Women and Autobiography Martine Watson Brownley, Allison B. Kimmich, 1999 An overview of women's autobiography providing historical background and contemporary criticism along with selections from a range of autobiographies by women It seeks to provide a broad introduction to the major questions dominating autobiographical scholarship today Women's Autobiography Margo Culley, 1992 Focus on the works of Harriet Jacobs Elizabeth Cady Stanton Gertrude Stein Mary McCarthy Maxine Hong Kingston and others American Indian Children at School, 1850-1930 Michael C. Coleman, 2008 Drawn from Native American autobiographical accounts a study revealing white society s program of civilizing Declarations of Independency in Eighteenth-century American Autobiography American Indian schoolchildren Susan Clair Imbarrato, 1998 In this ambitious work Susan Clair Imbarrato examines the changes in the American autobiographical voice as it speaks through the transition from a colonial society to an independent republic Imbarrato charts the development of early American autobiography from the self examination mode of the Puritan journal and diary to the self inventive modes of eighteenth century writings which in turn anticipate the more romantic voices of nineteenth century American literature She focuses especially on the ways in which first person narrative displayed an ever stronger awareness of its own subjectivity The eighteenth century she notes remained closer in temper to its Puritan communal foundations than to its Romantic progeny but there emerged nevertheless a sense of the individual voice that anticipated the democratic celebration of the self Through acts of self examination this study shows self construction became possible In tracing this development the author focuses on six writers in three literary genres She begins with the spiritual autobiographies of Jonathan Edwards and Elizabeth Ashbridge and then considers the travel narratives of Dr Alexander Hamilton and Elizabeth House Trist She concludes with an examination of political autobiography as exemplified in the writings of John Adams and Thomas Jefferson These authors Imbarrato finds were invigorated by their choices in a social political climate that revered the individual in proper relationship to the republic Their writings expressed a revolutionary spirit that was neither cynical nor despairing but one that evinced a shared conviction about the bond between self and Revelations of Self Lois Josephs Fowler, 1990-01-01 These autobiographies illustrate the emergence of community American women from their traditional position of dependence and legal and social inequality Here are five women of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Anna Cora Mowatt a well known playwright and popular actress Elizabeth Cady Stanton a prominent leader of the first women's rights movement Harriet Jacobs an escaped slave Mary Antin a Russian Jew who emigrated with her family to the United States in the late nineteenth century and Margaret Sanger founder of the birth control movement in the United States An introduction and notes accompany each autobiography Writers of the American Renaissance Denise Knight, 2003-12-30 The American literary canon has undergone revision and expansion in recent years and our notions of the 19th century renaissance have been reevaluated Mainstream anthologies have been revised to reflect the expanding literary canon yet resources for readers have remained widely scattered This book expands earlier definitions of the 19th century American Renaissance as represented by canonical writers such as Emerson and Poe covering writers who published popular fiction and dominated the literary marketplace of the day Included is generous coverage of women writers and writers of color The volume provides alphabetically arranged entries for more than 70 writers of the period including Louisa May Alcott Emily Dickinson Frederick Douglass Margaret Fuller Nathaniel Hawthorne Herman Melville Harriet Beecher Stowe Henry David Thoreau Walt Whitman and many more Each entry was written by an expert contributor and includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes a survey of the writer's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies

American Autobiography Paul John Eakin,1991 The first four essays review the major historical periods of American autobiography placing the classic texts of American autobiographical literature from Captain John Smith to Malcolm X in the illuminating context of lesser known contemporary narratives Daniel B Shea writes on colonial America Lawrence Buell on the American Renaissance Susanna Egan on the years after the Civil War and Albert E Stone on the twentieth century The second part of American Autobiography shows the diversity of voices forms audiences and modes of identity in the literature of American autobiography Provocative essays by William Boelhower and Sau Ling Cynthia Wong on immigrant autobiography discuss the changes in the sense of self that occur when strangers come to a strange land Arnold Krupat writes about how American Indians conceptualize the self and about the relationship between oral and