Scott, 2023-12-18 This book is a study of the novels of Boris Vian the artist writer jazz musician and occasional pornographer Primarily known for his classic novel of doomed young love L'écume des jours and the pseudonymously written erotic roman noir J'irai cracher sur vos tombes his work displays a bewildering variety of styles genres and narrative voices The purpose of this book is to show that Vian's novels in fact display an overall thematic coherence dramatizing the growth of the individual from childhood to adolescent idealism and ultimate adult disillusion Vian is a highly popular author in France this book seeks to prove that he is also a serious literary artist The wordplay pastiche and parody which fill his texts should not blind the reader to the deeper themes and issues which lie behind them just as the protean character of his style should not be allowed to conceal the single integrated narrative which runs throughout his novels Margaret Atwood: Crime Fiction Writer

Jackie Shead, 2016-05-13 Exploring how Margaret Atwood's fiction reimagines the figure of the detective and the nature of crime Jackie Shead shows how the author radically reworks the crime fiction genre Shead focuses on Surfacing Bodily Harm Alias Grace The Blind Assassin Oryx and Crake and selected short fiction showing the ways in which Atwood's protagonists are confronted by their own collusion in hegemonic assumptions and thus are motivated to investigate and expose crimes of gender class and colonialism Shead begins with a discussion of how Atwood's treatment of crime fiction's generic elements particularly those of the whodunit clue puzzle and spy thriller departs from convention Through discussion of Atwood's metafictional strategies Shead also examines Atwood's techniques for activating her readers as investigators who are offered an educative process parallel to that experienced by some of the author's protagonists This book also marks a significant intervention in an ongoing debate among Atwood critics that pits the author's postmodernism against her ethical and humanistic concerns Selma Lagerlöf Brita Green, 1977

State of Peril Lucy Valerie Graham, 2015 Considering fiction from the colonial era to the present State of Peril offers the first sustained scholarly examination of rape narratives in the literature of a country that has extremely high levels of sexual violence Lucy Graham demonstrates how despite the fact that most incidents of rape in South Africa are not interracial narratives of interracial rape have dominated the national imaginary Seeking to understand this phenomenon the study draws on Michel Foucault's ideas on sexuality and biopolitics as well as Judith Butler's speculations on race and cultural melancholia Historical analysis of the body politic provides the backdrop for careful close readings of literature by Olive Schreiner Sol Plaatje Sarah Gertrude Millin Njabulo Ndebele J M Coetzee Zo Wicomb and others Ultimately State of Peril argues for ethically responsible interpretations that recognize high levels of sexual violence in South Africa while parsing the racialized inferences and assumptions implicit in literary representations of bodily violation Nazi Germany and the Holocaust in Historical Crime Fiction Anthony Lake,2023-07-24 This is the first book length academic study of the portrayal in contemporary historical crime fiction of Nazi Germany and the Holocaust and their legacies It discusses novels written by five authors David Downing Philip Kerr Luke McCallin Joseph Kanon and David Thomas Their work belongs to a subgenre of the historical crime novel that has emerged since the late 1980s to become a significant body of writing located at the intersection of crime fiction and Holocaust literature The readings of these novels explore questions of form and genre to ask how popular fiction might approach the Holocaust Themes of resistance and complicity and the relationship between them and problems of guilt and responsibility are also discussed This book also explores questions of justice to show how these novels explore social and moral justice and vengeance and revenge as alternatives to ordinary legal justice after the Holocaust

George LaVigne,2004 Retribution A Novel of Murder and Revenge George LaVigne s first novel is an irresistible page turner Love or hate what s happening you won t be able to put it down By all measures Jack Latham was a lucky man His loving wife and two young sons were the centerpiece of his American Dream Then one night his luck runs out The senseless murder of his wife and sons leaves Jack a shattered man with just two feelings One was rage that would drive him to do what had previously been unthinkable The other was a certainty that the evil that destroyed his family would not go unpunished Left to others justice would be far too kind and far too slow Left to Jack that would change His journey begins with a woman who shares a common agony Together they encounter people and places they never imagined bound by a quest for justice at any cost even their own lives Whether you cheer for Jack or condemn him Retribution will leave no doubt There s nothing more dangerous than a man with nothing left to lose British Working-Class Fiction Roberto del Valle Alcalá,2016-02-11 British Fiction and the Struggle Against Work offers an account of British literary responses to work from the 1950s to the onset of the financial crisis of 2008. Roberto del Valle Alcal argues that throughout this period working class writing developed new strategies of resistance against the social discipline imposed by capitalist work. As the latter becomes an increasingly pervasive and inescapable form of control and as its nature grows abstract, diffuse and precarious, writing about it acquires a new antagonistic quality producing new forms of subjective autonomy and new imaginaries of a possible life beyond its purview. By tracing a genealogy of working class authors and texts that in various ways defined themselves against the social discipline imposed by post war capitalism, this book analyses the strategies adopted by workers in their attempts to identify and combat the source of their oppression. Drawing on the work of a wide range of theorists including Deleuze and Guattari, Giorgio Agamben and Antonio Negri, Alcal offers a systematic and innovative account of British literary treatments of work. The book includes close readings of fiction by Alan Sillitoe, David Storey, Nell Dunn, Pat Barker, James Kelman, Irvine Welsh, Monica Ali and Joanna Kavenna.

Mysterymania Berry Palmer Chevasco, 2003 A scholar of both English and French literature, Chevasco describes how in the 1830s British critics gave Sue's work the same grudging admiration or mistrust they gave to other French novelists and compared him to contemporaries such as Balzac and Hugo. But after the widespread success of Les Mystères de Paris in 1843-44, increasingly identified him as a "Vigilante Justice in Society and Popular Culture." Peter Robson, Ferdinando Spina, 2022-10-27 This unique collection explores the complex issue of vigilantism: how it is represented in popular culture and what is its impact on behavior and the implications for the rule of law. The book is a transnational investigation across a range of eleven different jurisdictions, including accounts of the Anglophone world (Australia, Britain, Canada, and the United States), European experiences (Germany, Greece, Italy, Poland, and Portugal), and South American jurisdictions (Argentina and Brazil). The essays, written by prominent international scholars in law, sociology, criminology, and media studies, present data, historical and recent examples of vigilantism, examine the national laws and jurisprudence, and focus on the broad theme of vigilante justice in popular culture, literature, films, television. Vigilante Justice in Society and Popular Culture sheds light on this topic, offering a detailed look beyond the Anglophone world. This collection will enrich the debate by adding the opportunity for comparison, which has been largely lacking in scholarly debate As such it will appeal not only to scholars of law sociology criminology and media studies but also to all those who are engaged with these topics alike The Subject in Crisis in Contemporary Chinese Literature Rong Cai,2004
