Return To Palm Island:

The Corner House Girls on Palm Island Grace Brooks Hill, 1922 I hear a noise declared Dot holding her Alice doll more firmly and staring all about into the aisles of the chestnut grove What kind of noise asked Tess mildly curious Where does the sound come from demanded Agnes in her abrupt way but very carefully picking brown chestnuts out of a prickly burr and with gloves on one may be sure Catch Agnes Kenway the beauty sister ever doing anything to spoil her hands Say Is this a game Like cum je cum grumbled Sammy Pinkney who did not wear gloves and therefore had already got plenty of pricklers in his stubbed fingers although the nutting party had not been in the grove half an hour I ll bite How big is the noise Well said Dot seriously and answering Sammy s query first it is not a big noise at all I just manage to hear it And it s gone now Palm Island Joanne Watson, 2010 In November 2004 Mulrunji Doomadgee s tragic death triggered civil unrest within the Indigenous community of Palm Island This led to the first prosecution of a Queensland police officer in relation to a death in custody In Palm Island Joanne Watson gives the first substantial history of the island from pre contact to the present

The Dead and Their Possessions Cressida Fforde, Jane Hubert, Paul Turnbull, 2004 Repatriation of human remains has become a key international heritage concern This extensive collection of papers provides a survey of the current state of repatriation in terms of policy practice and theory Yatdjuligin Odette Best, Bronwyn Fredericks, 2021-08-25 Yatdjuligin introduces students to the fundamentals of health care of Indigenous Australians This book addresses the relationship between Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures and mainstream health services and introduces readers to practice and research in a variety of healthcare contexts Yatdjuligin Bronwyn Fredericks, 2014-09-23 Yatdjuligin introduces students to the fundamentals of the healthcare of Indigenous Australians empowering them to create culturally safe nursing practices Ngapartji Ngapartji Vanessa Castejon, Anna Cole, Oliver Haag, Karen Hughes, 2014-11-12 In this innovative collection Indigenous and non Indigenous scholars from Australia and Europe reflect on how their life histories have impacted on their research in Indigenous Australian Studies Drawing on Pierre Nora s concept of ego histoire as an analytical tool to ask historians to apply their methods to themselves contributors lay open their paths personal commitments and passion involved in their research Why are we researching in Indigenous Studies what has driven our motivations How have our biographical experiences influenced our research And how has our research influenced us in our political and individual understanding as scholars and human beings This collection tries to answer many of these complex questions seeing them not as merely personal issues but highly relevant to the practice of Indigenous Studies I think this rich collection will become a landmark text and a favourite within Australian scholarship I am keen to see it published so that I can recommend it to others Professor Emerita Margaret Allen Gender Studies and Social Analysis University of Adelaide The idea was to explain the link between the history you have made and the history that has made you Pierre Nora A Question of Colour Pattie Lees, Adam Lees, 2020-08-01 Autobiography of a victim of the stolen generation in Australia Law as

Culture Kathy Laster, 2001 Law as Culture is a beguilingly accessible lively and engaging introduction to the law and to legal skills complete with innovative skills exercises and even some cartoons It gives the reader a framework for subsequent legal study and for professional life by demystifying the language and culture of the law and by building legal skills The Extracts Preface to the 2nd edn and Skills Inventory below link above clearly outline the many strengths of this edition The book shows how law students are socialised into professional legal culture and encourages independent thought It highlights the ways in which law reflects social values and priorities the place of law as one among many systems of social organisation and problem solving and the rise of lawyers as a subculture This edition has been extensively revised to take account of developments in law such as the results of the 1999 Referendum on the Republic the debates about a Bill of Rights for Australia and changes to legal professional practice The jurisdictional reach has been extended to look at cases and legislation from all Australian States Black White relations has been introduced as a recurring theme materials on Aboriginal Reconciliation the Wik judgment and the legal and political debate over the Stolen Generations give continuity and perspective Law as Culture includes clear and accessible accounts of key jurisprudential issues and an extended introduction which sets out the pedagogical assumptions There are cases and legislation from all Australian States thorough referencing and an annotated list of Further Reading in each chapter

Parliamentary Papers Queensland. Parliament. Legislative Assembly, 1919 Heritage, Museums and Galleries Gerard Corsane, 2005 This reader provides a starting point and introductory resource for anyone wishing to engage with certain key issues relating to the heritage museums and galleries sector

The Black Grapevine Linda Briskman, 2003 The Black Grapevine tells the extraordinary story of Indigenous efforts to stop children becoming part of the stolen generations and to end the government policies and practices which destroyed their families Linda Briskman uses the story of the Secretariat of National Aboriginal and Island Child Care SNAICC to centre her book Indigenous people involved tell how they came together to form a national organisation for child care how they found similar experiences from one end of Australia to the other how they pooled experience and emotion to provide support for one another how they lobbied for a national inquiry And they campaigned Indigenous activists fought with astonishing resilience for recognition of past and present practices for the right to have Indigenous viewpoints to the forefront and for resources Briskman's story goes beyond the contest with the state to give a convincing portrait of the ways in which Indigenous groups worked There are connections with international action educational and fund raising projects and the much vaunted annual Aboriginal and Islander Children's Day She concludes by reflecting on the successes of campaigns and actions to date and the extent of unfinished business Her strong academic background combines with the oral testimony of the activists to produce a fast moving book that is both entertaining and rigorous