written discourse William L Andrews evaluates the strong body of critical theory that has grown up around African American autobiography showing how both the genre and its criticism have responded to contemporary historical pressures Carol Holly explores the model of personal identity that underlies nineteenth century women s autobiographies and Blanche Gelfant examines the narrative and political strategies of Emma Goldman s autobiography especially her use of popular romance and melodrama The last essay offers a more personal perspective on contemporary autobiography a dialogue between Robert and Jane Coles about how they developed their method of eliciting first person oral narratives for their famous Children of Crisis and Women of Crisis series These essays raise theoretical issues that are examined in Paul John Eakin s incisive introduction How do we define a literary genre of protean shape and perplexing cultural multiplicity How do we approach the special problems created by documents that are both historical and literary texts ones that pose difficult questions about truth and representation Most important how is the canon of American autobiography to be constructed and how is its history to be written Tracing that critical history Eakin explains how changing ideas about the mainstream and the marginal have revitalized our retrospective view of American autobiography and opened up new and exciting prospects for today s reader

Feminism & Autobiography Tess Coslett, Celia Lury, Penny Summerfield, 2002-01-04 Featuring essays by leading feminist scholars from a variety of disciplines this key text explores the latest developments in autobiographical studies. The collection is structured around the inter linked concepts of genre inter subjectivity and memory Whilst exemplifying the very different levels of autobiographical activity going on in feminist studies the contributions chart a movement from autobiography as genre to autobiography as cultural practice and from the analysis of autobiographical texts to a preoccupation with autobiography as method The Oxford Handbook of the Book of Revelation Craig R. Koester, 2020 The Book of Revelation holds a special fascination for both scholars and the general public The book has generated widely differing interpretations yet Revelation has surprisingly not been the focus of many single volume reference works The Oxford Handbook of the Book of Revelation fills a need in the study of this controversial book Thirty essays by leading scholars from around the world orient readers to the major currents in the study of Revelation Divided into five sections Literary Features Social Setting Theology and Ethics History of Reception and Influence and Currents in Interpretation the essays identify the major lines of interpretation that have shaped discussion of these topics and then work through the aspects of those topics that are most significant and hold greatest promise for future research Merely Being There Is Not Enough Heike Mlakar, 2008 Despite the advent of second wave feminism in the late 1960s it took more than twenty years before feminist literary criticism started to pay attention to the complex role of women Beat writers Merely Being There Is Not Enough theorizes the memoirs of Diane di Prima Joyce Johnson Hettie Jones and Brenda Frazer and analyzes their contributions to the Beat movement Among the writings of female Beat authors the memoir has become the most commonly used literary genre At the height of the Beat movement Frazer published Troia Mexican Memoirs in 1969 the same year that saw the publication of di Prima's Memoirs of a Beatnik Most female Beat voices however remained astonishingly silent until 1983 when Johnson published Minor Characters A Young Woman's Coming of Age in the Beat Generation Johnson's long time friend Jones followed with How I Became Hettie Jones in 1990 The memoirs of Beat women chronicle the Beat 1950s and the intimate relationships with icons of the time Jack Kerouac Allen Ginsberg LeRoi Jones Amiri Baraka and Ray Bremser Being there at a crucial moment in history validates female Beats stories as indispensable social documents of the 1950s To make women Beat writers visible and to categorize their memoirs this work immerses in the almost paradoxical project of defining a category of female Beat writing when it is the nature of Beat literature and its rebellious aesthetics to dismiss any kind of labeling Women Beats unsettle the categories of Beat writing and culture Therefore a revision and re examination of Beat history is inevitable to understand the movement's literary expression Women in Context Barbara Kanner,1997 A comprehensive and versatile source for researchers in a broad range of disciplines Women in Context is a biographical analytical and critical bibliography of narrative autobiographies written by over eight hundred women born in the United Kingdom and British territories from the mid eighteenth century to mid twentieth centuries Each entry provides publication and catalog information a brief biographical sketch an analysis of the topical content and a critical comment on style tone and purpose of the autobiography
