Reinventing Community Identity And Difference In Late Twentiethcentury Philosophy And Literature In French:

Reinventing Community Jane Hiddlestone,2017 Reinventing Community Jane Hiddleston,2005 A cultural study of identity and difference in contemporary French writing Reinventing Community Jane Hiddlestone,2017-12-02 During recent years critics have increasingly expressed their loss of faith in existing cultural and political collective frameworks drawing attention instead to irreducible singularity and to radical incommensurability between diverse positions or groups Hiddleston analyses and challenges this trend bringing together political theoretical and literary analysis and juxtaposing the works of critical theorists such as Derrida Lyotard and Nancy with literature by writers of North African immigrant origin She presents a critique of those writers who underline the absence of communal identification proposes a new emphasis on relational networks interconnecting diverse cultural groups and argues for a more subtle understanding of the complex interplay of the singular and the collective in contemporary French writing Transnational French Studies Alec G. Hargreaves,Charles Forsdick,David Murphy,2012-01-01 The 2007 manifesto in favour of a Litterature monde en francais has generated new debates in both francophone and postcolonial studies Praised by some for breaking down the hierarchical division between French and Francophone literatures the manifesto has been criticized by othersfor recreating that division through an exoticizing vision that continues to privilege the publishing industry of the former colonial metropole Does the manifesto signal the advent of a new critical paradigm destined to render obsolescent those of francophone and or postcolonial studies Or isit simply a passing fad a glitzy but ephemeral publicity stunt generated and promoted by writers and publishing executives vis a vis whom scholars and critics should maintain a skeptical distance Does it offer an all embracing transnational vista leading beyond the confines of postcolonialism orreintroduce an incipient form of neocolonialism even while proclaiming the end of the centre periphery divide In addressing these questions leading scholars of French Francophone and postcolonial studies from around the globe help to assess the wider question of the evolving status ofFrench Studies as a transnational field of study amid the challenges of globalization The Algerian War in French/Algerian Writing Jonathan Lewis,2018-10-05 This book will enlighten readers on the importance of literature in contributing to historical knowledge Will provide readers with comprehensive understanding of the development of writing by French authors of Algerian origin from its emergence in the 1980s to the present day Emphasizes the contemporary relevance of the Algerian War and the afterlives of empire on twenty first century society and culture Rethinking Lyric Communities Irene Fantappiè,Francesco Giusti,Laura Scuriatti,2024-10-28 In contemporary Western societies lyric poetry is often considered an elitist or solipsistic literary genre Yet a closer look at its history reveals that lyric has always been intertwined with the politics of community formation from the imagining of national and transnational discursive communities to the use of poetry in episodes of collective action protest and social resistance Poetic forms have circulated between languages and traditions from around the world and across time But how does lyric poetry address or even create communities and of what kinds This volume takes a global perspective to investigate poetic communities in dialogue with recent developments in lyric theory and concepts of community In doing so it explores both the political potentialities and the perils of lyric poetry

Cinema and Contact Laura McMahon, 2017-07-05 Drawing on the work of contemporary French philosopher Jean Luc Nancy Cinema and Contact investigates the aesthetics and politics of touch in the cinema of three of the most prominent and distinctive filmmakers to have emerged in France during the last fifty years Robert Bresson Marguerite Duras and Claire Denis Countering the dominant critical account of touch elaborated by recent models of embodied spectatorship this book argues that cinema offers a privileged space for understanding touch in terms of spacing and withdrawal rather than immediacy and continuity Such a deconstructive configuration of touch is shown here to have far reaching implications inviting an innovative rethinking of politics aesthetics and theology via the textures of cinema The first study to bring the thought of Nancy into sustained dialogue with a series of detailed analyses of films Cinema and Contact also forges new interpretative perspectives on Bresson Duras and Denis tracing a compelling two way exchange between cinema and philosophy

Jean-Luc Nancy Benjamin Hutchens, 2011-12-15 Before now Jean Luc Nancy's contributions to legal and political theory have been largely overlooked and lacking the in depth appraisal they deserve In this unique collection eighteen notable Nancy scholars contextualize Nancy's work in these areas within the broad corpus of his other concerns By emphasizing the originality of his theories in a globalizing age each distinctive chapter provides a new and valuable insight into Nancy's legal and political philosophy Together with his work on sense community and art these cutting edge contributions examine Nancy's conceptions of justice legality and world in conjunction with the interpretation and rationality of The ontology of the event The form of relationality The effects of globalization The importance of Christianity in contemporary legal and political theory Including a brand new essay by Nancy himself this collection marks an important and timely step in a rich area of study

Francophone Literature as World Literature Christian Moraru, Nicole Simek, Bertrand Westphal, 2020-06-25 Francophone Literature as World Literature examines French language works from a range of global traditions and shows how these literary practices draw individuals communities and their cultures and idioms into a planetary web of tension and cross fertilization The Francophone corpus under scrutiny here comes about in the evolving markedly relational context provided by these processes and their developments during and after the French empire The 15 chapters of this collection delve into key aspects moments and sites of the literature flourishing throughout the francosphere after World War II and especially since the 1980s from the French Hexagon to the Caribbean and India and from Quebec to the Maghreb and Romania Understood and practiced as World Literature Francophone literature claims with particular force in the wake of the literature monde debate its place in a more democratic world republic of letters where writers critics publishers and audiences are no longer beholden to traditional centers of cultural authority

Mystical Islam and Cosmopolitanism in Contemporary German Literature Joseph Twist, 2018 Highlights the spirituality and cosmopolitanism of four contemporary German Muslim writers showing that they undermine the clash of civilizations narrative and open up space for new ways of coexisting