Audition Barbara Walters, 2009-05-05 1 NATIONAL BESTSELLER An inspiring and riveting memoir from the most important woman in the history of television journalism A delightful tale of the golden age of television Juicy behind the scenes details of the celebrities she's interviewed mixed in with stories of her own trials and tribulations The Washington Post After more than fifty years of interviewing heads of state world leaders movie stars criminals murderers inspirational figures and celebrities of all kinds Barbara Walters turns her gift for examination onto her own extraordinary life Walters was the product of a turbulent childhood that featured a glamorous father who made and lost several fortunes as well as the companionship of a mentally challenged sister Feelings of responsibility for her family played a large part in the choices she made as she grew up the friendships she developed the relationships she had the marriages she tried to make work Ultimately thanks to her drive and a decent amount of luck Walters made it to the top of a male dominated industry She was the first woman cohost of the Today show the first female network news coanchor the host and producer of countless top rated Specials the star of 20/20 and the creator and cohost of The View She has not only interviewed the world's most fascinating figures she has become a part of their world These are just a few of the names that play a key role in her life career and book Yasir Arafat Warren Beatty Menachem Begin George H W Bush George W Bush Jimmy Carter Fidel Castro Hugo Chavez Bill and Hillary Clinton Roy Cohn the Dalai Lama Princess Diana Katharine Hepburn King Hussein Angelina Jolie Henry Kissinger Monica Lewinsky Richard Nixon Rosie O'Donnell Christopher Reeve Anwar Sadat John Wayne the list goes on Barbara Walters has spent a lifetime auditioning for her bosses at the TV networks for millions of viewers for the most famous people in the world and even for her own daughter with whom she has had a difficult but ultimately quite wonderful and moving relationship This book in some ways is her final audition as she fully opens up both her private and public lives In doing so she has given us a story that is heartbreaking and honest surprising and fun sometimes startling and always fascinating Al Capone Deirdre Bair, 2017-10-31 At the height of Prohibition Al Capone loomed large as Public Enemy Number One his multimillion dollar Chicago Outfit dominated organized crime and law enforcement was powerless to stop him But then came the fall a legal noose tightened by the FBI a conviction on tax evasion a stint in Alcatraz After his release he returned to his family in Miami a much diminished man living quietly until the ravages of his neurosyphilis took their final toll Our shared fascination with Capone endures in countless novels and movies but the man behind the legend has remained a mystery Now through rigorous research and exclusive access to Capone's family National Book Award winning biographer Deirdre Bair cuts through the mythology uncovering a complex character who was flawed and cruel but also capable of nobility At once intimate and iconoclastic Al Capone gives us the definitive account of a quintessentially American figure Under the Act Willie Thaiday, 2017-05-30 Under the Act gives an insight into the removal of our people from their homeland and placed somewhere totally foreign and expected to live in harmony not only with other Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people from many different communities but also the Qld Government This book shows the heroic men who had had enough of the treatment and stood up as a united group to the government and their journey off Palm Island because of this It makes the reader understand what they were going through and is evidence of how our people were treated many years ago A

Dumping Ground Thom Blake, 2001 Cherbourg settlement was a home to many But it was never the haven the Queensland government intended By the end of the 19th century at the height of Queensland s Aboriginal protectionist policy practice the idea of establishing two government controlled Aboriginal reserves at either end of the state was nearing realisation The reserve established in Queensland s south began as Barambah in 1901 and was later renamed Cherbourg Variouslly described as bold well meaning and misguided it was a social experiment in institutional control that was to impact on the lives of thousands of Aboriginal families in ways that continue to this day In this revealing first ever publication on Cherbourg Settlement s history 1900 1940 Thom Blake adds the vital dimension of interviews with former residents Supported by maps archival documents and letters this book illustrates an Aboriginal reserve s evolution under government practice It also explores the dynamics of cultural resilience through the generations

Undaunted Curiosity Douglas W. Ayres, 2012-03-12 This is an adventure book But an adventure without either fright or special effects An adventure which took 10 years which a couple and their dog s enjoyed immensely This book is the recounting of the cruise of a lifetime It tells the adventures life lessons and beauty of the first half of a voyage of 26 000 miles by water all within the territorial waters of America the United States and Canada The journey was predominately within inland waterways but covered most of all four North American coasts as well The book is entertaining and instructional Entertaining by providing fascinating interesting scenic and historical highlights and boater tales gleaned from 10 years of literally almost circumnavigating North America by traversing the vast majority of its navigable waterways and coasts Instructional to those interested in travel and boating And informational relating how to buy and equip a boat and to plan and execute cruises both major and minor Tidbits of information are inserted where intersecting with the entertaining providing responses to situations encountered enlightening significant and humorous The tales range from amusing to hilarious but they too provide information and instruction useful to those interested in boating and sightseeing cruising by boat One goal of this book is to illustrate how relaxing enjoyable educational and magnificently scenic and satisfying boat travel is within North America This book relates a literal voyage thru history the history of two nations and their first and formative transportation system coasts rivers and lakes and some really old canals This saga encompasses four boats thousands of gallons of fuel hundreds of stops and the water covered over 10 years at the ideal sightseeing speed of 10 miles per hour In other words utilizing the waterways of North America to see what s there in historic and scenic depth out of pure Undaunted Curiosity

Cruising World , 1977-01

Australian Tragic Jack Marx, 2014-12-23 A compelling collection of tales from Australia s dark heart of catastrophe and misfortune intrigue and passion betrayal and tragedy AUSTRALIAN TRAGIC ranges across our past and our present the heartbreaking story of the fire at Luna Park the unstoppable opportunist who snatched innocent men and women from Palm Island to be part of P T Barnum s Greatest Show on Earth a world class boxer who lost his battle with alcohol and ended up in an unmarked American grave a man who heroically survived a war to find himself crushed and defeated by events much closer to home and a new story of an echo from Ned Kelly at Stringybark Creek in our own time Heartbreaking and shocking gothic and weird these fascinating stories are all true and told to remind us of the Australia we don t know the one that simmers with love and hate of hopes raised and futures dashed unheralded and unnoticed until now Australian Aboriginal Studies ,1996
