Religion And Politics In Africa:

Religion and Politics in Africa Jeffrey Haynes,1996 The impact of religion on the political process has come to the fore in recent years in a wide variety of societies Yet the significant and varied ways in which the rapidly changing religious context has impacted on the politics of modern Africa is still a relatively neglected field This book which is designed to fill this gap in the teaching of African Politics assembles and analyses an enormous amount of hitherto scattered material on the interaction between politics and religious groups in the post independence but also colonial eras Worlds of Power Stephen Ellis,Gerrie ter Haar,2004 With Christian revivals including Evangelicals in the White House Islamic radicalism and the revitalisation of traditional religions it is clear that the world is not heading towards a community of secular states Nowhere are religious thought and political practice more closely intertwined than in Africa African migrants in Europe and America who send home money to build churches and mosques African politicians who consult diviners guerrilla fighters who believe that amulets can protect them from bullets and ordinary people who seek ritual healing all of these are applying religious ideas to everyday problems of existence at every level of society Far from falling off the map of the world Africa is today a leading centre of Christianity and a growing field of Islamic activism while African traditional religions are gaining converts in the West One cannot understand the politics of the present without taking religious thought seriously Stories about witches miracles or people returning from the dead incite political action In Africa religious belief has a huge impact on politics from the top of society to the bottom Religious ideas show what people actually think about the world and how to deal with it Ellis and Ter Haar maintain that the specific content of religious thought has to be mastered if we are to grasp the political significance of religion in Africa today but their book also informs our understanding of the relationship between religion and political practice in general Pentecostalism and Politics in Africa Adeshina Afolayan,Olajumoke Yacob-Haliso,Toyin Falola,2018-06-29 As the epicenter of Christianity has shifted towards Africa in recent decades Pentecostalism has emerged as a particularly vibrant presence on the continent This collection of essays offers a groundbreaking study of the complex links between politics and African Pentecostalism Situated at the intersection between the political the postcolonial and global neoliberal capitalism contributors examine the roots of the Pentecostal movement s extraordinary growth how Pentecostalism intervenes in key social and political issues such as citizenship party politics development challenges and identity and conversely how politics in Africa modulate the Pentecostal movement Pentecostalism and Politics in Africa offers a wide ranging picture of a central dimension of postcolonial African life opening up new directions for future research Religion and Politics in South Africa Abdulkader Tayob,Wolfram Weisse,

Religion & Politics in East Africa Holger Bernt Hansen,1995 Religion & Politics in East Africa Holger Bernt Hansen,Michael Twaddle,1995-01 Religious activities have been of continuing importance in the rise of protest against post colonial governments in Eastern Africa Religion, Politics and Cults in East Africa Emmanuel K. Twesigye,2010

Religion Politics and Cults in East Africa is the first major original and extensive research based study of the apocalyptic and doomsday Catholic Marian Movement and its Benedictine monastic moral and religious practices including vows of poverty celibacy obedience daily contemplation in silence and hard work The Marian Movement is presented within the cultural historical political and religious context of the East African Revival Movement the Anglican Balokole Movement Alice Lakwena s Holy Spirit Movement Joseph Kony s Lord s Resistance Army LRA and other religio political liberation movements including the Maji Maji the Mau Mau and Nyabingi Liberation Movement The Marian Movement was locally known as Abanyabugoto and The Movement for the Restoration of the Ten Commandments of God It began in 1989 as a Catholic women s Marian devotional and moral reformation movement founded and headed by Keledonia Mwerinde Faced with African cultural patriarchy and male dominated Catholic Church hierarchy Mwerinde recruited Joseph Kibwetere and the Rev Fr Dominic Kataribabo to serve as the public face of the Marian Movement In response to Catholic hierarchy s opposition and persecution Fr Kataribabo designed a theology of ritual sacrifice atonement and martyrdoms for the devout Marian Catholics who were devotees of the Blessed Virgin Mary He martyred the Marian devotees in March 2000 in order to transform them into Mary s saints and to liberate their souls and send them to heaven where they would instantly attain eternal life lasting peace and happiness Publisher s website Religious Ideas and Institutions Edmond Joseph Keller,Ruth Iyob,2012 In the latest phase of political transitions in Africa analysts rarely consider the relationship between religion and politics This book addresses this need arguing that for democracy to be consolidated political leaders must make the right institutional choices choices that structure the incentives of their constituents as well as their own away from antagonistic forms of politics or religious extremism What impact do African contemporary religious organizations and elites have on their societies in terms of intergroup reciprocity and political bargaining The primary objective of this volume is to analyze how such organizations respond to the political signs and gestures of other groups in a like minded manner and the nature and effects of their negotiations with the State and other interests over contested matters The book s contributors hypothesize that Africa s religious organizations can prove critical in the way their elites make demands on the State and in the way they help to shape the structure of intergroup relations in constructive or destructive directions The authors consider the roles of both secular and religious elites and institutions in creating a political climate that enables elites to consolidate democracy Religion and Politics in South Africa Abdulkader Tayob,Wolfram Weisse,1999 Development and Politics from Below B. Bompani,M. Frahm-Arp,2010-07-16 Religion is playing an increasingly central role in African political and developmental life This book offers an empirical and theoretical reflection on the relationships between religion politics and development in Africa the meanings of religion in non Western contexts and the way that is embedded in the everyday life of people in Africa

Elolia,2012-03-02 Spanning various regions of Sub Saharan Africa the authors of this volume come together to explore the complex relationship between religion and democracy in contemporary Africa As a result of the end of the Cold War and the fall of the Soviet Union many African countries have come to the realization however partial that political and social change is inevitable in spite of government heavy handedness and threats It has also become evident that no political system that refuses to permit freedom of political expression and alternative systems of governance could continue to be sustained It is in precisely this political climate that religious institutions have collaborated with other elements of civil society to call for political reforms with the church often becoming the prominent voice against oppressive governments in countries such as Kenya and South Africa It is the purpose of this book to assess how religion shapes political issues and to what extent religious forces influence the civil society By acknowledging the role of the civil society the essays recognize the resilience that comes out of Africa even when the sociopolitical situation seems unbearable Islam and Muslim Politics in Africa B. Soares,R. Otayek,2007-10-01 Political liberalization and economic reform the weakening of the state and increased global interconnections have all had profound effects on Muslim societies and the practice of Islam in Africa The contributors to this volume investigate and illuminate the changes that have occurred in Africa through detailed case studies
