Relating To People Of Other Religions What Every Christian Needs To Know:

Relating to People of Other Religions M. Thomas Thangaraj, 1997 M Thomas Thangaraj appeals to American Christians to focus more on the similarities between Christians and devotees of other religions than on the differences

The Living Church, 1997 The Interfaith Alternative Steven Greenebaum, 2012-04-01 There is no them there is only us celebrating our common humanity Whatever your spiritual path chances are that the primary tenets of your faith include universal love acceptance and compassion Yet three thousand years after Moses twenty five hundred years after the Buddha two thousand years after Jesus and fifteen hundred years after Muhammad we are still divided by our differences Religious intolerance discrimination even persecution and violence make up the not so golden rule The Interfaith Alternative shows us how we can celebrate each other without fear of losing our own identity It illuminates the path to creating a nurturing spiritual community that honors and includes all religious languages an alternative to Jews worshipping only with Jews Christians with Christians and Muslims with Muslims In doing so it demonstrates that through coming together in a mutually supportive environment we can concentrate on our shared desire to remake the world into a compassionate loving place At its core Interfaith is about community and justice Once we truly embrace diversity we embrace our common humanity A powerful antidote to the current climate of fear and mistrust The Interfaith Alternative argues that it is not how we encounter the sacred but what we do about it that counts there are positive alternatives to religious lines in the sand Steven Greenebaum is an Interfaith minister whose experiences directing choirs of different faiths and denominations have helped him to understand the profound wisdom of many spiritual traditions Steven has dedicated his life to working for social and environmental justice He is the founder of the Living Interfaith Church in Lynnwood Washington Being United

Starting Right Kenda Creasy Dean, Chap Clark, Dave Rahn, 2010-05-11 Starting Right Thinking Theologically About Youth Ministry is the first academic textbook that introduces youth ministry students whether undergraduate or graduate level to a marriage of solid research real life and accessible design Whereas most college level texts may reflect a thorough though impenetrable mastery of the field they tend to expect readers to plow through unnecessarily thick prose and bland design because it's good for them Youth Specialties doesn't agree In this debut title to a continuing academic book line college and seminary students will be introduced to real life research real life youth ministry dilemmas and real life solutions Contributing writers represent a spectrum of Christian Education thought and practice as well as widespread recognition in their field transdenominational yet the perfect background to ministry in any denomination or ministry organization This text includes thorough indexes design and graphics that compel readers from page to page now that s a first for a college text organization that permits professors to use any part of the text in any order rather than plod through the entire book from beginning to end a perfect primary text that gives students a rich academic and readable though not popular grasp of every aspect of youth ministry a typical Intro course touches while also serving as an ideal secondary text

Religious Conversion Shanta Premawardhana, 2015-08-17 Religious Conversion Religion Scholars Thinking Together explores various issues relating to the nature methods and effects of religious conversion in the major world faiths Presents the results of an innovative ten year project initiated the World Council of Churches Features contributions from religious scholars and leaders of Buddhist Christian Hindu Jewish and Muslim traditions Considers myriad issues relating to the nature methods and effects of religious conversion in the major world faiths Addresses questions on religious freedom legal considerations and the future for religious conversion Mission Carlos F.

Cardoza-Orlandi, 2002-06-01 Mission has become for many North American Christians an ambiguous and often uncomfortable term To many it brings to mind a past in which western culture was identified with the gospel in missionary practice and programs Distressed with this history and uncertain about how to overcome it many prefer to ignore the New Testament mandate that the church must be in mission if it is to be the church Others swing the other way declaring that everything the church does is mission depriving the idea of mission of its power to define those specific actions of God which proclaim the gospel and build God s kingdom The church exists by missions just as fire exists by burning With these words of Emil Brunner the author reminds us that to be the church is to be in mission After describing the various captivities of mission which plague North American Christianity the author argues for a robust and engaged practice of mission beginning in congregations and extending to the broader community
