Reinventing Eve The Search For A Feminine Culture:

You're Not what I Expected Polly Young-Eisendrath, 1994 Combining research and clinical theory with actual case histories this book reveals how couples can enhance their communication skills and learn how to make deeper commitments via the revolutionary new method of dialogue therapy a form of conversation that involves having and maintaining one's own point of view while understanding another's

Reinventing Eden Carolyn Merchant, 2013-03-12 This revised edition of Carolyn Merchant's classic Reinventing Eden has been updated with a new foreword and afterword Visionary quests to return to the Garden of Eden have shaped Western Culture This book traces the idea of rebuilding the primeval garden from its origins to its latest incarnations and offers a bold new way to think about the earth

Fat Sex: New Directions in Theory and Activism Helen Hester, Caroline Walters, 2016-03-09 While fat sexual bodies are highly visible as vehicles for stigma there has been a lack of scholarly research addressing this facet of contemporary body politics Fat Sex New Directions in Theory and Activism seeks to rectify this bringing debates about fat sex into the academic arena and providing a much needed critical space for voices from across the spectrum of theory and activism It examines the intersection of fat sex and sexuality within a contemporary cultural landscape that is openly hostile towards fat people and their perceived social and aesthetic transgressions Acknowledging and engaging with some of the innovative work being done by artists activists and academics around the issue of fat sex this collection both challenges preconceptions regarding fatness and sexuality but also critiques and debates various aspects of the fat activist approach It draws on a wide range of disciplinary perspectives bringing together work from the UK US Europe and Australia to offer a wide ranging examination of the issues of size sex and sexuality A cutting edge exploration not only of fat sex but of identity politics neoliberalism and contemporary body activism in general Fat Sex New Directions in Theory and Activism will be of interest to scholars of sociology cultural studies geography porn studies and literary studies working on questions of gender sexuality and the body

Women's Lives, Man's Myths C. F. Thomas, 2010-12-02

Literature and the Writer, 2016-08-09 Literature and the Writer was first conceived with the hope the essays would shed light on several dimensions of the authorial craft It was the hope of the editor that the selected essays would examine not only writers choice of vocabulary but also their deliberate selection of grammatical constructions and word order and their seamless weaving together of plots and imagery Moreover the analyses would also draw attention to how the writing process impacts the development of characters and the formulation of thematic strands in fiction Thus a wide variety of authors are deliberately selected to give the text depth writers of popular fiction as well as modern classics are included and contrasts are established between traditional writers and those who prefer to follow experimental trends Modernists are set against postmodernists absurdists vs realists minority ethnicities vs majority cultures and dominant genders appear in contrast to subordinated ones Clearly the major tenet of the collection is that the writing profession provides an unending dilemma that deserves to be explored in more detail as readers try to determine how authorial voices confuse while simultaneously elucidating their audience how texts are constructed by authors and yet deconstructed by the very words they choose to include how silence functions as inaudible yet audible discourse and how authorial self concept shapes not only itself but is also echoed in the fictional characters writers who appear in the texts
