decolonization but also focuses upon their impact upon the present for both colonizers and colonized. The nearly fifty essays here gathered examine how literature now and in the past keeps and has kept alive the experiences both individual and collective of colonization and decolonization. The contributors to this volume hail from the four corners of the earth: East and West, North and South. The authors discussed range from international luminaries past and present such as Aphra Behn, Racine, Blaise Cendrars, Salman Rushdie, Graham Greene, Derek Walcott, Guimar es, Rosa J M Coetzee, Andr Brink and Assia Djebar to less known but certainly not lesser authors like Gioconda Belli, Ren Depestre, Amadou Kon, Elisa Chimenti, Sapho, Arthur Nortje, Esia Mphahlele, Mark Behr, Viktor Paskov, Evelyn Wilwert and Leila Houari. Issues addressed include the role of travel writing in forging images of foreign lands for domestic consumption the reception and translation of Western classics in the East the impact of contemporary Chinese cinema upon both native and Western audiences and the use of Western generic novel conventions in modern Egyptian literature Democracy at Home in South Africa Kerry Bystrom, 2016-01-26 Focusing on aesthetic figuration diverse home spaces modes of domestic life and family histories this book argues that depicting democracy as it unfolds literally at home presents a compelling portrait of the intimate and everyday aspects of change that can be overlooked by a focus on structural concerns in South Africa
