Revelation Gerald O'Collins, 2016-08-25 Since the late 1980s the theme of God's self-revelation has been treated only briefly in Christian theology at times simply ignored and often confused with biblical inspiration Revelation Towards a Christian Theology of God's Self Revelation lays out its basic characteristics and begins by distinguishing between revelation in the primary sense a living encounter with God's self disclosure and in the secondary sense statements of faith derived from that encounter or propositional revelation. It considers revelation as transforming and informing as being sacramental or mediated through words and deeds as communicated through an endless variety of means and mediators as related to but distinct from biblical inspiration and truth and as reaching those of other faiths or of no faith at all. Gerald O Collins skilfully distinguishes between past or foundational revelation present or dependent revelation and future or eschatological revelation. He expounds with ecumenical sensitivity the complex relationship between tradition and scripture. O Collins moves into controversial areas by insisting that the divine self revelation takes place only when received by human faith and that outside revelation there is no salvation extra revelationem nulla salus. This volume offers a coherent account of God's self revelation which can serve as a basis for all that follows in theology and for dialogue with those who follow other living faiths or none at all. O Collins extends and enriches what he has proposed in earlier books and articles about the characteristics of God's self revelation.

Deep Pantheism Robert S. Corrington, 2015-12-09 This book is a study in a new form of religious naturalism called Deep Pantheism which has roots in American Transcendentalism but also in phenomenology and Asian thought. It argues that the great divide within nature is that between nature naturing and nature natured the former term defined as Nature creating itself out of itself alone while the latter term defined as The innumerable orders of the World. Explorations are made of the connections among the unconscious of nature the archetypes and the various layers of the human psyche. The Selfing process is analyzed using the work of C G Jung and Otto Rank. Evolution and involution are compared as they relate to the Encompassing and the priority of art over most forms of religion is argued for.

Religion and Revelation Keith Ward, 1994-09-30 Since first Thomas Aquinas defined theology as revelation or the rational elucidation of revealed truth the idea of revelation has played a fundamental role in the history of western theology. This book provides a new and detailed investigation of the concept examining its nature sources and limitations in all five of the major scriptural religions of the world Christianity Judaism Islam Hinduism and Buddhism. The first part of the book discusses the nature of theology and expounds the comparative method as the most useful and appropriate for the modern age. Part Two focuses on the nature of religion and its early historical manifestations whilst the third part of the book goes on to consider the idea of revelation as found in the great canonical traditions of the religions of the world. Part Four develops the distinctively Christian idea of revelation as divine self expression in history. The final part of the book discusses how far the idea of revelation must be revised or adapted in the light of modern historical and scientific thought and proposes a new and positive theology of revelation for the future. The book includes discussions of the work of most major theologians and scholars in the study of religion Aquinas Tillich Barth Temple Frazer and Evans Pritchard and should be of interest to many scholars and students of comparative religion and theology and anthropologists.

McGowan, 2015-05-04 Philosophers of religion and theologians have long wrestled with the concept of revelation Does God reveal truth to human subjects primarily through sacred texts or audible voices Through inner experiences or pronouncements of religious leaders What is the relationship between the truths given in revelation and those discoverable by reason Revelation is a challenge not only to scholars but also for churchgoers How can the same God command one person to do one thing and another to do something quite different In The Bridge Michael McGowan explores how a number of great twentieth and twenty first century thinkers understand the concept of revelation Using insights from their work and some recent advances in literary theory and communication studies he constructs a model of revelation in which symbol and narrative figure heavily Ancient ideas are given new life in this contemporary explication of the nature of revelation God as the Revealer and revelation s implications The Paradoxical Breakthrough of Revelation Uwe Carsten Scharf, 1999 No detailed description available for The Paradoxical Breakthrough of Revelation
