Metaphysics and the Representational Fallacy Heather Dyke, 2012-07-26 This book is an investigation into metaphysics its aims scope methodology and practice Dyke argues that metaphysics should take itself to be concerned with investigating the fundamental nature of reality and suggests that the ontological significance of language has been grossly exaggerated in the pursuit of that aim

The Politics of Suffering Peter Sutton, 2009 Peter Sutton is a fearless and authoritative voice in Aboriginal politics In this groundbreaking book he asks why after three decades of liberal thinking has the suffering and grief in so many Aboriginal communities become worse The picture Sutton presents is tragic He marshals shocking evidence against the failures of the past and argues provocatively that three decades of liberal consensus on Aboriginal issues has collapsed Sutton is a leading Australian anthropologist who has lived and worked closely with Aboriginal communities He combines clear eyed original observation with deep emotional engagement The Politics of Suffering cuts through the cant and offers fresh insight and hope for a new era in Indigenous politics

Unfolding Social Constructionism Fiona J. Hibberd, 2006-11-24 For more than half of the 20 century psychologists sought to locate the causes of behaviour in individuals and tended to neglect the possibility of locating the psychological in the social In the late 1960s a reaction to that neglect brought about a crisis in social psychology This crisis did not affect all social psychologists some remained seemingly oblivious to its presence others dismissed its significance and continued much as before But in certain quarters the psychological was re conceptualised as the social and the social was taken to be sui generis Moreover the possibility of developing general laws and theories to describe and explain social interaction was rejected on the grounds that as social beings our actions vary from occasion to occasion and are for many reasons unrepeatable There is so it was thought an inherent instability in the phenomena of interest The nomothetic ideal was said to rest on individualistic cause effect positivism of the kind which arguably characterised the natural sciences but social psychology so it was said is an historical inquiry and its conclusions are necessarily historically relative Gergen 1973 Events outside psychology converged to give impetus to the crisis within Philosophy Outside-In Christopher Norris, 2013-08-31 Christopher Norris raises fundamental questions over how analytic philosophy has been conducted over the past 25 years Arguing that it has led to a narrowing of sights to the point where more productive approaches are blocked from view he claims that Co Richard Rorty Richard Rumana, 2021-12-13 Demonstrating Richard Rorty's breadth of scholarship and his influence on diverse issues across the social sciences and humanities this comprehensive bibliography contains 1 165 citations A unique reference work on neo pragmatism this bibliography is essential for anyone researching Rorty's work and its impact on philosophy literature the arts religion the social sciences politics and education
