Women, Philanthropy, and Social Change Elayne Clift, 2005 The definitive book on women and philanthropy, essential reading for scholars, students, donors, grantees, and philanthropists

The She Spot Lisa Witter, Lisa Chen, 2009-03 The really cool thing about this book is that Lisa and Lisa are showing us a way that we just might be able to save the planet. By marshalling the forces of loyalty, connectedness, empathy, and the desire to make our purchase dollars count for something good, we just might be able to persuade business to increase investments in cleaning up the mess.

Female Entrepreneurship and the New Venture Creation Dafna Kariv, 2013-05-07 Women represent the fastest growing group of entrepreneurs today. Despite the enormous economic contributions of this group, female entrepreneurship remains underexplored and inadequately covered in academic literature. Female Entrepreneurship and New Venture Creation aims to address this gap by shedding light on the unique aspects of female entrepreneurship. Tracing women's journey along the venture creation process, Kariv's book highlights the creatively different ways in which women approach the entrepreneurial enterprise, takes into account different environmental and cultural constraints that impact female entrepreneurship, provides a theoretical framework for the venture creation process that is practical and broadly applicable, includes in-depth case studies drawn from contributors around the world. This book captures the diversity of female entrepreneurship and provides a valuable synthesis of the insights that emerge from the stories of women entrepreneurs around the world. It will be a valuable resource for students of entrepreneurship as well as professionals.
