To Want to Learn Jackson Kytle, 2012-07-17 Lack of learner motivation is the single greatest challenge before American schools and colleges When students are self motivated they invest more and work harder at learning even if resources are inadequate Jackson Kytle s provocative book argues that students and teachers waste time and human energy because the conventional curriculum rests on flawed mental models Hope for change requires a searching critique of modernity as well as expanded theories of human motivation and learning based on advances in neurobiology and cognitive studies After consideration of existentialism and choice of life purposes and the dynamics of psychological involvement Kytle closes his ambitious interdisciplinary book with ten considerations for better learning

Speaking Out Jack Zipes, 2004-11-15 This book lays out ways in which teachers and storytelling groups can foster the imaginative lives of children and their parents

The Oxford Handbook of the Development of Imagination Marjorie Taylor, 2013-04-02 Children are widely celebrated for their imaginations but developmental research on this topic has often been fragmented or narrowly focused on fantasy However there is growing appreciation for the role that imagination plays in cognitive and emotional development as well as its link with children's understanding of the real world. With their imaginations, children mentally transcend time, place, and circumstance to think about what might have been, plan and anticipate the future, create fictional relationships and worlds, and consider alternatives to the actual experiences of their lives. The Oxford Handbook of the Development of Imagination provides a comprehensive overview of this broad new perspective by bringing together leading researchers whose findings are moving the study of imagination from the margins of mainstream psychology to a central role in current efforts to understand human thought. The topics covered include fantasy, reality distinctions, pretend play, magical thinking, narrative, anthropomorphism, counterfactual reasoning, mental time travel, creativity, paracosms, imaginary companions, imagination in non-human animals, the evolution of imagination, autism, dissociation, and the capacity to derive real-life resilience from imaginative experiences. Many of the chapters include discussions of the educational, clinical, and legal implications of the research findings, and special attention is given to suggestions for future research.

Handbook of Anti-Discriminatory Education Ardavan Eizadirad, Peter Pericles Trifonas, 2025-05-29 This comprehensive handbook addresses issues related to anti-discriminatory education as it relates to children, youth, young adults, families, and practitioners across a series of age groups, sectors, communities, and countries. It seeks to map a holistic interdisciplinary overview of the field, examining how policies, practices, and initiatives within unique social, political, and cultural contexts have been enacted to advance anti-discriminatory education for improved equity, diversity, and inclusion outcomes, leading to thriving school community ecosystems. The work draws on a range of theoretical frameworks, hybrid perspectives, and research projects to provide multiple examples about the challenges, complexities, and nuances involved in theorizing and doing the work of anti-discriminatory education in local communities and on a macro-institutional level. With intentionality, authors from various backgrounds, identities, fields, and positionalities describe and discuss various social justice and equity issues and how they strategize, mobilize, and navigate unique micro and macro dynamics affiliated with power and privilege for the purpose of advancing the field of anti-discriminatory education. Overall, the chapters cover a range of topics and issues from various practitioners and community perspectives around the intersectionality and divergence of navigating micro-lived experiences and macro-institutional policies and practices to bridge the gap between theory and action with respect to anti-discriminatory education. The book is divided into 4 sub-sections: Early Childhood Education (Early years up to approx 10 years old), Elementary and Middle School (Years approx 11 to 14 years old), Secondary Schools (approx 15 to 19 years old), and Higher Education (Post-Secondary).

The Art of Teaching Art to Children Nancy Beal, Gloria Bley Miller, 2001-08-30 Section specifically for parents on helping their children create art at home. The book is extensively illustrated with the art of Beal's students, visual proof of her gifts as an educator and art enthusiast. Book jacket
