Screening #MeToo Lisa Funnell, Ralph Beliveau, 2022-04-01 Screening MeToo offers an important and timely discussion of the pervasive nature of rape culture in Hollywood Essays in the collection examine films released from the 1960s onward a broad period that coincides with the end of the Motion Picture Production Code in Hollywood which resulted in more frequent and increasingly graphic images of sex and violence being included in mainstream movies Focusing on narratives in which surveillance and sexual violence feature prominently contributors from North America and Europe examine a variety of film genres including spy films teen comedies kitchen sink dramas coming of age stories rape revenge films and horror films Reflecting the increasing social and academic awareness of sexual violence in Hollywood film and its transmission and cultivation of rape culture in the United States and abroad they are concerned not only with the content of the films under scrutiny but also with the clear relationship between the stories how they are being told and the culture that produced them Screening MeToo challenges readers to look at mainstream Hollywood films differently in light of attitudes about art and power sexuality and consent and the pleasures and frustrations of criticizing entertainment films from these perspectives

VideoHound's Golden Movie Retriever Jim Craddock, 2001-08      An Anthropology of Robots and AI Kathleen Richardson, 2015-02-11 This book explores the making of robots in labs at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology MIT It examines the cultural ideas that go into the making of robots and the role of fiction in co constructing the technological practices of the robotic scientists The book engages with debates in anthropological theorizing regarding the way that robots are reimagined as intelligent autonomous and social and weaved into lived social realities Richardson charts the move away from the worker robot of the 1920s to the social one of the 2000s as robots are reimagined as companions friends and therapeutic agents
